MINUTE THOUGHT
THIS WEEK

Be perfect, be of good conduct, be of one mind, live peace, and the God of love and mercy shall be with you. Col. 3:12

If it hasn't happened already, you will probably be called upon in the next few days to fill out a questionnaire regarding a gas system in Carlisle. Considerable progress has already been made by volunteer workers in canvassing the city and the results, when completed will provide a good working basis for the city gas plan. The questionnaires are simple and easily filled out and citizens of Carlisle are asked to give their cooperation to those who are working on the project.

The Mercury wishes to acknowledge credit to Grimes' Campaign for its excellent coverage of the Blue Lake celebration. Last week's paper, Grimes, incidentally, was in the middle of a vacation from his duties with the Lexington Leader. In the time previous to the time treatment was given to the two news items, the article appeared in the paper in the Lexington Citizen of the same week.

The resumption next week of Western afternoon business hours in Carlisle will mark the end of the season of what has been called "hot" weather. It is desirable and several other business hours will be desirable to take advantage of this summer, but we have no intention of practicing a very "short-week" one and in which we would share if we could.

factor in popular education, and has often saved the country from serious mistakes. Its enthusiastic support of useful movements, its commendation of a broad and generous view of life, its denunciation of narrow and selfish interests, its insistence on the rights of the individual, its insistence on the rights of the individual, its insistence on the rights of the individual...
