BLAKE, PRICHARD APPEAR IN PROBE OF WEEB PRICES

Representatives of the county appeared prominently this week in discussions in the State Auditor's office seeking to correct tobacco price differentials now being experienced. A resolution providing for a joint Senate and House committee of the General Assembly to investigate falling barley tobacco prices was introduced Monday by Senator Bill Stanley, Bay, Carlisle Democrat.

Senator Blake's resolution would provide for five members, four from the Senate and one from the House. The committee would be authorized to investigate the cause of the downward trend in the price of tobacco and to report thereon to the next session of the General Assembly.

What Can You Wear?

What can you wear? That's the question that's on the minds of many people these days. The answer is simple: anything that's clean, comfortable, and practical. There's nothing wrong with a good old-fashioned work shirt and overalls, or a pair of sturdy work boots. They're the clothes that will last you through the toughest days of the year.
