THEY THAT LOOK FOR HIM
Rev. G. W. Haley

Wise men from the Orient far,
Followed the light of that marvelous Star;
Until they came where the young Child lay,
Nestled in peace, in the manger that DAY!

We may, as they, in the long ago,
Follow the Light that leads to GOD!
And like them then, We ship today.
Bring to Him gifts in an acceptable way!

The world as then, is steeped in sin,
Too few to tell of the Saviour of men!
They need to hear the message of Truth,
That transforms lives, vile or uncouth.

The Star that shined on the shepherds that watched,
Is now risen in all the Blood-washed hearts!
And the Light that streamed o'er Judean hills,
Burns brightly in hearts of surrendered wills.

Yes, Messiah came unexpectedly then,
To multitudes lost in the noise and din!
In the night,
So will HE come NOW as a thief
To shut out the lost, and shut IN the right! Amen.

Letters To Santa

Mt. Olivet, Ky.

Dear Santa,

I am writing you as I am thinking of Christmas. I was just thinking the many many children who will get lots of toys and good things to eat and just to think of the many poor sick, hungry children who will not have anything at all. I am a poor child but if you have anything just skip my house and give it to someone who needs it more. Please remember our dear boys who are giving their lives for us children to have a free world to live in.

Hoping you make your trip without an accidents,

Patty R. Crawford

Carlisle, Ky.

Dear Santa Claus:

I am a little late in writing to you. But want to tell you what my little sisters and I want this year. I have tried to be a good little girl. But will promise to be better next year.

Santa my little sister Karen wants a doll and buggy and baby. Kay wants a doll and any thing else you want to bring her. As for myself I want a nurse set and some clothes. And Santa I want a cow girls suit, but it will be alright if you can't bring me one.

Don't forget the other boys and girls and Santa don't forget our boys that are over in Korea.

Your little friend,
Linda Shankland.

Attend Open House Saturday

Over 85 people were registered guests at "Open House" held Saturday by the Misses Campbell at the Johnson Memorial Hospital Convalescent home on Elm street. A few friends called from neighboring counties. The visitors were met at the door by Miss Josephyne Campbell and her young son, John Stephen Frenick. The guests were invited to visit with the four patients by assisting hostesses: Mrs. Marvin Shrout, Mrs. Innes Ross, Mrs. Albert Henry, Mrs. Frank Reynolds; with Mrs. Keller as registrar.

The first floor was beautifully decorated with Christmas suggestions, lighted tapers, Christmas bells and miniature figurenet.

Miss Elizabeth Campbell presided at the lovely tea table, pouring tea and coffee from silver service, assisted by friends. Sandwiches, pickels and candies were served by members of the nursing staff, Mrs. Walter Crawford, Miss Priscilla Clay and Mrs. Stella Hamilton.

The first entertainment since the organization, (opened the middle of September), gave the public a glympse of what the new institution is putting forth for the public. At present there are some 15 beds available for patients, and it is hoped that in the near future all beds will be occupied and with the help of the community, and neighboring counties, the personnel are sure this wish will soon be realized.
