Carlisle 4-H Club

The Busy Bee 4-H Club of the City School held a call meeting Wednesday, afternoon to discuss plans for the Youth Fair and to distribute Fair catalogs.

Mary Phyllis Smith, the president, presided, after which a short business session followed. No program was presented.

The club president expressed appreciation to the local P.T.A. for purchasing a Singer machine to be used by the clothing unit girls.—Reporter, Judy Galbraith.

East End Homemakers

The Carlisle East Homemakers met with Mrs. Robert Fretwell, Thursday, September 21. We were glad to add three more members, Mrs. Jim Cummins, Mrs. A. B. Crouch and Mrs. Clay Dayton. We regret losing several members to various kinds of endeavor. Thirteen were present.

Mrs. Gano Duncan, president gave the devotional.

Plans were laid for the work of the new year. Our home agent, Mrs. Eugene Neal and assistant, Miss Betty Crump outlined our major projects on Personal Grooming and Foods as to the topic of lessons. The minor projects also were discussed.

We were asked by Mrs. Robert Fretwack to participate in the County Fair September 29-30.

Our Citizenship chairman, Mrs. William Straw, brought out her plan for the year's work. Plan included, food donations for new hospital, with county groups improvement of County Rest Room and try to landscape front of Court House yard. Another project was to continue support of 4-H clubs with leaders and help provide money for children going to camp 4-H week in 1950. In October a gift auction for funds will be held at the home of the hostess, Mrs. M. B. Hill to raise funds for above projects.

The reading chairman, Mrs. George Giffin, suggested that we help rebuild our County Homemakers' library, which was destroyed by flood water this summer. Either by giving some book that we have or contribute toward buying a book.

Mrs. Billy Duncan gave our lesson on Style Trends in a very interesting manner telling us what was good to buy in a conservative wardrobe and what to watch out for in dated clothing.

Next month, October 27, will be our annual meeting date and our guest speaker, Miss Lulie Logan, Lexington, will bring us news from her trip abroad. At our annual meeting our reports of the past years accomplishments will be given. Reports on clothing made, new foods from lessons given, and number of trays made. Our club alone has made some 55 trays, copper and brass. Many other reports will be made at this meeting too.

In all it has been a fruitful year. May we strive for an even better year in 1950 and 51.

Headquarters Homemakers

The first meeting of the Headquarters Homemakers club was held Wednesday, Sept. 20, at the home of Mrs. Boone Clark.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Veach Delaney. There were twelve members present and one visitor, Mrs. Horace Bell. Two new members were added to our club. They are Mrs. Emmett Darrell and Mrs. Sam Burden.

New year books were given out and programs outlined for the year.

After lunch, Mr. Sam Wallace of the R. E. A. gave a demonstration on the wiring and re-wiring of our homes.

Secret Pals were revealed, gifts exchanged and names drawn for new ones.

October meeting will be guest day and will be at the home of Mrs. George Dale—Mrs. Homer Hillock.

Miranda Homemakers

The Miranda Homemakers started their new year with an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. W. B. Claypoole with Mrs. John Clay, co-hostess. Seventeen members and two visitors were present. Mrs. James Lowe joined our club. All members filled out their calendars for the coming year. Plans of the work to be done was the main topic of discussion.

Mr. Sam Wallace of the Cynthiana R.E.A. showed the correct wiring of the home.

Mrs. Betty Crump, our new assistant home agent, was present and gave a most interesting talk on the latest fall style trends.

The club presented Mrs. Neal a wedding gift which was a silver gravy ladle and coffee spoon.

The next meeting will be an all day meeting with Miss Claudia Clary and the guest care of the hair will be the lesson.

On more than 100 farms in Jessamine county, about 2,000 pounds of Ladino clover were sowed at rates varying from one to five pounds per acre, with mixtures of grasses and other legumes.

Musketeers Spear

from the 12 for the second TD. Hardin again added the extra point for a 14-0 halftime count.

Hardin twice

The Musketeers marched some 59 yards for its third score. Reed kicked off to Brooks Pitman to open the second half. The brilliant young quarterback grabbed the ball on his own 30 and returned to the 41 where the CHS man was downed by gaudett began. Three first downs later with the goalline receiving on the Stanford eight. Hardin cut off tackle and over. The fancy stepping fullback made it 21-0 with nice blocking by Booth on the PAT play.

As the third quarter terminated, Stanford made its only serious threat of the game, driving from the Carlisle 48 to the five, where on fourth down, Billy Clark knocked to the ground a Wildcat "sure" that looked like a certain touchdown bid.

Midway of the final period Kelly recovered a Stanford fumble on the enemy 44. A pass from Pitman to Morrison on the 30 netted some 14 yards. A penalty moved Stanford back 15 more yards where Hardin shot straight down the middle for the final touchdown. The PAT try was fumbled.

The Musketeers racked up a total of 10 first downs to nine for the losers who provided stiffer competition than the 27-0 count indicated.

The locals enjoy an open date Friday conveniently allowing some extra cuts and bruises to heal before hostilities resume Saturday, October 6.

Marriages

Deim-Irvin

Miss Helen Davenport Deim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Andrew Deim of Lexington, and John Granville Irvin of Lexington, son of Dr. Walter Estelle Irvin of Carlisle, exchanged marriage vows at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the home of the officiating minister, Dr. A. W. Fortune.

Miss Joan Pfiffer of Louisville and James Gordon Henderson of Lexington were the only attendants.

When they return from a wedding trip through the East, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin will make their home at the North Broadway, Lexington.

The bride is a graduate of University High school and of the University of Kentucky, where she was a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Mr. Irvin also was graduated from the University of Kentucky, and was affiliated with Kappa Alpha fraternity. He is now associated with an investment brokerage firm in Lexington.

Bean-Mahan

Miss Mary Jo Bean, daughter of Mrs. Anna Mary Bean, of Winchester, and Mr. James Waller Bean, of Louisville, became the bride of Mr. Carle Ewing Mahan, son of Mrs. Carle Erwin Mahan, of Winchester, and the late Mr. Mahan, in a ceremony solemnized at 8 o'clock Friday evening at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. F. C. Cox, on Potomac avenue, Winchester.

The Rev. E. B. Wooton, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated at the ceremony, before vases of white gladioli, pompons chrysanthemums and ferns, arranged by cathedral tapers in candelabra, formed a background for the ceremony. The house was decorated throughout with autumn flowers.

Miss Mary Lila Gay, of Winchester, lighted the tapers.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. D. B. Scobee, of Winchester.

The bride wore an aqua velvet suit with black velvet accessories. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible from which fell streamers tied with lover knots and tube roses.

The bride was attended by Miss Anna Boyd McCarty, of Winchester. She wore a tan wool suit with brown velvet accessories and a shoulder corsage of yellow pompom chrysanthemums.

Mr. Robert Curtis, of Maysville, served the bridegroom as best man.

Mrs. Bean chose for her daughter's wedding a beige dress with black accessories and a corsage of green orchids. Mrs. Mahan, mother of the bridegroom, wore a gold dress with green velvet trimmings and brown accessories. Her corsage was of bronze pompom chrysanthemums.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a music box bedding figurines of a miniature bride and bridegroom. The music box played "The Wedding March" as the couple entered the dining room. Arrangements of yellow pompom chrysanthemums and white tapers in silver candelabra completed the table decorations. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Nelson Gay, of Winchester, and Mrs. Brooks Pulliam, of Charleston, W. Va.

The bride was graduated from Winchester High school in June, and is now attending Crump Commercial college in Lexington. The bridegroom was graduated from Kentucky Wesleyan college in August, and is now a teacher and basketball coach at Minerva High school, Mason county.

The couple left on a short wedding trip north, and upon completion of her college work, Mrs. Mahan will join Mr. Mahan in Maysville, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dorsey, Mrs. Stewart Dorsey, Mrs. Claudia Tucker and Mrs. Brooks Pulliam of Charleston, W. Va., attended the wedding.

7:00 Evening Worship. Subject: "Why Give?"

Dr. Fern On Air

Dr. G. H. Fern of Maysville and minister of The First Christian Church of Winchester, Ohio, will be on the air again over radio station W.F.T.M., Maysville, in the morning devotions, all next week, October 7, at 7:30 to 8 a. m. (CST)

The singing and music for these broadcasts will be furnished again by members of the Winchester church choir. These singers have made a reputation for themselves in former broadcasts. The men's quartet were guest singers on a musical recital recently given in Winchester. Under Dr. Fern's leadership this fast growing congregation is erecting a new house of worship.

Dr. Fern is well known in Nicholas county and his many friends will be glad of the opportunity of hearing him again in the forthcoming broadcasts.
