As by one man's disobedience many were made sinners...

"Old Black Hawk"
The poem "Old Black Hawk" written by 14-year-old Kay Fisher...

Old Black Hawk
Of all the fun we've ever had
We know which one is best...

We love the campfire every night
We sit around and sing
We're just around an old campfire...

We sleep late and then get up
To walk the railroad tracks
We're wearing shoes and halbers...

And now these railroad tracks
And walk them every day
We love the train that stops there...

We love to hang out in our bunk
And only look around
So every summer "out of our bunk"...

And now 'bout seven when we're in school
And wish for tracks to walk
We hear the good train whistle blow...

Buyers' Resistance
