

Religious Reforms in Judah

In the 18th year of his reign over Judah, the high priest, the son of the Lord, and they found the book of the Law, and Shaphan took it to the king and read it to him.

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Then the high priest, Shaphan with three other men went to Huldah, the prophetess, to ask her what the Lord said concerning the words of the book. She told them that Huldah would be destroyed, but not in Josiah's time.

By Alfred J. Bouchard

The king and all the priests and people of Judah went to the house of the Lord, and he stood by a pillar and made a covenant to the Lord that he would observe His commandments always.
