Glory to God in the Highest, And on Earth Peace among men in whom He is well pleased. Luke 2:14.

Waterfield Appears Unhappy.

(Union County Advertiser)
Harry Lee Waterfield, judging from the opening statement of his campaign for the Democratic nomination for Governor, appears to be a very unhappy young man. To say the least Mr. Waterfield is not in very good humor. He is in a bad mood in his own mind, and is in a bad mood in the eyes of his constituents. He is in a bad mood in the eyes of his constituents, and is in a bad mood in the eyes of his constituents.

50 Years Ago

THURSDAY, APRIL 3, 1947
Cain Road, broke ground yesterday for a two-story brick house on their lot, between the hotel and Charles W. Wood's lot. The building will be 20 x 30 feet. The lower floor is to be made into a living room, bar and bath room, and the upper floor sleeping rooms for the hotel.

Ed Kennedy and Rogers Neal are the "bush" fishermen on the lake this season. They caught hundreds and two nightgowns in less than three hours last Thursday. And the beauty of it is that they divided them with their friends. Go again boys, we have our permission.

Stephen Haskley who was one of the injured in the saw mill blow up in Britain, arrived home Saturday. While able to be about he has several marks that will remind him often of the accident.

Batlett Ross & Ross were granted a permit for the erection of a two-story brick residence for the "bush" fishermen on the lake this season. They caught hundreds and two nightgowns in less than three hours last Thursday. And the beauty of it is that they divided them with their friends. Go again boys, we have our permission.

The street commissioner was ordered to take up the plank walk leading from Main street to the downtown bridge and to have the same filled in. It will be done by the end of the week.

DOMINIO to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Reno, a son to Mr. and Mrs. George E. Secret, a son to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reno, a son to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reno.

DIED—J. D. Durland on the 7th, after a lingering illness. John R. Blake, a former attaché of the Carlisle Cigar Company. He leaves a widow and nine children.
