Eyestrain is a source of serious exhaustion. You may have a drive in a fog or blinding rain occasionally but there is no need for rinking your precious eyesight—for draining your energy—in your own home.

Foot light is a serious handicap, especially to a child pursuing its studies. He, too, is traveling through a fog—his eyes straining to absorb the meaning of the printed word which he sees indistinctly before him.

What can you do about it? Try this and you will be delighted with the results—

Nicholas County Bureau Inaugurates Plan

George Rankin Carter, County Farm Bureau President, announced today that in line with the Farm Bureau National Campaign, he and his fellow members of the Nicholas County Farm Bureau have organized a county-wide effort to solve the juvenile delinquency problem.

The plan, which is being inaugurated this week, includes a series of Sunday school rallies, a series of lectures, and a series of public hearings. The first rally will be held on October 15 at the Nicholas County Farm Bureau building. It will feature a series of lectures by local members who will discuss the causes and effects of juvenile delinquency.

The plan also includes a series of public hearings, which will be held in various parts of the county. These hearings will give the public an opportunity to express their views on the problem of juvenile delinquency.

4-H And F. A. Fair Attracts Many Visitors

The Nicholas County 4-H and F. A. fair, which was held at the Nicholas County Fairgrounds, attracted a large number of visitors. The fair was held from October 2 to 4 and was a great success.

The fair featured a wide variety of exhibits, including livestock, poultry, and farm equipment. There were also many interesting displays and demonstrations. The fair was a great opportunity for the public to see the results of the hard work of the 4-H and F. A. members.
