Public Sale

In order to settle the estate of the late Max E. Hasie, I will sell to the highest bidder on the premises, on THURSDAY, JANUARY 16 AT 10 A. M.

her farm of 81 acres, located on the Judy-Flack pike, 7 miles from Mt. Sterling, 1 1/2 miles of Kentucky Highway 11, on a good backroad road. This farm has a three-fourths mile frontage on the Judy-Flack pike, is well watered by springs and a pond, 115 by 90, 8 feet deep. This place is well fenced and is all down in old blue grass except what was in cultivation last year, which was eight acres and which now has on it a good stand of grain and vetch. There is a 6-acre tobacco base and there is plenty of excellent tobacco land.

Improvements consist of a nice 11-room home with large basement with a big chimney and well at house with water in kitchen, a large stock barn, 90x36; 1 tobacco barn, 84x48, and other necessary outbuildings. All buildings on concrete foundations and in excellent condition. The stock barn is equipped for dairy. There is also a good tenant house and an excellent 3-acre orchard. Roles for electricity have already been set and the place is ready to wire.

FARMING IMPLEMENTS

At the same time and place a quantity of Farming Implements will also be offered for sale. This is a good farm and a most desirable home. For further information, see CHARLES HASTIE, Agent
