Marriages

Ring-Mynear

The marriage of Miss Sophia Ring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Ring of Jacksboro, and Roger Mynear, son of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Mynear of Burterville, was solemnized at 2 p. m. Saturday at the Baptist parsonage on Mulberry Street, with Rev. E. V. Carrier officiating.

The bride wore a white suit with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

Miss Jean Mynear, sister of the bridegroom served as maid of honor, wearing a blue dress with white accessories, and a gardenia corsage.

Woodrow Ring, brother of the bride, served as best man.

After a wedding trip to Tennessee, the couple will reside in Carlisle.

Hudnall-Palas

Miss Nancye Ruth Hudnall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Martin Hudnall of Carlisle, became the bride of Earnest Wood Palas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus V. Palas of Cynthiana, at a ceremony solemnized Sunday afternoon at the Carlisle Christian church.

The Rev. J. J. Whitehouse officiated at the double ring ceremony. Miss Mary Frances Fisher, organist, Miss Patricia Bond Lackey of Louisville and Miss Jane Garriott of Harrodsburg, vocalists, presented a group of nuptial selections.

The altar was decorated with ferns, gladioli and lighted candles. Satin bows marked each pew. Miss Emily Rice Dixon of Carlisle directed. Miss Billie Belle Faulconer of Cynthiana were the candlelighters. They wore frocks of white and pink frosted organdy made with full skirts short peplums, cap sleeves and fitted bodices with scalloped necklines. They wore corsages of tinted carnations.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Lloyd C. Hudnall, Burgin, wore a gown of Chantilly lace and French net over white slipper satin. The gown was fashioned with a high neckline and yoke of illusion. The fitted bodice and long tapered sleeves were of Chantilly lace. Lace insertions fell into the full skirt of French net terminating in a long train. Her veil of matching French net fell from a Juliet cap of white satin braid. She carried a spray of white calla lilmes.

Mrs. Milton Masterson of Bloomington, Ill., sister of the bride, was the matron of honor and Miss Mary Elizabeth Hudnall of Muskogee, Ok., was the maid of honor. They were dresses of blue dotted Swiss over matching taffeta, with small taffeta capes and short mitts. Their Juliet caps were trimmed with pearls and they carried colonial bouquets of carnations tinted to match their gowns.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Elwyn Farney Quinn of San Leandro, Calif., sister of the bride, Mrs. Howard Fryman of Cynthiana, cousin of the bridegroom, Mrs. Lloyd C. Hudnall of Burgin and Mrs. Virgil R. Hudnall of Richmond. They were gowns of dotted Swiss and matching taffeta in shades of lavender, rose, lime and maize, respectively with short mitts and pearl-trimmed Juliet caps. Their colonial bouquets also were of tinted carnations.

Nancy Jo Allen of Bardstown, the flower girl, wore a frock and bonnet of white dotted Swiss and carried a basket filled with rose petals. James Douglas Fiskes of Paris was ringbearer.

Wallace Aaron Hicks of Cynthiana served as best man and Virgil R. Hudnall of Richmond was groomsman. The guests were seated by Milton Masterson of Bloomington, Ill., Howard Fryman and Leo Umphrey of Cynthiana, and Lt. Col. E. F. Quinn of San Leandro.

After the ceremony a small reception was held at the church for the immediate families, members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with bride and bridegroom figurines. Miss Vy Mefford of Lexington, Miss Ella Dell Hudnall of Richmond and Miss Mary Dean Hudnall of Richmond presided at the punch bowl.

The bride's going-away quarters were of beige wool and accessories were of brown. Mr. Palas is a graduate of the Cynthiana Tavern Stone College.

Upon their return from a wedding trip the couple will reside at 129 North Main street, Cynthiana.

Deaths

Mrs. Mary E. VanCamp Shea

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth VanCamp Shea, 71, widow of Joel Shea, died at 9 p. m. Tuesday at her home, 225 North Limestone street, Lexington.

A native of Nicholas county, she was born Oct. 8, 1878, a daughter of the late John and Lydia VanCamp. She had been a resident of Lexington for 24 years.

Surviving are two sons, Spencer Shea, 71, widow of Joel Shea, and Elmer Shea, Covington; a grandaughter, Mrs. Margaret Shea, Covington, and a sister, Mrs. Emma Perrin, Cynthiana.

The body was taken to Kerr Brothers Funeral home.

Making Slipcovers Is Teacher's Hobby

Making slip covers is a hobby of Mrs. Lloyd Bryant, a school teacher in Henry county. In eight years she has made 40 slipcovers for friends and relatives.

Mrs. Bryant says she made her first and most difficult slipcover when she was the home furnishings leader in the Franklin Homemakers Club. It was for an old leatherette-covered divan, which required a padding of blanket and muslin to keep the slipcover from sliding off. She also padded and slipcovered two rockers. The three pieces cost less than $20 at that time, she said.
