The Garden

By John S. Gardner, Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics

THE SUMMER INSECTS

Many of the insects that worked early in the spring are in their second generation. Their damage becomes more serious because there are more of them now and their feeding appetites are the same or growing of the vegetables be cause of reduced rainfall.

An example is the Mexican beetle, now multiplied to five times its spring number. Bread undoubtedly but this insect is still controllable. Its numbers are reduced by about 75 percent strength. Another is Marlate, sold also under the name Methoxychlor. It comes in 50 percent strength for making a spray, two level tablespoons to a gallon of water, and as 5 percent dust to be used as is.

Another insect that has by now multiplied to quite considerable numbers is the leafhopper, attacking potatoes, tomatoes and beans especially. This is the browning of the fringes of the leaves, which eventually dry up and drop off, causing what is often confused with the blight disease. It is controlled with DDT or with Marlate.

Still another hot weather insect is the blister beetle, that moves in flocks over potatoes and tomatoes, stripping them of leaves as they go. It is not an easy insect to stop, but DDT has been used successfully. Marlate should do better, because of its quicker "knockdown."

Another insect that sometimes becomes serious in hot weather is the plant louse on almost any crop. Late cantaloupes, cabbage, broccoli and brussels sprouts sometimes completely dry up, having been sucked to death. Caught in time, dusting with rotenone suffices, but much more effective is liquid spraying with tobacco tea or with nicotine sulfate, Black Leaf Forty. The insects themselves must be hit directly.

Farmers Inspect Forestry Project

A reforestation project, said by W. E. Jackson, forester at the 4-H camp of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky, to be one of the best in the state, was toured by 36 Johnson county farmers when they visited the farm of Dr. G. M. Stafford of Isbrap.

In 1940, Dr. Stafford set out 500 pine seedlings, which are now 15 to 18 feet tall. Five years later, 1,000 additional pine seedlings were planted. They now are from 7 to 12 feet tall. A good stand was obtained in both plantings, said Farm Agent Manuel B. Arnett.

Ayrshires Feast On Ladino and Fescue

Bob Hays, manager of the Pine Mountain Settlement School, Harlan county, has solved the problem of pasture for his Ayrshire and Guernsey dairy cows on 4's acres. He did it by planting Ladino and fescue clover in three fields, then turning his herd into the fields to harvest the pasture. This grass and legume combination will produce pasture on his 10 acres equivalent to that produced on 30 acres of the usual such a large herd. Mr. Hays reported to Farm Agent Manuel B. Arnett.

Carlisle Girl Enrolls In Graduate School

Miss Mary Ellen Pumphrey, Carlisle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Pumphrey, has been awarded a graduate assistantship in the department of chemistry at Indiana University, Bloomington, Dr. George F. Hennion and director has announced. Miss Pumphrey will receive her master's degree and undergraduate and graduate work on the Bloomington campus.

Preliminary registration figures show that students enrolled from 73 Indiana counties, 23 states, and from Hawaii, India, Singapore, British West Indies, Germany, Honduras, and Brazil.

Miss Pumphrey is enrolled in the division of graduate instruction at Butler.

FUNK-PRICHARD FINAL BEGINS

A. E. Funk Jr. and Edward F. Prichard Jr., Lexington law partners, this week went on trial in the U. S. District Court in Lexington in connection with last November's election irregularities in Bourbon county.

Omer Berry, Carlisle, summoned for jury duty in connection with the case, was excused after he said he had formed an opinion based on the reputation of the FBI.

More than 150 pieces of farm tools are being furnished by home makers club members in Marion county.

BURLEY LEAF BLOOMING

That the blooming hot weather has resulted in another freak of nature was established here this weekend by Elmo Marshall, Carlisle Route 3, with his exhibit of a small, blooming tobacco plant.

The blooming plant, only a few inches high, was discovered by Marshall in his tobacco field on an inspection trip.

Elmo said he couldn't decide whether the plant thought it was too hot to grow or was celebrating the Fourth.

Ladino clover demonstrations indicate it is the most outstanding of new forage crops introduced in Woodford county in recent years.

Meade county farmers seeded 15,000 pounds of alfalfa and 12,500 pounds of red clover this spring.

They say that the first 100 years are the hardest—and I'm beginning to believe it.

No sooner had we got the ball park in pretty good shape, and the concession stand rolling, than a bunch of the good boulders smashed the lock and stole the pop, kraft and several cases of pop.

Now, the pop and case aren't so terribly expensive but they have to be replaced and on the park set up, there isn't that kind of money to throw around every time someone gets the bright idea to relieve the playground of what ever they want.

The only was to make money out there is to have a game or concession stand, so that next year it won't be necessary to call the community for monies again. The loss Sunday night wiped out the profits of two or three night's running and as you all know, the summer is half gone. So let's all make an effort to get receipts hasn't paid for the cost of utilities.

I don't know what the answer is. Maybe some of the organizations will make cash or work vouches for us to sell, or maybe they have a suggestion for us. They say that there's more than two ways to skin a cat, and a charitable at that.

On behalf of the entire Recreation Council, let it be said that if the people who have designs at the playground are real sports, they appreciate the fine park and ing area are certainly below par, but the will to do better is there. Fellas have left practically everything under these present adverse circumstances is very, very encouraging. At first it was felt that it would be impossible to have a league so late in the season. Your determination has proved us wrong, however, and we think we all can grin and bear it now, be sure long there will be baseball again and a smoother field. That's a promise

I-A—

Speaking of ball games, I'm told that back in 1905 each team had only nine players. Maybe there was one pitcher but what you even wasn't pitching he was hustling in the outfield or playing first with the signals from behind the plate.

Back then, it must have been quite an ordeal to play games away from home.

For instance, on a game had been scheduled in Mt Sterling at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Just imagine what time they had to hitch the team to the surrey in order to get to Mt Sterling on time. None of this chartered bus stuff for them.

C. C. Cole's have a picture of this fabulous 1905 club in their 1908. Mr. Howard Dorsey identified them as follows: John Cannon and Dick Donnell, pitchers; Bob Fulton, catcher; Miller Burnaugh, Howard Dorsey, Maurice Clevaugh, and Clarence Ingles, infielders; Joe Durham, Brad Scott and who ever wasn't pitching, outfielders.

—HA—

Another of those all-American teams could be selected the other day. I don't have any idea when it will be done here, but when you see the "Stratton Story" advertised as coming make plans to take all the family to see it. Talk about heartwarming, it'll make you feel swell at the same time

I've talked to several people, old and young alike, and I have yet to find anyone who begrudged spending their money to see a picture of that calibre. James Stewart plays the part of Monty Stratton, baseball player and June Allison cast as his ever-loving wife. Both are superb.

I'll give you a clue, you don't have to be a baseball fan to get a kick out of this A-1 picture. It's so real and every incident actually happened, including the way it ended. It's a goodie.

—HA—

Brother Smith brought the following in to me but sows he didn't have any thing to do with it's origin. Incidentally, rumor has it that he does wield a better than average pen. Here 'tis . . . .

THE SERMON OF A MONKEY

Three monkeys sat on a coconut tree

Discussing things as they are said to be.

Said one to the other, "Now listen, you two,

There's a certain rumor that can't be true;

That man descended from our noble race,

The very idea is a disgrace.

"No monkey ever deserted his wife,

Starved her babies and ruined her life,

And you've never known a mother monk

To leave her babies with others to bunk

Or pass them from one to another

THEY'RE PAIRED OFF THIS WEEK—Top row, left to right, it's big sister Betty Ann and little sister, Nancy Carol, six and one, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Clevaugh, Jimmy and big sister, Rose Ann, four and six, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Simons, Carlisle Route 3; kid brother Gaylord and big brother, Henry Clay, two and four, sons of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Braithwaite, Carlisle. Bottom row, brothers Richard and Ferris, five and four, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Moran, Carlisle Route 3; big brother Jerry Lee, eight and five, sons of Mr. and Mrs. James Lawrence, Carlisle; baby sister Ellen D. and big sister Patricia, 19-months and six, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Duncan, Carlisle Route 2.

Ray Flora Nominated Executor Uncle's Will

The will of the late T. J. Flora, Bourbon and Nicholas county, has been probated in Bourbon county court and filed in the office of the county clerk. Ray Flora was named executor under the terms of the will, and bond was fixed at $30,000.

The following bequests were made a cat and the sum of $1,500 was bequeathed to left with Ray Flora, a nephew. $1,000 was left in Trust to the People's Deposit Bank to invest and pay net income annually to Mrs. Flora. Nephews to the Paris Methodist church, W. I. Straus, magnesia, Ky., and to the National Bank to be paid to Mrs. Maude Flora of Ewing.

First Week Schedule For Pre-School Exam

Dr. B. T. Reynolds, county health officer, announces that the Nicholas County Health Department is offering the services of Dr. J. F. Hall and Mrs R. P. Alexander for the purpose of giving examinations, vaccinations and immunizations to the residents of Nicholas county.

In order to reach all who wish to take advantage of this service, Dr. Hall and Mrs. Alexander will establish a commissary for this purpose. They will announce each week their schedule for the following week.

They will be at Paul Cameron's store at Headquarters on Wednesday July 20. This service is free and Reynolds is urging everyone to take advantage of it.

Dr. Hall will be available every Tuesdays at the health office for the same purpose.

At The Playground

Daily schedule as usual, except the baseball league swings initially slated for 3:00 p. m. will start promptly at 3:15 each afternoon, until further notice.

Beginning this Saturday at 10 a. m. tennis instruction classes will be offered. Players must bring their own balls and racquets. The park does not furnish them.

Each week this column will include contest play, games and other happenings at the playground.

CONTACTS TULAREMIA

Harrison Stanfield, Carlisle Route 3, is ill at the Johnson Memorial hospital, suffering with tularemia.

All they scarcely know who is their mother.

And another thing you will never see,

A monk build a fence around a coconut tree.

And let the coconuts go to waste.

Forbidding all other monks to taste,

Why, if I put a fence around a tree,

Starvation will force you to steal from me.

"Here's another thing a monk won't do,

Go out at night and get on a stew;

Or use a gun or club or knife

To take another monkey's life.

"Yes, man descended, the orrery cuss,

But, brother, he didn't descend from us."

—A. MONKEY

That's all—.

Campbell's Grocery And Methodists Win Opening Games In Local League

By Emily Asbury

Loop play got off to a flying start Monday night at the East End park with Campbell's Grocery losing low the Carlisle Merchants 13-6 and the Methodists eking out a narrow 8-7 decision from the Christian church nine.

In the opener, Campbell's Grocers grabbed a commanding 8-0 lead over the Merchantmen and were never headed. George Vaughn went the route for the winners, allowing but four safe blows. Jim Hamm, the loser, pitched sixhit ball, but, unopportune errors aided skyrocketed the winners unearned run total.

Not-so-"Little E" Clark paced Campbell's attack with two hits in four official trips to the plate.

In the nightcap, spirited play on both sides made for a close game as the Methodists won a see-saw battle from the Christians, 8-7.

The losers jumped to an early lead, scoring one run in each of the first two innings and the final inning after one out, Bryant Walked. He scored moments later on a long double to left center by Bobby Crawford. The rally died there, however, on successive outs by Hardin and King.

In the second inning, the Christians pushed over an unearned run on three walks and an infield out

The Methodists picked up a run in the first of the second and added five more in a big third frame rally, climaxed by a three run homer to left with the bases loaded by Herman Dalton. Jimmy Barnett had opened the inning by belting a home run with no one on base.

"Teens" Allison started on the hill for the Methodists but, needed help from Billy Fellner in the sixth. Bobby Crawford went all the way for the losers.

Donovan and Booth collected three hits apiece for the winning attack, while King picked up an equal count for the Christian losers.

35 Women Inspect Kitchen And Home

Thirty-five women visited the kitchen of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Alexander and the remodeled home of Mr. and Mrs. Allie Clinkenbeard on Friday, July 8.

Both Mrs. Alexander and Mrs. Clinkenbeard have won many friends by their ability in order to save time and energy.

Miss Hagman, home management specialist, University of Kentucky, was present and brought out special points of interest. Miss Hagman had worked with these women and advised them on their kitchen planning. These suggestions given by Miss Hagman were carried out.

Miss Hagman told the group that if a woman saves five steps a day in her work that she would have saved a mile in a year's time.

Fiscal Court Employs Road Engineer, Others

Re-employment of the county road engineer and agricultural extension personnel for another year was authorized by members of the Nicholas fiscal court at their July meeting.

The employment covers the period from July 1, 1949 to July 1, 1950.

J. R. Hamilton was employed as county road engineer at a salary of $150 a month. William T. Straw was employed as County Farm Agent and will be allowed $50 a month for traveling expenses.

Members of the court also approved a $1,650 for the Nicholas County Memorial Library.

13 Local Students In UK Summer School

Thirteen persons from Nicholas county are among the 3,802 students attending the University of Kentucky this summer. Numerous short courses scheduled to begin throughout July and August are expected to boost the over-all summer enrollment considerably more than 4,000 students.

Students already enrolled from all of Kentucky's 120 counties, 37 other states, the District of Columbia, one U. S. possession and 10 foreign countries.

The four Nicholas county now attending classes on the Lexington campus are: Gaylord Braswell, Charles Mathias, Frank Mathias, Matthew Neal, William Payne, Truman Richey, Charles Talbert, Wilma Walton, Gatch Mabry, Walter Atkinson and Bert Reynolds, all of Carlisle, and Betty Eaton and Sanford Hardin, Myers.

Gasoline Purchases Surpass 1947 Period

Kentuckians and Kentucky visitors purchased 14,000,000 more gallons of gasoline during the first six months of 1949 than during the same period in 1947, Highway Commissioner John A. Keck said today.

The gasoline tax figures are supported by the traffic increase indicated by 14 automatic traffic recorders in Kentucky operated by the Department's Division of Planning.

"Every dollar available to the Department agrees that Kentucky highways are being used more today than ever before," Keck said.

"Gasoline tax returns at five cents per gallon during the first six months of 1947 were $10,380,-969.13. For the same period this year, the road fund collected $15,-519,093.09 on the seven cents tax. Increased returns have found it necessary to raise the gasoline tax. In North Carolina, the people voted to raise the six-cent tax to seven cents in a popular state-wide referendum.

LIGHTNING STRIKES BARN

Lightning struck a barn on the farm of M. Smith on the Headquarters road at 3 p. m. Saturday, tearing away one side and part of the roof of the structure. The building was not burned.

Seven of eight hogs which were kept in the barn were unharmed by the lightning. Smith said he could not estimate the loss, but said it was covered by insurance.

MASONS TO MEET TODAY

Daugherty Lodge No. 65, F. and A. M. will meet at 7:30 p. m. today (Thursday) for the purpose of conferring the degree of Master Mason on the Fellow Craft degree. All members are urged to attend.

25th Anniversary Of Extension Work In Nicholas County Is Pageant Theme; First Rehearsal Will Be Held Monday

A pageant, recognizing the 25th anniversary of agricultural extension work in Nicholas county, will be presented Thursday, July 28, in conjunction with the annual Farm Bureau picnic. Both pageant and picnic will be presented on the grounds of the Old Concord church.

First rehearsal will be held at 7:30 p. m. Monday at the Nicholas county courthouse.

A committee, previously announced, has planned and prepared this pageant dealing with the facts and changes that have happened during the 25 years that extension work has been a part of Nicholas county.

The pageant will be presented under the direction of Mrs. Sagoser Nash.

The pageant consists of five scenes, the titles of which follow:

Scene I.—Training Our Youth; Scene II—Agricultural Extension Work Begins In Nicholas County; Scene III—The Farmer Starts To School; Scene IV—Making The House A Home; Scene V—New Horizons.

Following presentation of the pageant, Dr. Herman L. Donovan, president of the University of Kentucky, will present an address.

Three Ton Litters Possible In Contest

The boy whose sow produces the largest number of pounds of pork from a single sow within 180 days will win the hog division of the Farm Projects contest sponsored by local merchants and the Carlisle Chapter, Future Farmers of America.

Two of the contestants have a total of 30 pigs from three sows already entered in the competition. G. B. Leonard, faculty advisor of the group, said. Fred Burnaw has two sows and 20 pigs and John Willis has one sow with 10 pigs.

The pro-ject of a ton-litter or more in 180 days will win the contest.

Duroes, Spotted Chinas and Chester Whites are entered in the competition. A total of six boys are competing. Other contestants are Benny Donovan, Gene Bissell, Billy Story and Bobby Crockett.

The award, a $50 Savings Bond, will be given by Paul Garrett of Inman Brothers, sponsor of this division.
