Here's The Record of John Young Brown, The Democratic Nominee

While a member of Congress in 1934, Mr. Brown was the only Kentuckian who voted against a bill providing for immediate payment to veterans of World War I of the face value of their adjusted service certificates, in cash.

Mr. Brown told the House that after missing the C & O train in Lexington he drove 200 miles by auto in an effort to catch it, ran out of gas near Ashland and then walked five miles in time to board the train to reach Washington in time to vote against the veterans' bill. In his speech, Mr. Brown blamed the bill on a "noisy minority among ex-service men who make a big fuss about this matter." (See Congressional Record, Vol. 78, Part 4, Pages 4313, 4337, passim.)

Newly-Formed V. F. W. Post Opens Drive For Membership

Following a highly successful organization meeting here Friday night, the newly-formed Nicholas county post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, this week opened an intensive campaign intended to bring into their ranks every local veteran who has had overseas service in the Armed Forces.

Teddy Poe, who was elected acting commander at the first meeting, Wednesday announced that approximately 110 Nicholas veterans had already become members of the Carlisle post and estimated that some 500 men in the county had the qualifications required for membership in the V. F. W.

The local post, he added, hopes to enroll as many as possible of these veterans in the organization at a very early date. The drive for membership, which will be conducted by a committee appointed for that purpose last week, will be pushed rapidly during the next month, and Mr. Poe said formal initiation ceremonies will be conducted at the organization of the drive.

Veterans, appointed as a membership committee include Elmo Marshall, Johnny McCarty, Howard Stevens, Sherman Haw, Powell Neal, Hallie Hash and Nathan Yeoner, Jr.

The initiation ceremony it was announced, will be in effect by the Honor Team of the V. F. W. in Lexington. The following committees connected with the event will be selected soon: Arrangements, Nicholas County Court House here, Mr. Poe added, and membership will be picked from living relatives or friends of all who join the post.

The membership goal for the Carlisle post has been set at 500.

Interviewed concerning the aims and purposes of the new post, Mr. Poe emphasized the fact that the V. F. W. here will definitely not operate in opposition to or in competition with any other units of veterans organization. He said the local post will strive to work with all other civic groups in the accomplishment of desirable projects in Nicholas county.

Concerning a name for the Carlisle post, Mr. Poe said no name had yet been assigned the group, but expressed the expectation that the name of a local serviceman who lost his life during the recent war would be adopted provided permission from the serviceman's next of kin could be obtained.

City Attorney Charles Cox has been named acting adjutant for the post.

Dr. Campbell Is Claimed By Death

Dr. Edward Allan Campbell, 72, died at one o'clock Wednesday morning at his home on Sycamore street, where he was brought critically ill about 2:30 Tuesday afternoon.

Dr. Campbell had gone to his farm on the Miller Station road, and when he did not come home for lunch, Mrs. Campbell called his tenant, Clarence Scott, and he found him near the barn in his truck, unconscious. Dr. B. F. Reynolds and members of his family went out and had him brought home. Dr. Cavanaugh of Lexington was called, and his condition was pronounced serious from cerebral hemorrhage.

Dr. Campbell was the son of the late Silas W. and Mary Helen Weaver Campbell, and came from Nicholas county families, and was educated in the Carlisle schools and in 1897 was graduated from the Louisville Homeopathic School of Medicine, and practiced medicine in Carlisle, Nicholas county and surrounding counties for over 50 years. He was a member of the American Medical Society, the State and County Medical Association, and also the Carlisle Methodist church.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Fannie McClure Campbell, one daughter, Miss Mary Helen Campbell and one son, S. W. Campbell, who is a buyer on the tobacco market in Kinston, N. C. Two sisters, Mrs. Gertrude C. Gilmore, Mt. Sterling, and Miss Drusilla Campbell, Carlisle, and a brother J. H. Campbell, Cincinnati, and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at the home Friday at 10:30 a. m.

Capt. Alexander To Be Speaker At Armistice Dinner

Capt. Harry Alexander, a former pastor of the Carlisle Presbyterian church, will be the guest speaker at the annual American Legion Armistice Day dinner here Monday night, it was announced this week by Billy Lawson, commander of Nicholas Post No. 17.

The dinner, which will be prepared and served by members of the local Legion Auxiliary, will be held in the Armory here, and it is expected that a large attendance of Nicholas county Legionnaires will be present for the annual event.

Capt. Alexander, who served as an Army chaplain in the European theater during the recent war, is at present a chaplain at the United States Veterans Hospital in Lexington. He and Mrs. Alexander and their young son, Harry, Jr., are well remembered in Carlisle, where he was a pastor for about six years.

Elva R. Kendall, it was announced, will act as toastmaster at the dinner.

Carlisle Defeats Nicholasville Team

Carlisle high school's Musketeers brought their Central Kentucky Conference record to the .500 mark Friday afternoon by defeating the Nicholasville Jackets, 30-14, on the Nicholasville field. It was the fifth loss in seven outings for Nicholasville, a one victory for Nicholasville.

A blocked kick led to the first Carlisle touchdown in the first quarter. Dixon racing to the three-yard line with the ball after breaking through for the block. Crawford plunged over.

The Musketeers got two more markers in the second period and Nicholasville got one. Clark ran 40 yards with an intercepted pass and Crawford scored again on a two-yard plunge. Flynn ran 55 yards and set up the Jackets' tally with Cook crashing over.

Crawford made two more scores in the third quarter, one on a short plunge and the other after taking a pass from Clark which covered 44 yards.

Schneider went five yards for Nicholasville's other touchdown for the second time.

The Musketeers meet Stanford here Friday night in the last game of this year's season. Homecoming ceremonies for the local high school, which were postponed two weeks ago because of inclement weather, will take place at that time. The program will include the presentation by the Musketeer team of a sponsor and her attendants.

Council Accepts Equalization Report

The City Council, in session here Monday night, accepted the report of the City Equalization Board concerning the 1945 city assessment. The real estate valuation of 23 schedules was increased by the board in the sum of $9905. Personal property was increased 94 acres and residence, and Tract 2, across the road, containing 83 acres with tobacco barn, scales and corn crib, were sold as a unit to Horace Wasson and Clay Heilman at $171 per acre.

The sale was conducted by the Fightmaster Real Estate Agency.

Linville Farm Is Sold Here

The 177-acre farm of J. Bernard Michael Linville, one mile east of Carlisle on the Moorefield road, was sold at auction Saturday morning. Tract 1, which contains 94 acres and residence, and Tract 2, across the road, containing 83 acres with tobacco barn, scales and corn crib, were sold as a unit to Horace Wasson and Clay Heilman at $171 per acre.

The sale was conducted by the Fightmaster Real Estate Agency.

St. Johns Plans First Mission Here In Twenty-Five Years

By Father Emmet P. Crane

The mission which begins at St. John's church at the 9 o'clock mass on Sunday morning, Nov. 10, will be the first mission held in Carlisle in twenty-five years.

There will be two morning services at 6 and 8 o'clock each morning. These morning services consist of music and a very important instruction. Two morning services are scheduled so that no one will have any excuse for not attending the mission. Some of the family can come to the 6 o'clock service, and the other members of the family will be able to attend the 8 o'clock service.

In the evening there will be only one service at 7:30 o'clock.

We are very fortunate to have Father Clarence J. Dubart, C. SS. R. conduct this mission. Father Duhart is a gifted speaker, an experienced missionary. During the war he served as chaplain of the 21st Infantry Division in the Pacific Theatre of Operations. He was wounded on Saipan in the Marianas fighting, wears the Purple Heart and many decorations for heroism.

We are very fortunate to be able to have Father Duhart give this mission, because he narrowly escaped death in the fighting at Leyte. The St. Louis Post Dispatch tells the story.

"An infantryman came running up to him, Lt. Max Renner. Max jerked his thumb to a spot on the ground where camouflage concealed a hole. "Father" he said, "a young standing right on top of a Japanese pill-box." Seconds later the enemy death-trap was blasted with grenades. The Japanese who still remained alive came out with yelling and firing.

Another officer appeared. "You won't be much use to us dead, Father," he said respectfully. "Please move to the rear." Father Duhart reluctantly went back as ordered. But the men on that battlefield knew that he had complete disregard for his own safety. His heroism through the battle of Eniwetok endeared him to

Misses Voting For First Time

William McRohan, 75-year-old former county representative in the State legislature Tuesday broke a record of a lifetime when he was unable, because of illness, to cast a ballot in the election. Mr. McRohan, who is confined to his home on the Scrub Grass pike while recovering from an 18 weeks' illness, failed to vote for the first time since he became eligible for the franchise at the age of 21.

A Democrat, he had voted faithfully at the Engine House poll here all his life, and for 41 years served as an election clerk for that precinct. He served two terms in the Kentucky legislature during the administration of Governor Ruby Laffoon.

Western Ewes Received By FFA

A carload of 245 Northwestern ewes has been shipped to Carlisle Saturday for use by the Headquarters Future Farmers of America in stock-raising projects during the coming year, it was learned from John P. Pirtle, Headquarters chapter adviser, this week.

The lambs, which are reputedly superior in many respects to other lambs raised in this section, were obtained by the Headquarters F. F. A. through the Kentucky F. F. A. cooperative, and were sold by the chapter to members of the Veterans Farmer training program at the Headquarters school.

Those receiving the lambs were Walter Huddleson, Billy Conway, Paul Donovan, Todd Hill, E. E. Hutchings, Billy Layson, Chester Osborne, Jimmie Sammons, Billy Caldwell and James Parker.

Mr. Pirtle, commenting on the acquisition of the stock, said that agricultural leaders throughout the state had learned during the last several years that Northwestern sheep are among the best commercial sheep program for Kentucky. Advantages of this variety, he pointed out, include the production of more lambs, more wool on the sheep's back, and the lambs themselves, he added, are freer from parasites and disease than are other types of lambs.

Headquarters Cagers Defeat North Middletown

Coach Shields of Headquarters high school basketball quintet Monday night romped over the North Middletown Bees, 50-16, in the Nicholas county school's first intersectional tilt of the season. Hudnall led the winners with 11 points, while Hinkle scored 10 for the Bourbon county team.

In the other game of the season last Friday night, Brubeck's boys were given a 27-25 decision by the Headquarters alumni, who played their best ball in the latter stages of the game. Billy Hillock led the high school quintet, while the Alumni was paced by Paul Gaunce.

Legion To Have Dance Nov. 29

Nicholas Post No. 17, American Legion, will stage a Thanksgiving dance at the Armory in Carlisle on Friday night, November 29, it was announced Wednesday by Alex Crawford, dance chairman. Wayne Powell and his nine-piece orchestra from Irvine have been engaged to play for the event, Mr. Crawford said.

PROPERTY SOLD

Kentucky Attorney Henry Brandebet of Mt. Sterling has purchased the property of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rushton of Main avenue at a private price and got possession Nov. 1. Mr. and Mrs. Rushford have moved to the home they have just completed on their farm near Carlisle.

INJURED BY FALLING TREE

Sterling Jackson, 22, suffered a broken leg Tuesday when a tree he was felling near the Sugar Creek pike trapped him beneath it. He was removed to the Good Samaritan hospital in Lexington, where his condition was reported as satisfactory.

MUSIC SUPERVISOR NAMED

Mrs. James T. Williams (Elizabeth Landrum of Lexington) now a resident of Carlisle, has accepted the position of music supervisor at the city school.

Nicholas Countians Share In Honors At State Foxhunt

Nicholas county dog owners were awarded a good share of the honors at the 35th Annual Kentucky State Foxhunt which was concluded at Renfro Valley last Friday. Mandy Haggin, a hound bred and raised by Ollie Finch of this county and sold several months ago to Rachel Galloway of La Grange, received the all-age championship award at the meet. Omer Anderson, John W. Scott and the Blount Bros., of Carlisle, all made excellent showings on the bench with their hounds.

The many persons from Nicholas who attended the week's hunt reported it one of the most successful in many years, and commended the excellent hospitality of the people of Rockcastle county who made the hunt possible.

BULLETIN

The vote compiled in 3,616 of the state's 4,041 precincts Wednesday afternoon stood: Cooper 286,933; Brown 283,981.

A lethargy which many political observers had predicted would exist in the ranks of the Democratic party this fall became sharply obvious here Tuesday night as Nicholas county vote tabulators produced figures showing that only 38 per cent of the Democrats registered in the county cast a vote for their candidate, John Y. Brown, in Tuesday's election.

The final official returns Tuesday night gave 1,194 votes for Democratic Senatorial Candidate John Y. Brown, to 743 for his opponent and the winner in the State's election, John Sherman Cooper. The Socialist party candidate, W. A. Sandefur, received four Nicholas county votes.

Although Brown emerged in the county's balloting with a record-table majority of 451, the 1,194 vote he received here was not too impressive when compared with the total number of Democratic registrants, which according to County Clerk John F. Sugg, is 3,192.

With the Republican party, the story was quite different. While only 737 registered Republican voters in the county, Tuesday night's count produced 743 votes for the Republican candidate, or over 100 per cent of the eligible Republican vote.

Republicans carried four of the county's 16 precincts: Barterville, Sims Store, East Union and Sunnyside each gave a majority to Cooper in Tuesday's balloting.

Total voter cast in Nicholas county Tuesday was 1,973, as compared with 3,965 eligible registered voters, indicating that a little less than 50 per cent of the county's voters went to the polls.

Joe B. Bates, Democratic candidate for representative from the Eighth District, received 1,214 votes here to 688 for his opponent, Roy Schmauch—a margin of 526. Mr. Bates was quoted by local Democratic leaders as having expressed high satisfaction at the outcome of the Nicholas county balloting on his behalf.

In the election for members of the Nicholas County Board of Education, Dan E. Wells was elected in District No. 3, polling 137 to four write-in votes for J. A. Standiford. In District No. 5, Mrs. Howard Irvin, unopposed, polled 82 votes.

First Anniversary Is Observed At County Homemakers Meet

New Veterans Class Planned

All veterans who plan to enroll in a new farmers-training program to begin January 1 at Headquarters high school, were advised this week by John P. Pirtle, agriculture teacher, to attend an organization meeting at the school at 7 o'clock on the night of Thursday, Nov. 14.

Wood Property Sold

The home of the late Lillie Lindsay Wood on West Main street was sold at public auction Saturday afternoon by the Scott-Kendall Sales Company for the administratrix, Miss Jimmie Henley, to Bruce Wood for $5,000. A diamond brooch with nine stones was sold to Mrs. Claudia R. Tuckfor $500.00.

The brick business property on East Main street, occupied by Harold Marshall's confectionery and second floor apartments, and the adjoining frame residence and house on east Main street, occupied by Mathew Campbell's barber shop, J. A. Power, jeweler, and second floor apartments, sold as a whole for $13,300 to George Waugh of Carlisle.

Miss Buntin Joins Delta

Miss Anne Evans Buntin, Carlisle, has joined the staff of Delta Air Lines and is now attending the stewardess training school in Atlanta, Ga.

The daughter of W. H. Buntin, 315 Sycamore street, she attended the University of Kentucky where she was a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority. At stewardess training school she is studying stewardess procedures while in flight, aviation terms, meteorology, and theory of flight.

GAME CLUB MEETS TONIGHT

A meeting of the Nicholas County Fish and Game Club has been set for 7:30 o'clock tonight at the courthouse, President Chess Shelton announced. Plans for the club's turkey shoot on Nov. 27 will be discussed.

IN COLLISION

Logan Hamilton and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Tapp of Lexington, were returning from Miami, Florida and others in their interest when their car was sideswiped by a car driven by Perry Osborne of Corbin. No one was injured but both cars were badly damaged.

TO MEET MONDAY

Mrs. Nelle Kenton, worthy matron of Marie Chapter, O. E. S., is urging all officers of the chapter to be present Monday night, Nov. 11, for practice meeting.

"Our First Birthday" was the theme of the second annual meeting of the Nicholas County Homemakers Association, which was held October 28 at 1:30 p. m. at the Carlisle Baptist church and was conducted by Mrs. E. E. Barlow, county president. This was the ending of the first year's Homemakers program in the county. The annual meeting is a high point in the homemakers program and is the only time in the year in which all of the clubs in the county meet together. Reports of the first years achievements in the county were given by the following homemakers:

Home Management—Mrs. Warner Lowe, Parks club.

Home Furnishings—Mrs. Naomi Cook, Headquarters club.

Foods—Mrs. J. A. Standiford, Ellisville club.

Clothing—Mrs. Kenneth Stephenson, East Union club.

Landscape—Mrs. Walter Shepherd, Carlisle East club.

4-H Club—Mrs. J. B. Linville Carlisle East club.

From the splendid reports given on the program in eight Nicholas county is developing rapidly. Membership is gradually increasing and to date there is a total of 903 members in the eight clubs. "Expansion" is the key word for this coming year, it was announced by the chapter home demonstrators Association in charge of the building and membership stand still."

The luncheon was given by Edgar Darrell, Artie Osborne, James Reid, Ted Hunter, Gaylord Caswell, Everett Vice, Ronald Mercer, Earl Finch, Charles Cooper and John Eaton.

Several FFA members have already purchased sows and others are planning to acquire sows soon for spring pig projects.

Those who made the trip were Emmett Darrell, chapter president; Gaylord Caswell, reporter; W. H. Scott, treasurer; Ronald McLean, vice president, and Everett Vice, secretary.

SNAPP RESIDENCE SOLD

Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Snapp have sold their home on January Court, Paris, to Mr. and Mrs. Estie Asbury of Nicholas county at a private price.

Miranda Homemakers

The Miranda Homemakers club met Wednesday, October 9 at the home of Mrs. Edgar Darrell.

The project leader, Mrs. Luther Clay, gave a very interesting lesson on "Harmony In Room Furnishings."

Future Farmers To Buy Stock

Eighteen calves—including pure bred some angus, some short horn and some hereford calves—are to be purchased by seventeen members of the Carlisle chapter, Future Farmers of America, in connection with the chapter's project for the coming year, it was announced this week by the chapter's adviser, G. B. Leonard.

The calves, which will probably be acquired within the next month by the following Future Farmers: Edgar Darrell, Artie Osborne, James Reid, Ted Hunter, Gaylord Caswell, Everett Vice, Ronald Mercer, Earl Finch, Charles Cooper and John Eaton.

Wilson Book Is Reviewed For Club

Mrs. Stanley Myers of Owingsville reviewed the book "Aunt Louisa and the Life of Woodrow Wilson" at the regular meeting of the Carlisle Woman's club held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Alsop. The review of the book was given by the speaker pointed out, was a niece of "Aunt Louisa" and a sister of the first Mrs. Wilson. Had Mrs. Myers declared, "lived a generation ahead of his time. Otherwise World War II may have been averted."

Mrs. Myers was introduced by Mrs. Frank Henry, club literary chairman. Hostesses assisting Mrs. Alsop were Mrs. Walt Shepherd, Mrs. Naomi Cook and Mrs. Thomas Johnson.

Miss Helen Messenger of Frankfort will be the guest speaker at the next meeting of the Carlisle Woman's Club on November 15. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. James Parker.
