"I'll call you back . . . my Party Line neighbor needs to call the Druggist"

In emergencies, folks need the telephone fast. They appreciate it when you release the line—and they're likely to return the favor. Here are four easy rules that add to good will and good service on the party line:

- Share the line freely with others
- Release the line in an emergency
- Answer your telephone promptly
- Give called-party time to answer
