Kute Kids Kut Kapers

PRETTY good dancers, these "USO kids" do tango, solos, duets and they also can sing. They—Donna Rae Berry, who is 8, and Douglas Kay, 9—hail from Louisville, Kentucky. They have entertained plenty of GI's at various USO clubs. Picture shows them performing for soldiers at Louisville USO-YMCA Club. This Fall, public will be asked to contribute funds so that USO may keep open (through 1947) 399 clubs in U. S. and 25 overseas.

The Moorefield 4-H club held its first meeting of the year on October 11. Miss Reeve, our home agent, had charge of the meeting.

The following officers for the year of 1946-47 were elected: president, Phyllis Ruddell; vice pres., Carolyn Shrout; reporter, Virginia McIlvain; song leader, Betty Blake; game leader, Janet Denton. After the election of officers the projects carried last year were discussed and score sheets marked. A number of our members took exhibits to the Fair.

"In Kentucky" Invites Tourists

A special invitation is extended outsiders to visit Kentucky this autumn and see her attired in her glory raiment in the fall issue of "In Kentucky", quarterly publication of the State Division of Publicity.
