PLEASANT VALLEY
Tom Payne is the occupier. Stanley McIntire was given a prize he took early Sunday. I don't know where this is true or not.
Miss Lulu Gray, Jean Jolley and Blanche McIntire, Pete and Mary Lou Jolley and Paul Clough were in Carlisle Sunday afternoon. They had their picnic taken at the new ball park. I don't know where this is true or not. Tom Payne said he didn't see that.
Mrs. Mary F. Campbell takes her basket alone down. Miss Campbell and Tom Payne claim the taken the basket were down. Pleasant Valley had a ball game to base ball game 7 to 3. Bethel's manager got his name but he didn't see him get hit. Paul Clough stayed left. Bethel and Shales the manager of Bethel coach. Other coaches had received the ball and hits started pitched for Pleasant Valley, and Woodrow Fryman damn damn takes Brett place to pitched and hits went over the ball behind the bat and Bethel had eight runs ball club. They said they had not win a game yet since Mitchell. No more labels and strikes. This is true. Harry Hunt has played in the school over 2 times and he Mitchell says I don't think that he would work for anybody else but he told Tom Payne he had to go to work. Woodrow Fryman has played his own over 2 times. He is a good man. And Henry Hunt has played his own over 2 times. He is a good man. And Henry Hunt has played his own over 2 times. He is a good man.
