The Men of Tomorrow

They will be boys, they say. But we never recall again they'll be better. Frontiers, boys have made it their's in the ranks of the Boy Scouts of America. For 29 years, the Boy Scouts, boys have made an increasing contribution to a better America through a well-planned, up-to-date program to meet the boy's needs.

It is a program of adventure that appeals to every boy, who knows about it. It is a program of leadership that appeals to every boy, who knows about it. It is a program of service that appeals to every boy, who knows about it. It is a program of citizenship that appeals to every boy, who knows about it. It is a program of character that appeals to every boy, who knows about it.

Profits Have to Go

One of the leaders of the American petroleum industry recently said that he had found the widespread popular belief that profits make a business profitable. He said that profits are not the cause of a business's success, but rather the result of it. He said that a business is successful because it provides a service that is needed by the community.

Under present conditions, the depreciation allowance is completely inadequate to provide for the purchase of new equipment at replacement prices. This deficit, which runs into tens of millions of dollars, is being made up by the use of profits. This is a very serious situation, and it is one that must be corrected.

During the war, the price of many commodities rose to such a point that it was necessary to ration them. This was done to ensure that everyone had access to the necessities of life. It was a temporary measure, and it worked well.

It is now time to consider the question of the price of commodities. The price of many commodities has risen to such a point that it is necessary to ration them. This is a very serious situation, and it is one that must be corrected.

The main reason for this change in the price of commodities is the increase in the cost of production. This is due to a number of factors, including the increase in the cost of raw materials and the increase in the cost of labor.
