

HAPPY NEW YEAR

THE CARLSLE MERCURY

Volume LXXXII

Established 1867

CARLSLE, KY., THURSDAY, JANUARY 2, 1947

Price Five Cents

NUMBER 1

Masons Name Maurice King New Master

Friday Session Selected At

Maurice King was chosen master of Daughters Lodge No. 65, and A. M. in the annual election of officers held by the organization here Friday night. King has acted as master of the lodge since the death in November, of Martin Justice, and will serve through 1947.

Other Officers Selected At

Bill Casperson, senior warden; Arthur Mullin, secretary; Walter Haddock, junior warden; Omer Berry, treasurer; Boyd Hines, senior deacon; Charles Smith, junior deacon; Clay Ebel, singer; and Ralph Thomas, chorister.

Norris Becomes County Game Warden

John A. Norris, former warden of the Meigs county, was commissioned here Tuesday and will take up residence in his new office immediately.

Game Club To Discuss Casting Contract

M. C. Shearer, president of the Nicholas County Fish and Game Club, announced this week that the organization would hold its first meeting in 1947 tonight at the Armory.

V. F. W. Meeting Slated Next Thursday

Lloyd George, post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will hold its 130th meeting this year at 7:30 o'clock Thursday night.

House Sold

Mrs. Taylor's mother has sold a house and lot at Chestnut and Symmes streets, known as the Mann, Harris, Fekel, home.

Son Of Former Resident Gets Radio Award

Johnnie Bill Belpash, 10, son of the late Mrs. E. E. Belpash, of Bolivar, Ohio, was first prize winner in a radio program over the radio station in Wheeling, West Virginia, on November 20.

Square Dance Here Friday

Nicholas Post No. 17, American Legion, will sponsor a square dance from 8:30 to 11 o'clock Friday night.

Sales Reported

The Scott-Kendall Sales Company sold for J. E. Harper a residence and store room on West Main street, known as the J. H. Fulton Barker home.

Truck Owners Advised On New Fee Law

Kentucky's new truck law became effective on January 1, and many trucking men are being prepared for the new regulations.

Yule Gifts Cheer Tots At Children's Home Here

The spirit of Yuletide generosity among Nicholas county residents made Christmas this year a time of fun and laughter at the Children's Home for the Deaf.

Women's Club To See Film

"The World of Tomorrow" an educational film supplied through the courtesy of the Kentucky Y. M. C. A., will be shown at the next meeting of the Carlsle Women's Club.

Accepts Position

Miss Nancy Deason has completed requirements for a B. S. degree at the University of Kentucky and has accepted a teaching position in the Lancaster high school, Lancaster, Ky.

Planned To Address P. T. A.

E. E. Franklin, former superintendent of the Carlsle city schools, will be the guest speaker at a regular meeting of the Carlsle Parent-Teacher Association to be held at 7 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, January 2.

Sister Dies In Ohio

Miss Julia Hance, sister of Mrs. A. T. Gardner of Carlsle, died Thursday morning in Cincinnati, Pa., and Mrs. A. T. Gardner was called to Cincinnati to be with her sister and family.

Miss Wilson

Miss Wilson was presented to the Carlsle community at the home of Mrs. Orla Cavell.

Muskeeters Elect

The Muskeeters met Friday, December 20, with Mrs. Leonard Alexander, several members and two visitors, Mrs. Walter Martin and Mrs. H. J. Wagner.

Legion To Meet Here On Friday

Truman proclaimed an end to the hostilities of World War II. The American Legion will hold its regular January meeting at 7 o'clock Friday night.

Christmas Dance In La Grac Success

A Christmas dance held at the home of Mrs. Orla Cavell was a success.

Hans Sollen

Army Major Hans Sollen has taken five years from a monthlong tour in the Pacific to visit his family here.

Paris Newspaper Cites Need To Draft Ticket For Party Victory

Kentuckian-Citizen Points Out That Wisdom In The Selection Of Candidate For Governor Will Determine Party Success

The Paris Kentuckian-Citizen, which has editorially advocated the selection, without a primary, of the Democratic candidate for Governor of Kentucky, has today issued a story last week in which it has pointed out that the wisdom of the party's choice of its candidate for Governor will determine the party's success at the polls in November.

Minimum Wage Increase Favored

Board Also Favors 48-Hour Work Week For Women & Minors

Frankfort, Ky.—A 100 per cent increase in the state's minimum wage for women and minors and a maximum recommended by the Minimum Wage Board Monday.

Yule Gifts Cheer Tots At Children's Home Here

The spirit of Yuletide generosity among Nicholas county residents made Christmas this year a time of fun and laughter at the Children's Home for the Deaf.

Women's Club To See Film

"The World of Tomorrow" an educational film supplied through the courtesy of the Kentucky Y. M. C. A., will be shown at the next meeting of the Carlsle Women's Club.

Accepts Position

Miss Nancy Deason has completed requirements for a B. S. degree at the University of Kentucky and has accepted a teaching position in the Lancaster high school, Lancaster, Ky.

Planned To Address P. T. A.

E. E. Franklin, former superintendent of the Carlsle city schools, will be the guest speaker at a regular meeting of the Carlsle Parent-Teacher Association to be held at 7 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, January 2.

Sister Dies In Ohio

Miss Julia Hance, sister of Mrs. A. T. Gardner of Carlsle, died Thursday morning in Cincinnati, Pa., and Mrs. A. T. Gardner was called to Cincinnati to be with her sister and family.

Miss Wilson

Miss Wilson was presented to the Carlsle community at the home of Mrs. Orla Cavell.

Muskeeters Elect

The Muskeeters met Friday, December 20, with Mrs. Leonard Alexander, several members and two visitors, Mrs. Walter Martin and Mrs. H. J. Wagner.

Legion To Meet Here On Friday

Truman proclaimed an end to the hostilities of World War II. The American Legion will hold its regular January meeting at 7 o'clock Friday night.

Christmas Dance In La Grac Success

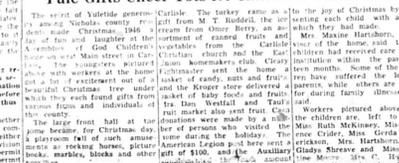

A Christmas dance held at the home of Mrs. Orla Cavell was a success.

Hans Sollen

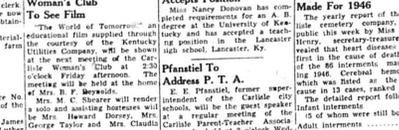

Army Major Hans Sollen has taken five years from a monthlong tour in the Pacific to visit his family here.

The spirit of Yuletide generosity among Nicholas county residents made Christmas this year a time of fun and laughter at the Children's Home for the Deaf.

"The World of Tomorrow" an educational film supplied through the courtesy of the Kentucky Y. M. C. A., will be shown at the next meeting of the Carlsle Women's Club.

Miss Nancy Deason has completed requirements for a B. S. degree at the University of Kentucky and has accepted a teaching position in the Lancaster high school, Lancaster, Ky.

E. E. Franklin, former superintendent of the Carlsle city schools, will be the guest speaker at a regular meeting of the Carlsle Parent-Teacher Association to be held at 7 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, January 2.

Miss Julia Hance, sister of Mrs. A. T. Gardner of Carlsle, died Thursday morning in Cincinnati, Pa., and Mrs. A. T. Gardner was called to Cincinnati to be with her sister and family.

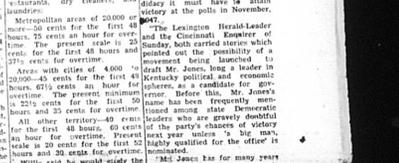

Miss Wilson was presented to the Carlsle community at the home of Mrs. Orla Cavell.

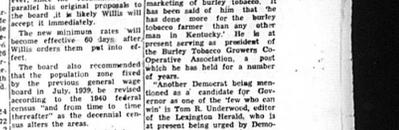

The Muskeeters met Friday, December 20, with Mrs. Leonard Alexander, several members and two visitors, Mrs. Walter Martin and Mrs. H. J. Wagner.

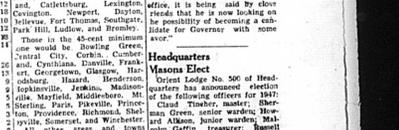

Truman proclaimed an end to the hostilities of World War II. The American Legion will hold its regular January meeting at 7 o'clock Friday night.

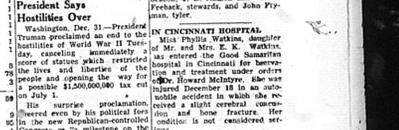

A Christmas dance held at the home of Mrs. Orla Cavell was a success.

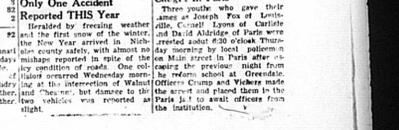

Army Major Hans Sollen has taken five years from a monthlong tour in the Pacific to visit his family here.

A Christmas dance held at the home of Mrs. Orla Cavell was a success.

A Christmas dance held at the home of Mrs. Orla Cavell was a success.

A Christmas dance held at the home of Mrs. Orla Cavell was a success.

A Christmas dance held at the home of Mrs. Orla Cavell was a success.

The Paris Kentuckian-Citizen, which has editorially advocated the selection, without a primary, of the Democratic candidate for Governor of Kentucky, has today issued a story last week in which it has pointed out that the wisdom of the party's choice of its candidate for Governor will determine the party's success at the polls in November.

The Lexington Herald-Leader, which has editorially advocated the selection, without a primary, of the Democratic candidate for Governor of Kentucky, has today issued a story last week in which it has pointed out that the wisdom of the party's choice of its candidate for Governor will determine the party's success at the polls in November.

The Lexington Herald-Leader, which has editorially advocated the selection, without a primary, of the Democratic candidate for Governor of Kentucky, has today issued a story last week in which it has pointed out that the wisdom of the party's choice of its candidate for Governor will determine the party's success at the polls in November.

The Lexington Herald-Leader, which has editorially advocated the selection, without a primary, of the Democratic candidate for Governor of Kentucky, has today issued a story last week in which it has pointed out that the wisdom of the party's choice of its candidate for Governor will determine the party's success at the polls in November.

The Lexington Herald-Leader, which has editorially advocated the selection, without a primary, of the Democratic candidate for Governor of Kentucky, has today issued a story last week in which it has pointed out that the wisdom of the party's choice of its candidate for Governor will determine the party's success at the polls in November.

The Lexington Herald-Leader, which has editorially advocated the selection, without a primary, of the Democratic candidate for Governor of Kentucky, has today issued a story last week in which it has pointed out that the wisdom of the party's choice of its candidate for Governor will determine the party's success at the polls in November.

The Lexington Herald-Leader, which has editorially advocated the selection, without a primary, of the Democratic candidate for Governor of Kentucky, has today issued a story last week in which it has pointed out that the wisdom of the party's choice of its candidate for Governor will determine the party's success at the polls in November.