E IS ARISEN! Just a phrase, three words long. Yet it expresses all the faith and hope of mankind, born anew each year on Easter Sunday, under the inspiration of His teachings as renewed and reviewed for us in the Church of our choice.

Yes, it is just a phrase of three short words, yet in it is the source of the soul lifting joy with which we depart from Easter Sunday Services to greet our relatives and friends, with a new light shining in our eyes.

The celebration of the Resurrection of Him, whom evil kings could not destroy, takes on especial significance in this year of 1950 . . . for this year marks the beginning of a period historically golden.

The past fifty years of this century have held more than their share of strife promising to carry us forth to a brighter, happier era.

ing His teachings, can reach the greatest heights. Let us attend the Church of our choice this Easter Sunday and all the Sundays to follow, for it is there that we hear His Lesson and see the way to brotherhood.
