Marriages

Campbell-Flora

Mrs. C. E. Flora was Miss Wilda Campbell of Lexington, before her marriage October 10, at the First Methodist church in Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Flora are residing at 228 East High street, Lexington. Mr. Flora has a position at Avon.

Rawlings-Young

Miss Dorothy Frances Rawlings, daughter of Mr. Luther Thomas Rawlings, Sharpsburg, and the late Mrs. Nora Myers Rawlings, became the bride of William Nathan Young Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Nathan Young of Carlisle, at a ceremony solemnized at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the bride's home in Sharpsburg.

The Rev. Charles Bare officiated at the double ring ceremony.

White gladioli and fern banked the mantel which was flanked by white tapers in wrought-iron candelabra. Mrs. Robert Haun of Lexington, pianist, and Genrose Swango of Carrollton, vocalist, presented a program of traditional nuptial selections.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a blue mauve lace dress over a powder blue taffeta slip and a bolero jacket. Her hat was an off-white cloche with a beige taupe veil. She carried a white satin prayer book topped with a white orchid and streamers.

Miss Betty Myers of Bethel was the bride's maid of honor. She wore a deep burgandy velvet dress fashioned with a round neckline, fitted bodice and full skirt. Her accessories were black velvet and she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

William Nathan Young served his son as best man. Dannie Rawlings, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer. Judy and Janie Rogers, nieces of the bride, were the flower girls. They wore blue velvet dresses with lace collars.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Rawlings home. The bride's table, covered with a lace cloth, was centered with a three tiered wedding cake and lighted white tapers in silver holders. Mrs. Clark Rogers of Owingsville and Mrs. Clarence Moore of Sharpsburg, sisters of the bride, presided at the punch bowls. Others assisting in entertaining were Mrs. W. R. Rawlings, Mrs. Harold Rawlings, Mrs. Wayne Rawlings, Mrs. Frank Hart Jr.

Miss Betty Moore, Miss Betty Dummit, Miss Janie Moore and Miss Dorothy Marie Rawlings.

Mrs. Young was graduated from Owingsville High school and attended Transylvania College, where she was a member of Phi Mu social sorority.

Mr. Young was graduated from Carlisle High school, served in the army in World War II in the European Theatre of Operations. He is now employed at the Carlisle Armory in the capacity of Unit Administrator.

After a wedding trip North, the couple will make their home for the present on Broadway in Carlisle.

Deaths

J. R. Logan

J. R. Logan, 68, of Mascon, Ohio, a native of Nicholas county, died Sunday at Christ's hospital in Cincinnati. Survivors are four children, George, Charles and J. P. Logan of Mascon, and Mrs. Anna Pearl Thealerg of Cincinnati, 8 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. J. H. Hardwick of Carlisle.

Pearce West

Pearce West, 52, inspector at the Blue Grass Ordnance plant, died at 1:40 p.m. Monday at his residence, 523 Rosemont Garden, Lexington, after an illness of three weeks.

A native of May Lick, he was a son of the late Robert Bruce and Mattie Robinson West. He was educated in the Mays Lick schools and had been a resident of Lexington for the past seven years. He was a member of Central Christian church.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Miranda Williams West, and two daughters, Misses Nancy Williams West and Maud Pearce West, both of Lexington. He is a relative of James Williams of Carlisle.

Mrs. Dan Mitchell

Mrs. Emma Lyons Mitchell, 84, of Maysville, widow of Dan Mitchell, died early Friday morning after several months illness at her home, 17 West Third Street, Maysville. Her 32 years of married life were spent in Carlisle where her husband was a dealer and trainer of fine horses. After his death in 1927, she returned to her native city of Maysville, and resided with two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Gabby and Miss Florence Lyons. She was a daughter of the late William and Elizabeth Dieger Lyons.

She was a devoted member of the Baptist church, and is survived by the two sisters, a nephew and three great-nephews.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Porter chapel, and burial was in the family lot in the Maysville cemetery.

Charlie Oldham

Charlie Oldham, 7-year-old son of John H. and Mary Everett Oldham, died at 4:30 p.m., Tuesday at Mary Chiles hospital, Mt. Sterling, of injuries suffered a few minutes earlier when he was run over by a cattle truck on Winn street.

Bryon Nixon, Lebanon, Ohio, driver of the truck, told police that he found the child on the street after hearing a thump against the side of the truck. The rear dual wheels of the truck passed over the child's body.

The boy's bicycle was found in the street, and it is believed that the bicycle struck the side of the truck hurling him beneath the wheels. Nixon rushed the child to the hospital, but he died shortly after arriving.

Surviving in addition to his parents are one brother, Abner Oldham, at home; one sister, Myra Lynn Oldham, at home, and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Metcalfe, Carlisle.

Mrs. Mary Crockett Conway

Mrs. Mary Crockett Conway, 71, Sharpsburg widow of Dr. Seath Conway, died at 11:40 a. m. Saturday at the Good Samaritan hospital, Lexington. She was admitted to the hospital October 1.

Surviving are one son, Allie Crockett Conway, Sharpsburg; one daughter, Mrs. L. S. Fetterman, Spokane, Wash.; one brother, John R. Crockett, Sharpsburg, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p.m. Monday at the residence in Sharpsburg. The Rev. E. J. Mass and the Rev. Mr. Guthrie officiated. Burial was in the Grown Hill cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Walter Sharp III, Walter A. Crockett, Lander Crockett, Charles Crockett, James H. French, W. R. Ratliff, W. B. Arnold and J. W. Hedden.

John William Cartmel

John William Cartmel, 39, farmer of Bourbon county, died at 1 p. m. Sunday at his home on the Stringtown road, following a seven months illness. He was a son of Catesby Cartmel, now of Maysville and the late Mrs. Ayerie Hall Cartmel, native of Nicholas county, and is a member of the North Middletown Church of the Nazarene.

Besides his father, he is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ethel Sosby Cartmel and three sons, Kenneth, James and Frank Cartmel, of the home; three brothers, Morrow and Ray Cartmel, Nicholas county, and J. C. Cartmel of Florida; four sisters, Mrs. Roy Sexton, Nicholas county, Mrs. Ben Gilford, Maysville, Mrs. Edward Paulin, Ironton, Ohio, and Miss Dorothy Cartmel, Paris.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Tuesday at the Mathers-Shearer chapel, conducted by Rev. Ira McMillen Jr., of Lexington. Burial was in the Carlisle cemetery.

Pallbearers were Cecil Hamilton, Paul House, Frank Stone, Matthew Campbell, Allen Smith and Colman Harney.

George Thaddeus Lail

George Thaddeus Lail, 55, a Harrison county farmer, died at 6 a. m. Monday at his home on the Republican road after a long illness. A son of the late James Gray and Clara Hayden Lail, he was a member of the Cynthiana Presbyterian church and the Renaker Bedford Post 2728, Veterans of Foreign Wars. He served in the Marine Corps in World War I.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Henrietta McIntire Lail; two daughters, Mrs. Hugh Ewalt, of Portland, Ore., and Mrs. William F. Kearns, Bourbon county; one sister, Miss Sarah Lail, Cynthiana; a brother, Charles E. Lail, Newport; and three half brothers, James Robert Lail, Middletown, Ohio; William F. Lail, Ft. Thomas, and Richard Hall Lail, Cincinnati.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Wednesday at the Whaley funeral home by the Rev. Clement Ritter. Burial was in Battle Grove cemetery. Pallbearers were Adam Spegal, Joe V. Hedges, J. H. Harrington, E. W. Taylor Jr., Everett Lail and Millard Nicholas.

Mrs. Lail is a niece of Mrs. Ed Metcalfe, Carlisle.

Guy T. Shrout

Guy T. Shrout, Montgomery county farmer, warehouseman and stock trader, died at 9 a. m. Monday at the Mary Chiles hospital in Mt. Sterling. He suffered a heart attack Sunday night at his home after being ill two weeks.

A native of Bath county, he was a son of the late James Reginald and Sarah Smith Shrout and was a member of the Christian church. He was a stockholder in the Home tobacco warehouse, Mt. Sterling.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Thelma Shrout, and one daughter, Mrs. William Campbell, both of Mt. Sterling; one brother, Walter Shrout, Sharpsburg; two sisters, Mrs. Wilford Lindsay, Sharpsburg, and Mrs. Lena Sharp, Mt. Sterling, and several nieces and nephews.

Homecoming Friday

to move the pigskin to the enemy 20, where Hardin scooted around right end like a scared rabbit for the initial touchdown of the game.

After five minutes of the second half had elapsed, Hardin took a hand off from Pitman and behind nice blocking from his teammates, picked his way through the enemy secondary and shot goalward, some 70 yards away. The try for the extra point was no good.

It was here that We intercepted Pitman's pass to set up the 13-7 count moments later.

Late in the final period Hardin skipped over the N'ville goal line for the same after a series of ground plays that began on the Bees' 30.

Brilliant offensive and vicious defensive work by Marshall Booth coupled with the lofty boots tod by Hardin, kept the visitors at bay most of the time. The Musketeers collected a total of 10 first downs to seven for the Tarrantules.

The Musketeer forward wall continued in its magnificient hardcharging manner Friday night against a much heavier spider line. Time and time again they broke through to drop David Wise, here added fullback, for little or no gain.

Not a substitute entered the game for the Green and White, who took the Georgetown Buffalos here Friday night in a Homecoming clash.
