Deaths

Miss May Potts, a native of Bourbon county, daughter of the late Robert and America Henry Potts, died in a Louisville hospital Thursday, where she was a patient suffering with a hip fracture sustained two years ago. Miss Potts lived at East Union for a number of years and has many relatives in Carlisle.

Funeral and burial took place at Haven Rest cemetery six miles out of Louisville. Mrs. Mattie Bedford Hamon, 76, of Carlisle, wife of J. B. Hamon, former superintendent of Nicholas county schools, died Thursday afternoon in the Green nursing home at Frankfort where she and her husband have been residing since last September. She was a daughter of the late Mattie Potts, all of Louisville Nicholas county since her marriage to her husband, who died two months ago and was buried at Carlele Christian church and served as superintendent of the church.

Funeral services were conducted at 11 o'clock this morning at the Methodist church of the Christian church, with the Rev. Ralph Thomas, pastor of the Christian church, officiating, and burial was in the Carlele cemetery. Pathways were Fred Huffstader, Edna Huffstader, Walter Hudderson, Clayton Hudderson, Thomas Letten and Frank Reed.
