ON ONE POINT THEY ALL AGREE

The men listed below represent different parties, different factions, different points of view. They come from different walks of life, different sections of Kentucky. Republicans and Democrats are to be found among them, professional men and business men and farmers and spokesmen for labor, educators and politicians and critics of politics, officeholders and former office-holders and people who never expect or want to hold public office. These men are known to Kentuckians more for their strong differences of opinion than for agreements on public policy. But now they say:

"PASS CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 2"

The amendment will liberalize the constitutional salary limit and so improve public service in Kentucky. Here's the statement to which they all subscribe:

"We think the salary provision in the Kentucky Con-stitution must be liberalized if Kentuckians are to receive adequate public service. The limitation, imposed in 1891, makes satisfactory administration impossible in these changed days of 1949. Therefore we urge all Kentuckians, for their own sakes, to vote 'Yes' on Constitutional Amendment No. 2 at the

And here, united in sentiment, are the men who never agreed before:
