An Expression of Policy

With this issue of the Carlisle Mercury which is being published at this location, two members of the staff who served their term of office...

While the Mercury intends to devote a major portion of its space to local news stories, lessons and pictures, experimental material and news pictures of national and international interest have been added in order to give Carlisle and Nicholas county a wide selection of both instructive and entertaining material.

Understanding Parent Can Cure Child's Nervous Habit

By CARL CLEVELAND HINES, P.E.D.
RECENTLY I have been receiving an increasing number of letters about the baby and young child who sucks his thumb, chews his finger of a toy, eats, who even sucks his tongue inside at school.

Both Kash and Fisher have expressed themselves "glad to be back home" and have pledged their intention of giving the subscriber and the advertiser the best service that can be extended by any newspaper.

FANNING THE FLAME

Make resembles poetry: in its creation, which, like every creation of art, is limited by the artist—Bethever.

FORD'S OUT FRONT WITH ALL THE FAMILY!
Dads: "Practical thing about this car is that powerful Ford engine. 55 or 68, these Ford power plants are really great!"

Mother: "Sound like you 'reah or fends' haven't seen this rooey interior. It has broader fabric than our parlor chair. And what deep, soft seat!"
