Lauded By Columnist

Mrs. J. B. Duckett of Forest City, N. C., the former Elizabeth Veach of this city, and a sister of Postmaster Howard K. Veach, received mention under a "Laurels of the Week" column in the Forest City Courier recently. The item, which appeared August 15, follows:

There is probably no woman in Forest City who is more active in church or civic organizations than Mrs. J. B. Duckett. A list of her activities is imposing—at various times in the town she's president of the woman's society of the Methodist church, of which she is a member; circle chairman for two years; taught in the Sunday school; vice president of the Woman's club; chairman of the Junior Red Cross in Forest City; on the county committee for the Red Cross first aid course and assisted in war bond and Red Cross drives. She is a teacher in the high school, a member of the board of stewards; president of the Woman's club; chairman of the Red Cross committee for swimming classes, member of the city park commission and chairman of the community council for Youth activities.

At present her pet project is the youth program which she instigated in Forest City. She has been tireless in her efforts to provide wholesome recreation for the young people of the community, and though often she receives scant support her enthusiasm continues unabated.

One of her most outstanding traits is her generosity; she gives liberally of her time and money and any worthwhile cause will find in her an ardent champion.

When asked whether canning or gardening was her hobby she replied quickly, "Neither. Yours is my hobby," and a nobler one we do not know. So for our laurels of the week we nominate a woman who has done more than her share to make Forest City a better place in which to live—Mrs. J. B. Duckett.

Paul "Bear" Bryant, University of Kentucky football coach, expressed satisfaction with prospects for following a recent session of contact work. "It was the best drill we have had since I have been at Kentucky," Bryant added.

Though the practice session was only the third of the fall season, Coach Bryant had the linemen tackling and driving under long kicks by Ermal Allen, Mortimer Kaplan, passing star, Phil Cutchin, Murray, veteran, and George Blanda, letterman of the 1945 squad, were also looked good breaking away for long runs.

Later in the afternoon, Coach Bryant ran an offensive backfield and guards and tackles use tackles and ends. Again both offensive and defensive play was stressed. Roscoe Garrett, and Bill Griffin, Mayfield, outstand-
