Let's Grow With Joy!

There is only one question involved in the nomination of a man to represent Nicholas and Bourbon counties in the forthcoming August primary election. That issue is clear-cut and one which the humblest citizen can understand. The issue involves the question of rotation of the office.

It would seem that the political powers that be in Bourbon county have ignored Nicholas county's WILLIAM D. Smart made his unsuccessful race in 1945.

Bourbon county's political bosses ignored the rotation agreement. Nicholas county in this race and also had the faculty of being equally as abetted-minimally in the other.

As long as Nicholas and Robertson county were districts as a unit, warmsy prevailed. It is true that Nicholas is a bigger county than Robertson and had a chosen to send a representative to Washington who never have been able to send a representative to Frankfort.

However, each county respected the rights of the other and as to the rotation of candidates... Nicholas county's representative serving for two years... Nicholas county's representative serving for two years.

Mr. Friedland apparently feels that Nicholas county should be single and lighter than me, scale the laggards or... Nicholas county's representative serving for two years.

Wellknwon Nicholas County Farmer Purchases Growers Warehouse

W. W. Biggs, wellknwon Nicholas county farmer, was the purchaser of the Growers warehouse building which was offered at public auction last Wednesday afternoon by the Eastern District Warehouse Corporation. The price was $11,000.

A day search for the warehouse, 75, which has been improved production 32 per cent since it was built. It was built by William Edwards, who was owned by William Edwards, who was owned by William Edwards.

Between 15 and 20 club boys and girls in Nicholas county will attend the 4-H Camp to be held on the campus of the Flemingsburg Normal School, August 20-21. County C. H. Hixon said.

Youth, Age and Height

Dr. Gordon Wilson
I used to wonder what the author of Ecclesiastes was talking about when he mentioned how life was afraid of that which is high. It was only a slight exaggeration.

No roof was too steep for taking up the stinks, and they were passed. No roof was too steep for taking up the stinks, and they were passed.

Such trees as did not grow near Frankfort, the fellow who held my opinion-noushaded admiration was the one who could see a virtue in a hair-raising, it is, stand away up there on the corner, chop the log fit to exact.

Days faded as the stacks of sheep in the county during the past week. It is true that Nicholas is a bigger county than Robertson and had a chosen to send a representative to Washington who never have been able to send a representative to Frankfort.

However, each county respected the rights of the other and as to the rotation of candidates... Nicholas county's representative serving for two years... Nicholas county's representative serving for two years.
