their curriculum work are faced with that old problem of irregular attendance. In spite of our com- pany they should be made to comply with the law. It is a duty for us to see that the law is enforced. It is our duty to see that the law is enforced. It is our duty to see that the law is enforced.

Bill Appears To Get Best Of Deal

The following was found on the floor of the House of Representatives. It is a philosophical creation between a farmer and his milk.

"Bill you are a milk the son of a jackass and I am a man in the image of God. Yet here we work, blabbed up to the ears with your milk. I wonder if you work for me if I work for you. I think it a partnership between a milk and a fool for a fool to work as hard as you, if not harder. Plowing or cultivating we work the same distance. You do it on four legs and I do it on two. Therefore do twice as much for you as you do.

"Soon will be preparing for the harvest. I've got one kind of the land for being as kind as I can use this small flock of God's universe. One-third goes to you and the balance is mine with the exception of a milk-baker. If I divide mine among seven children, six less, two ducks and one hen. I divide mine among seven children, six less, two ducks and one hen. I divide mine among seven children, six less, two ducks and one hen.

"All fall and most of the winter the whole family from grass to the baby, folks cotton to help you. It is fair for me, you get a new harness and pay the interest on the mortgage on you. What do you care about a mortgage? Not a damn. You even have to do the washing about the mortgage on your head, ungrateful. Well, about the only time I am your better on an election day for I can vote. I realize that I was fully as good as a jackass as your papa. Verily, I am prone to wonder if politics were made for men, or for women.

"Why, you only help plow and cultivate the ground and I alone must cut, stack and haul the corn, while you look over the pasture fence and bark at me."
