Option For Disposal Plant Site Is Secured By Carlisle City Council

Excellent Financial Condition Revealed In Report Of The City Clerk At Regular Meeting Of Council Monday Night

A 12 month option on 1.58 acres of land, adjacent to the city of Carlisle belonging to Ernest Piper was secured by the city following a meeting of the city council at which instructions were issued to enter the procedure. The land is being considered as a site for the proposed sewage disposal plant which the city plans to erect in connection with the construction of a modern sewerage system for which plans have been completed. The city improvements are expected to get under way as soon as materials are available and pending the initiation of public works in the country. The water works committee composed of Councilmen Harper, chairman, and A. R. Fisher and J. D. Buntin as members had charge of the transaction. The action was taken at the regular meeting of the council Monday night at which Mayor W. C. Talbert presided and all members present with the exception of Councilman Buntin.

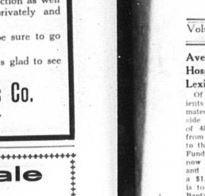
A group of citizens living in Liberty Heights and Arnold Heights attended the meeting and requested the extension of water mains in these sections which lie outside the corporate limits of Carlisle. The request was referred to the water works committee. The petitioners were told to ascertain if residents of these sections they represented planned asking to be included in the city limits of Carlisle.

The resignation of Clyde Owings as chief of police was accepted and formal appointment of L. B. Barton was voted unanimously.

The stray dog situation was brought to the attention of the council and steps will be taken to confer with the sheriff of the county, John Anderson, to seek relief. Steps are also to be taken against trespassers on city property at the water works plant.

A report was submitted by City Clerk Mullikin on city tax collections for February, there having been a total of $1,979.71 paid into the city treasurer by tax payers. Water rents, including a three per cent sales tax, amounted to $548.91. License fees collected amounted to $435.98. Balance of funds as of March 4, 1946 were shown to be as follows: general expense fund, $8,623.51; water works fund, $2,224.34; water works sinking fund $4,363.48; water works bond and interest redemption account, $6,854.95, and in the water works depreciation account, $2,349.39. With no indebtedness, the city also is owner of approximately $11,000 in government bonds, Mr. Mullikin reported.

New Superintendent



RAYMOND J. WESLEY

Legion Plans Next Horse Show As September Event

The Headquarters School Community Cannery operated its second annual season from June 1, 1945 through January 31, 1946. The cannery operated 204 days during this period of time with an aggregate attendance of 855. Tom Payne Makes The New Yorker

The latest issue of The New Yorker, smart magazine which has a tremendous circulation in and outside of metropolitan New York City, carries as a feature 16 sparkling items written by Tom Payne, the Mercury's Pleasant Valley "correspondent," under the heading of "Social Notes From All Over." This particular column of Tom's appeared in the Mercury under date of Nov. 28 and the magazine has reprinted it precisely as it appeared with no comment except a credit to this newspaper. Evidently the folks in the Pleasant Valley news have received notices from all over the world, evidence that it bears an originality which has gained it a popularity seldom attained by many news columns.

Chickery, Chick—

The housing shortage is causing great alarm over the country but it is doubtful if Joe Clay's chickens are mindful of the situation. In fact if one of Joe's pullets could talk, she would probably answer to a question as to whether the acute situation was bothering her by saying: "Not this chicken."

Joe has been working lately on his chicken house and Wilson Wyatt couldn't be planning a better housing program for veterans than Joe has for his pets.

For rumor has it that the postwar superintendent of the Carlisle water plant has gone the limit on fixing up facilities for his feathered friends by the addition of running water and electric lights in already comfortable quarters. It is further reported that he intends to install a chicken-house radio to test the theory that music hath charms to increase chicken content and will endeavor to see if he can get more eggs from hens who like under the spell of jump and jive.

Leader Tells Drive Rally Need Of Red Cross Is Greater
