Older Rural Youth Organize 4-H Clubs

There are various groups of older farm boys and girls in Nicholas county, from the eighth grade to 21 years old who are interested in organizing 4-H clubs in their communities. The purpose of these clubs is to give the boys and girls an opportunity for wholesome recreation as well as carrying out 4-H projects and learning improved farm and home practices. The boys are interested in such projects as tobacco, corn, gardens, baby beef, dairying, swine and poultry. The girls learn to can fruits and vegetables, sew, and grow a garden. Careful records are kept on all projects and a large number of these records and the projects will be exhibited at the County Youth Fair this fall.

Clubs have been organized in the Myers, Parks, East Union, and Moorefield communities during the past two weeks and through them valuable experience may be gained by members who are willing to give time and effort to their clubs.

It is necessary that these clubs have adult leaders who are interested in the welfare of rural youth and their 4-H Club program. These adults are making valuable contributions to their community.

Ellisville Club To Meet

A group of boys and girls will meet Thursday, June 26, at the Ellisville school to organize a Senior 4-H Club. All rural youth of the community are urged to attend this meeting to aid in electing officers and setting up a club. If you are interested in this club but unable to attend, please call the County Agent's Office.

Myers Club Well Underway

The Myers Club which was one of the first organized has an enrollment of 17. The second meeting was held Friday night at the Myers school with 14 members present. The program centered around the home. Various talks and discussions were given on the proper appreciation of the home, good manners and living happily together, good books help make good homes, and a club member's home should be safe. Refreshments were served and plans were made for a weiner roast July 3 at the Carlisle reservoir.

Junior 4-H Club Council Meets

The Junior 4-H Club Council met Saturday morning at the County Extension Office with 15 members present. The meeting was called to order by the vice president, Leroy Kendall and minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Buddy Buckler. Each of the seven clubs in the county were represented at this meeting. Plans for the countywide 4-H Club picnic which is to be held Tuesday, August 12 at the Carlisle reservoir were discussed. All parents of 4-H Club members are urged to plan to attend this picnic with the members.

The council discussed the organization of the new Junior Council due to the number of new Senior 4-H Clubs being set up in the county. It was voted that this council be composed of the presidents of all the clubs in the county including both the Junior and Senior Clubs.

A county wide 4-H Mail Box Painting Campaign by every Club in the county was approved. A committee appointed to direct the drive will be composed of Leroy Kendall, Chairman; Buddy Buckler and Phyllis Cook.

The purpose of this campaign is not only to help beautify the driveway of each home in the county but also provide the farmer with a freshly painted mail box with his name stenciled on each side of the box. Mrs. W. D. Christman and Miss Ethel Botts will be in charge of the campaign and will assist the 4-H Club committee. The proceeds from the work will be used within the clubs.

The 4-H Club leaders consisting of Miss Effie Anderson, Mrs. Rachel Hamm, Mrs. John Ferguson, Mrs. W. D. Christman, Mrs. Joe Smart and Miss Ethel Botts met Saturday with the home agent at the Extension Office to discuss the county wide 4-H Club picnic to be held August 12.

A food committee was selected which included the following: Mrs. John Barrett, East Union; Mrs. John Ferguson, Parks; Mrs. Robert Jennings, Ellisville; Mrs. Joe Smart, Moorfield; and Miss Effie Anderson, Myers. This committee will be responsible for the arrangement and serving of the food and drink.

A committee in charge of program and recreation was also selected. These are: Mrs. Rachel Hamm, Ellisville; Mrs. Naomi Cook, Headquarters; Mrs. J. S. Wilson, Moorefield; Mrs. Harvey Parks; Mrs. W. D. Wagoner, Parks; Mrs. W. D. Christman, Moorefield; Dorothy C. Howe, Home Demonstration Agent and E. N. Royster, Assistant County Agent.

Beach Beauty

Interchangeable sharkskin outfit.

By VERA WINSTON

COLORS AND fabrics may come and go, but for beach wear, there's still nothing to outshine crisp, spanking white sharkskin. It is used for this neat and useful interchangeable three-piece beach costume. The halter top which buttons on in front, is buttoned in, both front and back to either the simple, pin-tucked bathing shorts beneath or to the simple skirt with pin-tucked front panel. The back of the skirt is gored, and the back of the halter is pin-
