—Cynthiana, Ky.—

Attention, Mr. Farmer
We have just received another bulldozer (same size as the one now operating) which will enable us to get around to you farmers who have work that needs doing.
We've found that it is impossible to meet the demands for the type of work we do in Nicholas county with just one outfit.
One outfit is now working on the Upper Jacks-town pike headed towards the East Union neighborhood. The other is headed for the Moorefield section.
If you have work for us in either of these vicinities, contact us and we can take care of you, NOW!

YOU'VE A DATE WITH SPRING

—and your Buick Dealer

SPRING CLEANING SUGGESTION
Y'ou read it on the calendar—and you feel it in the air.
Spring—and the outdoors calling—and that lively jubilance that comes with winter's passing.
And right here is the spirit more in evidence than at your Buick dealer's.
For it's Spring Jubilee time with Buick. Time to trot out and show off all the gay and brilliant beauties of his 1950 line.
Time for you to sample, in proper setting, all the new life and brilliance of Buick valve-in-head straight-eight power—time for you to meet the greatest cure for spring fever known—the easy, effortless, mile-mastering stride of a Buick under your command.
There are wonderful things for you to look into:
A Riviera at Sedan prices. Two door Sedanets, Roadsters and Convertibles, a wide range of power and prices. Convertibles, Estate Wagons, a Coupe—cars for every taste and practically any budget.
There are even gay new spring colors to help you meet the season in perfect style. And, of course, if you haven't yet done so, there's "Body-by-Fisher" for you to meet and sample.
Yes, you've a date—right now—to meet spring at your Buick dealer's. A date not only to see pleasant things—but to hear pleasant news as well.
For Buick prices are something to jubilate about too. They start just above the lowest bracket—and they are accompanied by seven cost-saving arrangements as to the "deal."
How about today—at latest tomorrow—for keeping your date with your Buick dealer?

Views Of Religion In Nicholas County

Correct Conceptions of Christian Conduct in both "Old and New" Covenant
By Rev. G. W. Haley

There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job, and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.—Job 1:1.

Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father, is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world. James 1:27.

Behold, we count them happy which endure. You have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.—James 5:11.

The Church on Trial

The Answer of the Revelation 12:10 God's select members to

Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

What then shall I do to get God much up? and when I speak what shall I answer him? Job 31:14

Here (Job in THE JUDGE) he is the defendant, and is now acting as his own defense lawyer, using the irrefutable fallacy of his three friends, and comforters (?) He immediately presents his case in concise form, then rests by stating, The words of Job are ended. Job 31:40

Behold, the Judge standeth before the door. James 5:9

What shall I answer Him? Job 31:14

If I have walked with vanity, or if my foot hath hasted to deceit. Job 31:5

If walk with empty pride or conceit, idle show, or emptiness.

2. If my step hath turned out of the way, and mine heart walked after mine eyes and if any blot hath cleaved to mine hands. Job 31:7.

The way of righteousness. Dungle eye: Holy hand.

3. If mine heart have been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait at my neighbors door; Job 31:9. A heinous crime (To dance at the news stand one wonders if the leading public thinks not more. I do not read or buy such

4. If I had despise the cause of those who wajked for me. v. 13

5. If I have withheld from the poor, and the widow. v. 16

6. If I have eaten my morsel myself, and the fatherless hath not eaten thereof.

7. If I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or any poor without covering.

8. If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless.

9. If I have rejoiced at the destruction of him that hated me, or lifted up myself when evil found him; (neither having suffered my mouth to sin by wishing a curse to his soul.

11. If I covered my transgressions as Adam, by hiding mine iniquity in my bosom.

12. If his land cry against me, or that the furrows likewise there of complain

This last is a convincing claim (no seal conversation) for the F. W. Future Farmers of the World.

The Judge has heard the evidence as presented by the defendant, and of course finds him without blame on all twelve points. So far, so good, but were that all, the Cause of Christ would be lost. The conditions within the soul of the servant that caused the "Well" to flow in this "Social Service" is the weight that swings the pendulum in favor of Job's entrance into the Everlasting Kingdom.

What were those conditions? They were the conditions of faith in The Redeemer that wrought in the inner man "Strengthened with might by His Spirit."

I Peruse: 3:16. "For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day. Even our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more and exceeding weight of glory, eternal. While we look not at the things that are seen, but at the things that are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things that are not seen are eternal. For we know, that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made by hands eternal in the heavens." 2 Cor. 4:15-5:1

Upon what basis do I assume that Job had these elements of faith? Hear him speak. "For I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: And though, after my skin, worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another." Job 19:25-27.

He believed in "Jesus and the resurrection" two strings upon which the Apostle Paul always played when he preached. Acts 17:18.

What is this righteousness of faith that compells a Christian to so conduct himself, in so Christ like behaviour?

The righteousness of faith speaketh on this wise,—Rom. 10:6. But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is the word of faith which we preach:

That if thou shall confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shall believe in thy heart that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the Scripture saith, whosoever believeth on Him shall not be ashamed. Romans 10: 8-11

Therefore, his faith produced in him conviction for sin; sin stood out in a horrible exposure. This worked in him a repentance of a godly sort, that turned him away from the doing of them, in thought, word, or deed. This was no mere penance, that permits one to sin over and over again his ungodly deeds. Nor was it a sorrow of the world that worketh death, a sorrow produced because of being found out, caught in the act, therefore a pretended front, having no depth of earth. This was a repentance that brought him to the source of light, and from the power of satan, unto the power of God. He was a new creature in Christ Jesus. Old things had passed away, behold all things had become new.

Converted? Yea. In deed and in truth! Here is no weak faith, but the dark days pass by at the approach of the early bird, satan.

I look at him. God invites us to do so. When his close companion, his wife, advises him to curse God, and die. His reply makes good history. "Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What! shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? "In all this did not Job sin with his lips. Job 2:10 "Ye are not of the world, even as I am not of the world." John 17:17

2 Cleansed! That is sanctified. Certainly no one would contend that Job was not "sanctified through thy truth, Thy word is truth." John 17:17 Why?

"That the world may believe that thou hast sent me" John 17:23

The world was not disturbed by the Disciples trembling bend when God sent down after the wooden room; neither were they much alarmed when the one hundred twenty were in the upper room in the ten day prayer meeting; they were glad when the Jews from Asia Was Wimble while the church in the "upper room". But let the Church receive her Pentecost, Perfect Love, Pure Heart, and immediately the worldly minded cry out: What meaneth this? What is the mystery that is upside down, have come hither also? Away with such a fellow from the earth! BUT a Saul of Tarsus, may be transformed into a Paul. The Apostle to the Gentiles, because he had the grand privilege of holding "Stone-throwers" coats, while a Saint Stephen stoned, and yet while being stoned, sees into heaven, The Son of man standing on the right hand of God. Look at Stephen! Hear his prayer: "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit! Lord, lay not this sin to their charge! Acts 7:59-50. Reader, could you sincerely ask the same? That is, of the Lord? What spirit are ye of? Lord, Jesus receive my spirit. He will not if it is as James and John had before they received the Spirit's Baptism: "Shall we command that fire come down from heaven and consume them?" "Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them." Luke 9:54-56

"The Lord turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends." Job 42-10 Note carefully who these "friends" were. Miserable comforters.

"But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them that despitefully use you and persecute you: that you may be children of your Father in Heaven." Matt 5:44

How can these things be? Prayer! The prayer of faith shall save the sick and the Lord shall lift him up; and if he has committed sins they shall be forgiven him. Confess your faults one to another and pray one for another—Amen.

Mrs. George Selby, and son spent from Friday until Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Jett.

JEST AMONG US...

By Jack Wild
UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

If you'd like to see how a great race horse is put together, you'll be interested in an exhibit at the University of Kentucky's new zoology museum, in the Funkhouser Biological Sciences Building. There, in a large glass case, stands the skeleton of Hanover, famous Kentucky thoroughbred who started 50 times in his long career, won 32 races, ran second in 13, and finished third three times. He won $118,872 altogether, and died in March, 1899.

Another interesting specimen on display is labeled Man o' War, but it's not the wonder horse of that name. This man o' War is pickled and it looks rather like a small balloon that somebody ran out of breath on. It's a kind of jellyfish that can be found at times on the beaches of tropical Florida, washed up there by the waves. Should you ever come upon one in your wanderings and think it would make a nice souvenir to carry home, take care lest you, like other souvenir hunters before you, get stung—but literally. The harmless looking thing has the sting of a hornet. A bit of driftwood, dropped with precision, will cause the pretty blue balloon to pop like a pin-pricked balloon.

The U. K. collection also includes several examples of Kentucky's 150 species of fish, many mounted birds and animals, and the skeletons of such creatures as the rattlesnake, seal, hyena, antelope, pig, kangaroo, and armadillo. The museum is open every week day to visitors from all parts of Kentucky.

RAMBLING: Carlisle used to have a meaningful sign at its outskirts: "Carlisle—a little town with a big heart." . . . Bill Downs writes from Columbia, on the "where oh where can I get a plain ham sandwich" theme, to tell about a restaurant he once knew that served plain ham sandwiches. "You had to be very careful in eating the sandwich; take very small bites, for if you took a large bite you would more than likely get the tiny piece of ham with a mouthful of bread and never know you had any ham" . . . a more appropriate name for it, according to Bill, would have been a "jam" sandwich"—two pieces of bread jammed together.

Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas lead in the production of sorghum. The word "cascus" originated among the early leaders in Boston.
