Carlisle School Board Clarifies Its Position

Second. The Carlisle Board believes that the county and city children should all attend the same schools and therefore, to do this and to make it should all attend the same schools and therefore, to do this and to make it offered to merge the two systems into or convernment for the children, we have offered to merge the two systems into or convernment of the children, we have casions according to the Kentucky School Laws, but so far these pre-posals have all been refused by the County Board.

We believe these principles to be for the best interest of the citizens of both isle and Nicholas County and the children who attend all of our schools.
