What Mistakes Would You Avoid in Marriage? This is the theme of a special series of services featuring the problems as well as the joys of married life.
Successful marriage and happy homes is the theme of this series. Believe in marriage. Give your relation to every problem relative to married life, and I am trying to show from the Bible how to solve marital problems.
"Building Bible Homes" is the theme for the series of messages.
You are cordially invited to follow the crusade to our church for these services.
