Opportunity Knocks Again

It is not too long ago that the Carlisle Mercury was the only newspaper in this section of the state. Now, however, it is one of the largest in the state. The Mercury is now published every Thursday at Carlisle, Ky. It is one of the largest in the state. It is one of the largest in the state. It is one of the largest in the state.

American Enterprise Abroad

In some circles, the activities of American companies which do business abroad are viewed suspiciously. In this connection, a statement of policy, made by one of the largest American companies, which is engaged in helping develop the petroleum resources of the Middle East, is of exceptional interest. It is a statement which is of exceptional interest.

Don't Fail To Vote

Local political observers are forecasting that the vote in the August 5 primary will fall short of the 100,000 mark. Although the number of voters is expected to be in the neighborhood of 100,000, the Mercury would like to remind Nicholas county voters that they have been provided with the opportunity to gain a vote in Nicholas county by voting at the polls.

Chenick's Comment

Our readers will recall that the Mercury has been publishing a series of articles on the activities of the Nicholas county government. In this connection, it is of interest to note that the Nicholas county government is now in the process of reorganizing its departments.
