Legion Names Committee For 1947 Horse Show

A committee composed of G. C. Grover, Mrs. R. Kendall, James W. Miller and Frank J. Hardesty was named to be in charge of the preparation and staging of the 1947 American Legion horse show here next summer at a recent meeting of the Nicholas Post. Complete plans for the annual event, including the setting of a date, will be in the hands of the four Legionnaires named on the committee, it was said.

Commander Billy Layson presided at the session. Legionnaires present voted to purchase 25 flag standards for use on graves of veterans. A donation was made to the local Red Cross drive, and tentative discussion was heard concerning a Legion dance sometime in the future, proceeds from which would go to the Boy Scouts.

Baird Addresses Nicholas Teachers Here Saturday

Dr. William J. Baird, president of Morehead State Teachers College, was the featured speaker Saturday at a meeting of Nicholas county school teachers held at the courthouse here.

The speaker, whose topic was "Planned Living," emphasized the need in education for an abundance of good books readily available for reading. Pointing out the disastrous effect produced on the world by one book—Hitler's "Mein Kampf"—Dr. Baird declared that "Books have determined the history and philosophy of nations."

He also emphasized the value of recreation and the appreciation of good music and fine art in the development of future citizens.

The value of work was discussed by the speaker, who stated that when we take from the individual the right and privilege of earning a living, we destroy the initiative, self-reliance and self-respect of that individual.

Dr. Baird concluded his remarks with the thought that there is no limit to the development in most people "too often," he stated, "the people that sing about 'All God's Chillun' Got Shoes,' don't have them themselves."

Preceding the address, a program of vocal selections was rendered by a choir from the Headquarters high school under the direction of Miss Annabel Hamilton.

East Union Homemakers

The East Union Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. Robert Boyd for the February 25 meeting. Twelve members and six visitors were present.

The meeting opened with the devotional conducted by Mrs. Albert Brooks, followed by the business session, presided over by the president, Mrs. Kenneth Stephenson.

It was discussed and decided upon that the club sponsor together with the other parents of school children would sell hunch at Ben Workman's sale. The club regrets to lose Mrs. Workman, who is moving to Lexington.

Miss Rowe distributed the boxes of greeting cards that had been ordered and Mrs. Roland Boyd was chosen to take charge of further orders of cards.

In the afternoon the lesson topic of "Window Treatment" was given and demonstrated in a very interesting manner by Mrs. John Barrett assisted by Miss Rowe.

The next meeting will be held on the 4th at 10:30 at the home of Mrs. R. S. Stephenson.

S. T. Barlow, Headquarters Merchant For 68 Years, Dies

S. T. Barlow Sr.

S. T. Barlow Sr., 87, died at 4 o'clock Saturday morning at his home near Headquarters, Nicholas county, where he had been critically ill for a week, suffering from cerebral hemorrhage.

Additional Prizes In Carlisle F. F. A. Contests Explained

Twelve Nicholas county boys, members of the Carlisle Future Farmers, will compete for a prize of a fifty dollar War Bond established in the First National Bank, for the highest number of bushels of corn raised per acre this coming season. Those who will compete are: Ted Hunter, Reginald McLean, J. A. Standiford, Emmett Darrell, James Baird, Charles Highley, Earl Finch, Jimmy Shrout, Billy Harston, Herb Shrout, Arlie McCarty and Bobby Crockett. All will raise two acres of corn with the exception of the two last named, who will raise one acre each.

In the beef cattle competition, for which a similar prize is being offered by the Carlisle Mill Store, five members of the Carlisle organization are entered. They are: Emmett Darrell and James Baird, who will raise two calves each, and Everett Vice, Gaylord Caswell and Arlie McCarty, who will raise one each. The winner in this contest will be selected at the Nicholas County Fair next fall.

In the hog competition for which Lawrence Brothers is donating a $50. War Bond, the Carlisle Mill and Supply Co. will add to this two additional prizes. First, for the highest ton litter, 700 pounds of Tuxedo Hog 20 feed; second, for the next highest ton litter, 200 pounds of the same feed.

G. B. Leonard, who made these announcements as being in charge of the activity through being the agricultural teacher and adviser of the Carlisle chapter, said this week that the boys are showing much interest in the contests and that he believes this interest will be reflected all over the county before the competitions take place.

Mrs. Ed Hutchings was admitted to the St. Joseph's hospital in Lexington Tuesday for emergency observation for several days.

Pockets Jingle As Guards Have Pay-Day On Monday

"PAY-ROLL ORDER"—For the first time since its activation here, some months ago, Cannon Company, 149th Infantry had a pay-call here Monday night, and the job of paymaster was assumed by Captain W. R. Buntin Jr., who is in command of the local unit. Buntin is shown, above, as he hands some of the pay to one of the 17 men who now make up the company's roster.

A pay-call amounting to approximately $425 was distributed among seventeen members of the local National Guard unit here Monday night as the Carlisle organization held its first pay-call since activation some months ago.

The amount of pay, which covered amounts due the guardsmen for the last quarter of 1946, averaged $25 per man, according to Capt. W. R. Buntin, company commander. All men who were enlisted during the first three months of activation received pay due for that period.

The guard unit, identified as Cannon Company, 149th Regimental Combat Team, 38th Infantry Division, is now drilling two nights each week, the commander stated. They ranges from $5.00 to $13.00 per week for members. Enlistments have now reached 50 enlisted men.

Notification of the shipment of two medium tanks and one bulldozer has been received by the Carlisle unit, and these items are expected to arrive very soon, Capt. Buntin said. The pieces of equipment will be used in unit training.

Petitions Filed For School Board Elections Here

The names of four Carlisle residents — Cleary Fightmaster, Henry A. Palmer, W. F. Clark and Mrs. Geneva Allison — will be placed on the ballots when voters go to the polls the second Saturday in May to elect three members of the Carlisle school board.

Two petitions, one naming the first three candidates, now incumbents in the offices, and the other naming Mrs. Allison, were filed simultaneously this afternoon in the office of County Clerk John F. Sing.

The school board is composed of five members, three of whose terms expire this year. Other members are Allen Hopkins and G. T. Cowan, whose terms do not expire until 1949.

Committee Named To Stage Drive For Rat Destruction

A committee composed of Mrs. Walter Hardesty, chairman, Mrs. Frank J. Hardesty, Mrs. Boyd Hamilton and Mrs. A. B. Dowell was appointed to make plans for a rat-elimination campaign to be held in Carlisle on May 1 at a meeting Tuesday afternoon of a number of citizens in the county agent's office here.

Those in attendance at the session, which was called after numerous requests had been made that a concerted effort be taken against the city and county rat nuisance, included, Mrs. Wyrick, Boyd Hamilton, E. M. Smith, Mrs. G. C. Grover, Mrs. W. W. Higg, Mrs. S. B. Barlow, Burt Allen, Miss Dorothy Bowe and William T. Straw, county agent.

Col. Solon F. Bunnell, state Selective Service director, said Saturday at 7:30 o'clock Sunday night at the Carlisle church, it has been announced.

The service will be conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Ralph Thomas, and elders of the local congregation, assisted by Dr. George Moore of Lexington and Charles L. Brooks, secretary-director of the Christian churches of Kentucky.

The public is invited to attend, and a special invitation has been extended all friends of the Hutchings family. A special feature of the hour will be a solo, "The Lord Is My Light," by Mrs. M. C. Shearer.

At the University he is studying in the College of Agriculture and upon completion of required studies at school and attendance at summer camp, he is slated, for a commission as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Air Corps Reserve.

Moorefield Homemakers

The Moorefield Homemakers Club met Friday, March 14 at 1:30 at the home of Mrs. Elithan Rye with twelve members and two guests present.

The roll was called and minutes of the-last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Alvin Sigmonds. Each one turned in the tinfoil which they saved.

Mrs. Ward Echos gave a review of the book "Green Bank Account." In a very interesting way, Mrs. Noble Jones gave the devotional.

The lesson was given by Mrs. Alvin Sigmonds and Mrs. Howard Irvin on "Window Treatment" and was a very helpful lesson.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Tevis Wilson on Friday, April 11. The lesson will be on "Pictures."
