SOCIAL SECURITY NEWS
By R. A. Tweedy
Manager of the Lexington Social Security Office
Under the new social security law, the title "Widow's Current Insurance Benefits" is changed to "Widow's Insurance Benefits". This means more than a change of title. While, before, insurance benefits payments will be made to a widow with a child in her dependent care, now that provision is now made for payment of such benefits to a dependent child who is a dependent of the widow, and one or more dependent children of a deceased insured worker if he is a dependent of the widow.
