FEED EVERGREENS IN EARLY SPRING

What to do for evergreens that are not doing so well is answered by Prof. N. R. Elliott, horticulturist at the UK College of Agriculture and Home Economics. He recommends working and feeding the soil just as soon as it can be turned with a spading fork.

Work the soil four inches deep in a circle 18 to 30 inches in diameter, depending on the size of the tree. The soil should only be turned, not pulverized. Apply well rotted manure about three inches deep to the cultivated area. In May or June, when the soil has become dry, it should be worked in and any remaining manure removed.

Three Man Board Appointed To Study Fire Conditions

The Carlisle city council met in regular session Monday night and took steps to improve the present set-up of answering and fighting fires.

Paul Courtney was appointed fire chief. He introduced a model ordinance covering the organization of a fire department for Carlisle, and a special investigating committee was formed to study the problem and submit recommendations within the next few days.

This committee is composed of Councilmen George Gaffin, W. R. Buntin Sr., and Thomas C. Johnson.

The council agreed unanimously that the present method of answering and fighting fires was not entirely satisfactory and it is believed that the new plan will be enacted within the next few weeks to improve the situation.

Other municipal problems coming before the council for discussion were the parking meters which except for the final payment are the city's property, sewage complaints, garbage, and talk of "Buck" Wasson was appointed police chief to succeed Otto Hughes.

Home In County Destroyed By Fire

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hollar, on the Stoney Creek road was completely destroyed by fire which started around 8:30 Friday night.

Mr. Hollar had just returned from Lawson's store and he thinks the house had gone to the barn to get his feeding. Upon returning he discovered the blaze.

Help arrived too late to save hardly anything and most of the personal possessions also perished in the fire.

The house, according to reports was not covered by insurance. It is known as the 'Old Ashley place.' None of the out-buildings were damaged by the fire.

Mrs. Hollar was in the St. Josephs hospital, Lexington, at the time of the disaster, and underwent surgery Saturday morning.

Wife Of County Clerk Hurt In Fall At Home

Mrs. John Sugg, wife of county clerk John F. Sugg, was badly bruised when the Stoney Creek bridge fell 13 steps at her home early Wednesday morning.

She was taken to the Nicholas County hospital where xrays revealed that there were no broken bones. She was reported as "resting comfortably" Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Sugg was on her way up the steps, and as she neared the top, tripped and fell backwards down the stairs.

About 35 Percent Of Patients Entering Hospital Have Blue Cross

Mr. Roger Womack, chairman, Board of Trustees, Nicholas County hospital, today stated that in a recent 12 month period about 35% of the patients who were admitted to the hospital had the Blue Cross Plan for hospital care.

During that period Blue Cross paid $4,729.50 to the hospital.

Mr. Womack said that the Nicholas County hospital and other hospitals throughout the State attributed much of their help financially to the fact people are now admitted with this prepaid plan of hospital care which pays large portions of their bills for them.

A Community Service

During this same 12 months period 87.2% of the total Blue Cross income was paid directly back into the hospitals. This, according to Mr. Womack, indicates that the non-profit Blue Cross Plan, the same as it's companion, Blue Shield Surgical Plan, is truly a community service.

In the State of Kentucky 340,387 persons are covered by Blue Cross and 82,547 by the Blue Shield Surgical Plan. Nationally, 41,000,000 persons have Blue Cross coverage and over 19,000,000 have Blue Shield.

Mr. Womack called attention to the fact that a special effort is being made in Nicholas county during the month of March to enroll all groups, Farm Bureau Members, and individuals under 65 in the companion plans, and a campaign is being conducted locally from Feb. 26 to March 8 to enroll new members.

Mr. James Barta can be contacted at the court house from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. each afternoon about enrollment.

United States Navy Band Slated For Easter Concert In Lexington

The United States Navy Band, known as "The World's Finest," will present a special Easter concert at 3 p.m. Sunday, April 13 in the University of Kentucky Memorial Coliseum at Lexington under auspices of The Carlisle Mercury and other members of the Kentucky Press Association.

Net proceeds will go to the Kentucky Press Fund for Crippled Children. This fund will be used to construct buildings for treatment of crippled children, and for which funds are not available from any other source.

Lt. Commdr. Charles Brendler, conductor of the Navy Band, said the program to be presented at Lexington will differ from any other presented this year by the famous musical organization since it will include Easter music especially arranged for the Lexington concert. It also will include selections of interest to young people and symphonic arrangements of both popular and classical favorites.

May Set Record

An indoor attendance record for a Navy band concert can be set at the Easter Sunday event, since 14,000 seats will be available for Central Kentucky music lovers.

Demand for tickets is expected to be heavy because of the large number of persons who will want to "Join the Easter Parade to the Navy Band Concert."

Tickets will be apportioned for sale among 50 or more newspapers in the Central and Eastern Kentucky area, so only a limited number of tickets will be available in any one community.

Gib Sandeler, concert tour manager for the famous band, said yesterday "I hope music lovers who really want to attend this concert do not delay their ticket purchases. We had to turn away thousands recently at Nashville, Tenn., where we appeared under auspices of The Nashville Banner. Seven thousand five hundred concert-goers got inside the auditorium, but thousands of others were turned away at the doors."

Only Appearance

The Lexington concert will be the Navy band's only appearance in Kentucky during its present tour.

Ticketr go on sale today by mail. They cost $1.30 each for adults and 50 cents for elementary and high school students. Orders should be sent to "United States Navy Band, Room 300, 237 Main Short Street, Lexington, Ky." Be certain to include a 10-cent mailing fee. A ticket order coupon appears in an advertisement on page two.

There will be no reserved seats at the concert. Since tickets will be sold in a large number of Kentucky cities, committeemen in charge of the concert will try to guard against "over-selling" the Coliseum's capacity. Ticket demand for concerts at the Coliseum

'Bermuda - Carlisle?' There's A Connection

If you hear the song "Bermuda" pouring out at you from one of the local juke boxes, you are not likely to associate it with Carlisle—but—there is a connection.

According to a feature article in Sunday's magazine section of the Courier Journal, the singers are the two daughters of a former Carlisle boy.

The listing on the record will show that the Bell Sisters are the vocalists on the number, but that's non-leading. They are really daughters of Gene Strother, who grew up and went to grade school here before moving to Ashland upon becoming high school age.

The girls carry the stage name of the Bell Sisters because their mother was the former Miss Edith Marie Bell, of Paducah.

The girls are Cynthia, 16, and Lucy, 11. According to the article they made their formal debut on Dennis January 22 as guest performers on the Frank Sinatra show. They were also on Dinah Shore's program February 5.

The Strother family, who now live in Sal Beach, California, are relatives of Mrs. M. T. Ruddell of Carlisle.

Some Vet Items Exempt From Taxes

Payments to veterans for benefits administered by the Veterans Administration are tax-free and need not be considered in computing Federal income tax, Ray R. Adams, Manager, VA Regional Office, Louisville, reminded veterans today.

Also, he added, dividends which veterans have received on their GI insurance policies are exempt from taxation, and need not be reported.

Among the tax-exempt VA payments are the following:

Subsistence allowances for veterans training in schools, on farms and under on-the-job training; and Public Law 16 (for the disabled).

Payments by VA to be applied to veterans' GI loans. Under the latter law, VA may lend the amount equivalent to four percent of the guaranteed portion of the loan, which is credited to the veteran's account.

Disability compensation and pensions paid to veterans for both service-connected and non-service connected disabilities.

Grants for seriously disabled veterans for homes specially built wheelchair living.

World War I emergency officers' retirement pay.

Death benefits to families of deceased veterans are also exempt from taxation, Adams said. These include compensation, pensions and all GI insurance payments.

District Tourney Opens Tonight; Muskies, Jackets Gunning For Upsets

The basketball hopes of Carlisle and Nicholas County in the 60th district basketball tournament which opens tonight in Paris will be put to a severe test as both teams will take the floor as underdogs.

The Musketeer hopes rest on the fact that "it's hard to beat a team three times in one season." The Muskies have dropped two regular season encounters to their tourney opponent, North Middletown.

But North Middletown barely eked by Carlisle in their last contest and the Musketeer rooters are confident that Coach Tebay Rose's cagers can pull this one "out of the fire."

May Be Top Game

What is shaping up to be perhaps the top game of the tournament is tonight's second game, featuring Coach Charles Finnell's Nicholas County Blue Jackets against the rangy tournament favorites, the Cadets of MMI.

MMI beat Nicholas County in January by a sizeable margin, but recent reports indicate that the Jackets will be primed for this one and should not be counted out too early.

Likenhous Favors Jackets

According to the Likenhous rankings in the Courier Journal Sunday, Nicholas County is the strongest team in the district. However, many disagree with Dr. Likenhous, especially around Millersburg.

The Muskie-North Middletown encounter will open the three-day meet at 7 p. m. tonight. The Blue Jacket-MMI contest will be the nightcap.

The tournament is being held in the Paris Southside gym.

Committee Named For Fourth Annual VFW Horseshow

Again this year the Lloyd George Post 8666, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will sponsor their annual horseshow to be held at the city athletic field on the night of June 3.

Russell Alexander has been named chairman of this year's show and Johnny Farbuck will again be secretary for what has been termed as "Kentucky's Finest One Night Show."

Plans are being made to have nine rings this year.

A meeting of the horseshow committee was held Tuesday night and other officers for the event were appointed and plans were discussed to lay the groundwork for another outstanding night of entertainment.

Committee Members

Keller Hughes, W. R. Buntin Jr. and Ed Sanders were named as new members for this year's show.

Dudley Walker, Lawrenceburg, was selected to be the judge.

Clif White was named announcer and Keller Hughes will repeat as ring master. Ed Sanders is acting as treasurer for the committee. Estill Walton was appointed to be in charge of the grounds and horses.
