CARLISLE BAPTIST CHURCH
E. V. Carrier, Pastor
Roll Call at the Carlisle Baptist church Sunday, October 7.
Sunday is to be a big day in the Baptist church. Rev. E. V. Carrier, announces that various groups of the church membership are meeting each night this week, and making plans for this service which will include a roll call of the membership and an obsyvance of the Lord's Supper. All Baptists living in and around Carlisle are urged to attend this service. We are expecting one of the largest crowds ever assembled for this Roll Call service.
Dr. George Redding, professor of Bible at the Georgetown College, will begin a series of doctrinal messages at the Baptist church, Monday, October 8, at 7 o'clock. Dr. Redding is not only a great Bible scholar and teacher but he is such a splendid speaker that it is very difficult for him to fill all the requests that he receives for such services. We feel that we are very fortunate in being able to secure him for this series of messages taken from the great truths of God's word.
The public is cordially invited to attend these services. Remember the date, October 8-14, at seven o'clock in the evening.

The marriage of Miss Carolyn Jean Stone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Allen Stone of Carlisle, and Seaman William Mason Terrell, of the United States Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Terrell of Nicholas county, will be solemnized at 4 p. m. this afternoon, Thursday, Oct. 4, in the Moorefield Christian church.

The Reverend Fred L. Gardner, minister of the North Middletown Christian church, will read the double ring ceremony, in the presence of relatives, and a few close friends.

The bride will be given in marriage by her father, and will wear a gray suit with lavender and black accessories and her shoulder bouquet will be a white orchid.

Miss Lucille Ratliff of Bethel, will be the only attendant, and her costume will be a beige suit, with black and aqua accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

James Edward Terrell will serve his brother as best man.

The bride is a graduate of Carlisle high school and attended Fugazzi School of Business, Lexington.

The groom, after attending high school at North Middletown, a year ago, entered the U.S. Navy, and his ship is now located at Pearl Harbor, where he will return after a 30-day leave.

After the ceremony the young couple will leave for a short wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Sugg Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Sugg entertained with a steak dinner at their home on Broadway, Friday evening. The following guests

MOOREFIELD TO OBSERVE WORLD COMMUNION

The annual custom of observing World Communion Sunday will be followed next Sunday, October 7, at the Moorefield Christian church. On this specific Sunday, churches of all Christian denominations will join in the observance, making it a globe-wide experience.

Every member of the church is urged to attend to join this ecumenical observance of great significance. There are few occasions on which all communions unite in one great observance. It speaks with hope of things to come for the work of the church.

STATE LEADER TO SPEAK AT MOOREFIELD CHURCH SUPPER

The Moorefield Christian church will have a church supper Friday night, October 5, at the Moorefield school. The affair will be similar to one held last winter, its purpose being to develop the fellowship of the members of the church.

Speaker for the occasion will be Rev. Forest King, state secretary of the Christian Churches of Kentucky. Although in Disciple churches the local congregation exerts final authority in making decisions, the state-wide disciple movement maintains an office in Lexington with a trained staff to coordinate the benevolent and educational programs of all the congregations.

Rev. King was called to the state work from a pastorate of the Fort Thomas Christian church. His first duties were to aid in the successful completion of the national project of Christian Church Foundation, the Crusade for a Christian World.

Although the church supper is primarily for members, guests are urged to attend. The supper is a pot-luck, and everyone is asked to bring an appropriate dish of food.
