Deaths

Mrs. Jane Parker Letton

Mrs. Jane Parker Letton, 96, widow of the late Henry S. Letton, died at 2:30 a. m., Wednesday at her home on the Flemingsburg road. Although she had been in ill health for more than a year, she had been in a critical condition for only the past week.

Her husband, who died July 24, 1922, served with General John Hunt Morgan for three years from 1861 to 1865.

She was the oldest member of the Carlisle Christian church, having united with it in 1865.

She is survived by one son, Harry T. Letton, Nicholas county; one daughter, Mrs. J. H. Marr, Millersburg; two granddaughters, Mrs. F. H. Martin, North Middletown; Mrs. J. W. Wigglesworth, Cynthiana; two great grandchildren, Barbara Martin and Jane Marr Martin.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m., Friday at the home of her son, Harry T. Letton, with the Rev. F. M. Tinder, Paris, officiating. Burial will be in the Carlisle cemetery.

Pall bearers will be Reynolds Letton, Rube Letton, E. G. Paton, Letton Vimont, Roy Endicott and Zed C. Layson.

The body will remain at the home of the deceased until Thursday morning when it will be moved to the home of Mr. Letton.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hopkins Burris

Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth Hopkins Burris, 62, wife of Finley Burris, Little Rock, were held at 3 p. m., Wednesday at the Hinton-Turner Funeral home, in Paris, with the Rev. H. H. Webb, pastor, of the Little Rock Christian church officiating. Burial was in the Carlisle cemetery.

Pall bearers were: William Burris Bryan, Carlisle; C. Bryan, John Curtis Burris, James Burris Clark, Allen Vinton Hopkins and Fred Francis.

Honorary pall bearers were elders of the Little Rock Christian church.

Mrs. Burris died at 10 p. m., Monday at her home in Little Rock following a paralytic stroke which she suffered Saturday night.

A native of Nicholas county, she was the daughter of the late Samuel Hopkins and Mrs. Sally Allen Hopkins. She was graduated from the Carlisle High school and attended Bourbon College, Paris. She was an active member of the Little Rock Christian church.

In addition to the husband, other survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Earl Lawhorn, Bourbon county; her mother, Mrs. Sally Allen Hopkins, Carlisle; one brother, Allen Hopkins, Carlisle; one grandson, Douglas Lawhorn, and one granddaughter, Mona Lawhorn, both of Bourbon county.

Ollie Otis Guthrie

Funeral services for Ollie Otis Guthrie, 45, retired Nicholas county farmer, were held at 3 p. m., Tuesday at the residence on Walnut street with the Rev. E. Hampton Barnette, pastor of the Carlisle Methodist church, officiating. Burial was in the Carlisle cemetery.

Pall bearers were Frank Lynam, Elmer Gilvin, Conway Campbell, Charles McWhorter, William Guthrie and Paul Guthrie.

Mr. Guthrie died Sunday morning at his home after a long illness.

He was a native of Montgomery county, son of the late Charles Lee and Julia Ann Orkin Guthrie, and was a member of the Carlisle Methodist church. He had been a farmer here in Nicholas county until ill health forced his retirement.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mattie Kate Kokendoffer Guthrie, a daughter, Mrs. Charles Feebeck, Paris; three sons, Donald, Donald Lloyd and Billy Davis Guthrie, all of Carlisle; a sister, Mrs. George Kokendoffer, Nicholas county, and four brothers, Clay Guthrie, Mt. Sterling, Justice, Frank and Olie Guthrie, all of Nicholas county.

George Shumate

Funeral services for George Shumate, 65, a former resident of Nicholas county, were held Tuesday in Paris with the Rev. Mr. Mefford, pastor of the Church of God officiating. Burial was in the Paris cemetery.

Mr. Shumate died Saturday night at a Lexington hospital.

He is survived by his wife and three children and a brother, Silas Shumate of Carlisle.

Price Infant

Funeral services for Elmer Dee Price, eight-week-old son of Elmer C. and Mayme Crawford Price, were held at 2 p. m., Sunday in the Carlisle cemetery with the Rev. E. Hampton Barnette officiating.

The child died at 3:10 p. m., Saturday at the Good Samaritan hospital, Lexington where he had been admitted for treatment from the Johnson Memorial hospital, Carlisle.

What an absurd thing it is to pass over all the valuable parts of a man, and fix our attention on his infirmities.—Addison.

But, by all thy nature's weakness,
Hidden faults and follies known,
Be thou, in rebuke, humbler,
Conscious of thine own.
—Whittier.

There never did, and never will exist anything permanently noble and excellent in the character which is a stranger to the exercise of resolute self-denial.—Sir Walter Scott

COMING TO CARLISLE is the Mother o' God Choral Club of Covington which will present a program beginning at 10 a. m., Sunday at the St. John Mission. The club, organized since 1939, shown above, is composed of 60 adult voices. Its visit to Carlisle is in response to an invitation of Father Gerard Bouchier, who, while recently conducting a Day of Recollection at Mother of God church, recognized the talents of this choral society and its versatile director, Leo J. Grote.

20 Club Meeting

The 20 club met Thursday, July 17, at the home of Mrs. Robert Davis. The high score prize was won by Miss Dorotha Colliver. In addition to the regular members one guest, Mrs. Allen Vinton Hopkins, was in attendance. The next meeting of the club will be held at 2:30 p. m., Thursday, July 31, at the home of Mrs. Ralph Shearer.

—FORD OFFERS THE LOWEST PRICED CARS IN ITS FIELD—

These days many articles are being sold at prices that represent the full amount the SELLER thinks the public will pay.

Automobiles are not in this class. New cars are being sold every day by authorized Ford Dealers at prices well below what people are willing to pay.

That is why we Ford Dealers publish this advertisement. We want you to know the exact prices we charge for the new Ford cars we sell, and that no bonus payments or premiums of any kind have been or will be accepted.

Of course, the demand for new Fords is still far ahead of the supply. But we are delivering cars as fast as we can on a fair and equitable basis to those who have their orders on our books now.

We sincerely appreciate your patron-e. We want to deliver your new Ford just as soon as possible, at the REGULAR PUBLISHED PRICE. In the meantime, let us keep your present car rolling with Friendly Ford Service.

And remember that it has always been Ford policy to offer the greatest value at the lowest possible cost.
