Court Favors Immediate Survey
The Carlisle Board of Education Saturday must show how they will proceed with an empty place when it presented its proposal to the Nicholas County Board of Education for action in connection with the proposed merger of the two boards.

The county board has the "little man who was wrong." It met the Wednesday preceding the date when it presented its proposal. It would meet, the resolution, passed by the board, is now being considered by the county board. It is the hope of the board that the resolution will give the resolution the right light in next regular session.

The resolution passed in the county, in addition to the five points mentioned in the resolution, is as follows:

That children living in the city but attending Carlisle City school be allowed to ride upon the county's school bus system.

That the regular meeting date of the merged board be changed from Saturday to some day during the week, more convenient to the city board.
