Harold Hamm Is Winner Of Local Essay Contest

Harold D. Hamm, student at the Nicholas County high school, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hamm of Ewing Route 1, was named winner of the Soil Conservation Essay Contest for Nicholas county.

The contest is sponsored annually by the Courier-Journal and Louisville Times in cooperation with local agricultural agencies. Local prize money in the contest to the six winning contestants was presented by the Nicholas County Farm Bureau and the Nicholas County Soil Conservation District.

Other winners in their proper order and prize money are as follows: Joe Blount $6; Bobby Shrout $4; Jimmy Judge $3; Jim Hughes $2; and Charles Carter $1.

Hamm will receive an $8 local first prize for his winning essay and will receive a $25 savings bond from the two Louisville newspapers.

The winning essay follows:

"How Good Soil Conservation Practices Of Nicholas County Will Contribute To Standard of Living And Security of All The People"

Good soil conservation practices in my district will contribute to the standard of living available to all of the people in many ways. One of these being the increase in farm income.

The American soil is the heritage of our entire nation and should be conserved and utilized for the benefit of all our people. The proper care of the land left us by our forefathers plays an important part in our future and

Post Observing National VFW Week

John Freback, commander of Lloyd George post 8666. VFW, this week issued a timely invitation to the public to help the post observe National VFW Week during the January 24-31 period.

During this week, Commander Freback stated, "every VFW member will be glad to tell any inquirer about the local post, its platforms, policies, aims, and operating procedures and organization."

Commander Freback further stated that he hoped "that this week, as well as at any other time any person, whether a potential member or not, will feel free to find out just what we are striving to accomplish, not only for disabled and needy veterans, but also for the community and for the nation."

Musketeers Lose; Jackets Win; LRVC Tourney Now In Progress

The Carlisle Musketeers dropped a 64-29 decision to the Georgetown Buffaloes Tuesday night in Georgetown as the Buffaloes avenged an earlier season setback at the hands of the Muskies.

Georgetown broke away in the first quarter to lead by 16-6 and increased their lead throughout to win easily. In the first encounter between the two schools, Carlisle defeated Georgetown 49-46.

The Carlisle game with Cynthiana Friday night was postponed.

Blue Jackets Win

The Nicholas County Blue Jackets warmed up for the Licking River Valley Conference tournament, scheduled for this week, by defeating Bethel 73-31 Friday night.

Gaunce, Fryman and Wilson paced the Jackets to an easy victory. The Jackets will play Maysleick at 1 p. m. today in the tournament which is being held in the Fleming County high school gym.

The Musketeers will meet Mt. Olivet Tuesday night in the local gym, while Nicholas County swings into action regular play against Minerva here Tuesday night.

Tobacco Donated To March Of Dimes

Approximately $500 has been donated to the current March of Dimes campaign in Nicholas county thus far, according to Bill Powers, chairman of the drive.

The fund campaign was boosted considerably last week as Billy Conway and Walter Shepherd donated a basket of tobacco to the drive and the basket averaged over $1 per pound and brought $100. It was sold Thursday at the Burley Warehouse in Mt. Sterling. Joe Allen Stone, local tobacconist, was a contending bidder for the crop and bid $99 for it. His bid was topped by the warehouse.

The community square dance which was held in the Carlisle Armory Thursday night attracted a crowd of over 300 persons and $142 was realized from this fund-raising event.

Most of the money from the various schools has already been turned in and a detailed list will be given next week. Card contributions have been slow in coming in, Bower reported.

The Nicholas County high school basketball team offered this week to play a benefit game for the Dimes Drive and challenged any school to play.

Sales Reported By Local Agents

Several sales were reported this week by local real estate agencies with Fightmaster as the selling season got into full swing.

The Fightmaster Real Estate Agency reported one of the largest crowds to attend a public auction was seen at Spencer Gaunce's sale of farm machinery and livestock Saturday. Most of the prices paid for the articles were reported as good.

Earl Hamm, local real estate agent and auctioneer, announced the following sales: a store and residence at Ellisville, to Mr. and Mrs. John Bowles as a private price; and a 30-acre farm owned by the McCowans here, located at Oakland Mills, to Carl Letcher.

The Scott-Kendall Sales Company and Dan E. Westfall, real estate agent, reported the sale Saturday at public auction a 122-acre farm in Bath county, located on Big Flat Creek, for the heirs of Edward S. Bradley, to Rawlings Brothers at $209 per acre.

Burley Allotments Being Taken By PMA

Applications for "New Growers" burley tobacco acreage allotments for 1952 are now being received by the Nicholas County Production and Marketing Administration Committee.

Mr. H. L. Herndon, chairman of the committee, states that all applicants must file their applications on or before January 31, 1952, except in case of veterans who were discharged after December 31, 1951, who may file up to a reasonable time before planting.

Eligibility requirements for "New Grower" burley allotments may be obtained at the local PMA office in the courthouse basement.

Paris Woman Dies From Fatal Injuries In Car Accident

Mrs. Betty Ruth Wagoner, Paris, died Monday night in the St. Joseph's hospital, Lexington, of injuries sustained in a traffic accident Saturday night on the Lexington-Paris road.

Mrs. Wagoner was the passenger in a car reported by State Trooper Francis Taylor to have been driven by William Lovell, 18, that collided with another vehicle driven by E. K. Watkins of Cynthiana and Lexington, formerly a druggist in Carlisle.

Also hurt in the accident were the dead woman's husband; the driver, Lovell, and his companion, Miss Nancy Harney, 15; and the two occupants of the other car, Mr. and Mrs. Watkins.

Two Local Students Named To UK '240'

Two students from Nicholas county have been selected to serve on the University of Kentucky Committee of 240 in 1951-52, according to the U.K. Public Relations Department. They are Arthur Linville and William Blake.

The Committee of 240 is composed of two students from each of Kentucky's 120 counties. Members of the University service organization visit the high schools from which they were graduated, talk to seniors who plan to go to college, and distribute University of Kentucky informational material to those interested. President H. L. Donovan has termed the Committee of 240 one of the University's most important student organizations.

Linville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Linville, Route 1, Ewing, and a junior in the College of Engineering, is also a member of Keys, sophomore men's scholastic honorary, Pershing Rifles military honorary, and the YMCA. He was graduated from Mayslick high school.

Blake, son of Sen. and Mrs. H. Stanley Blake, 109 College Hill, Nicholasville, is a freshman in the Commerce College, is a graduate of the Carlisle high school.

"Band Boosters" Club May Be Organized Here

A meeting will be held Thursday, January 31, in the auditorium of the Carlisle high school in an attempt to organize a band boosters club for the newly formed Carlisle high school band.

Carroll Gene Hall, band director at the school, has invited all interested persons to the meeting and stated this week that there will be an election of officers at that time. He urges all that are interested to attend.

A musical program by a few members of the present band will be presented that night.

The meeting will begin at 7:30 p. m.

BANK HOLIDAY

The Carlisle Deposit Bank and the First National Bank will close Wednesday, January 30, in observance of the birthday of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Mass Meeting Is Called To Discuss Sheep Problem

Alarmed by the overwhelming and increasing losses to the livestock and particularly the sheep industry in Nicholas county, local producers of livestock and other interested persons met in the county court room Saturday morning to discuss the situation.

After discussing the problem at length those who attended at the meeting decided to call for a mass meeting of livestock growers, representatives of organizations and anyone interested in any way for Saturday, January 26, at the courthouse.

Records on file in county court records showed that the losses of sheep by marauding dogs had more than doubled for the year 1950 over any other year on record.

Losses High

The trend was even worse for 1951 and at the present time losses are at their highest peak.

The losses are so substantial that many sheep owners are being forced to go out of business because of the dog menace, and observers believe that one of Nicholas county's major farm enterprises is facing extinction unless something is done about the situation.

In addition to the economic loss of livestock, another menace is the danger of rabies to livestock and children caused by roving and uncontrolled dogs.

Danger of Rabies

Dr. B. F. Reynolds, director of the Nicholas County Health Department, was present at the meeting, and emphasized that rabies was one of the most serious aspects of the problem.

R. C. Miller, sheep field agent of the University of Kentucky, was also present at the meeting Saturday and discussed state and county problems relating to dogs and rabies.

Judge W. E. Boswell, Cynthiana, who also attended the meeting, stated that the problem had gotten out of hand during the past number of years because of public sympathy, due to the fact that most citizens were unaware of the seriousness of the issue.

Time of Meeting

At the mass meeting Saturday a definite program will be planned and approved which will be directed at relieving this important economic and health problem.

The meeting will be held in the courthouse and will start at 1 p. m.

All livestock growers, representatives of organizations, or anyone interested in any way were invited to attend.

Recreation Council Elects 1952 Officers

Miss Emily Asbury was named president of the Community Recreation Council at a meeting Thursday night at which plans were made to continue the summer recreation program this year.

Other officers elected included Raymond House, vice president, Mrs. Thomas Johnson, secretary, and Mrs. Jack Hanley, treasurer.

The council, which operates under the local Community Chest program, discussed a long-range recreational improvement program for Carlisle, including building a concrete tennis court, out-door oven, picnic tables and other facilities.

The new vice president was named chairman of this year's softball program.

School Districts May Receive More

According to a report received this week from the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, if the current ruling handed down by Judge William B. Ardery is upheld by the Court of Appeals, both the Nicholas County and the Carlisle school districts would receive more money from the state in state-aid to school programs.

Judge Ardery ruled that the state must distribute the school fund on the basis of attendance rather than on the number of children between six and 18 living in the school district.

The Kentucky Chamber of Commerce brought the friendly suit in December to determine whether the fund should be paid on an attendance or census basis.

The Nicholas County school district would receive $3,653 more than they are getting at present and the Carlisle school district would receive $3,607.75 more than they are now getting.

Royal Arch Masons Install Officers

The Nicholas Chapter 41, Royal Arch Masons, met Thursday night for the installation of officers. G. E. Duncan was installed as high priest to head the organization in 1952.

Retiring High Priest Robert Hall was the installing officer.

Others who took office were Elmer Plumpter, king; Raymond Hall, scribe; F. C. Henry, secretary; H. C. Norton, treasurer; Jammie Blair, captain of the host; Ray Flora, principle sojourner; Earl Marshall, royal arch captain; Ed J. Thomas, master of the 3rd veil; Harvey Wagoner, master of the 2nd veil; S. R. Barlow, master of the 1st veil, and Ed Sanders, sentinel.

The yearly organization of the group was changed from Sept.1- Aug. 31, to January 1-Dec. 31.

Local Legislators Named To Posts In Kentucky 1952 General Assembly

Senator H. Stanley Blake, Carlisle Democrat, has been named chairman of the Senate Committee on Agriculture and State Fair. He is also a member of the committee on banks and banking, fish and game, forestry, state and national parks, insurance, labor and manufacturing, motor vehicles, public utilities, regulation of intoxicating liquors, revenue and taxation, rural roads and highways, and ways and means.

Senator Blake, who represents Nicholas, Bracken, Grant, Harrison, Pendleton, and Robertson counties, has served in the upper chamber of the General Assembly since 1938.

Representative William W. Blanton, Paris Democrat, has been named chairman of the House Committee on Judiciary and Judicial Council. He is also a member of the committees on charitable and penal institutions, elections, Kentucky statutes (No. 1) and motor transportation.

Former Senate Member

Representative Blanton, who represents Bourbon and Nicholas counties, served in the upper chamber of the General Assembly from 1946 to 1948. He is a former city attorney and police judge of Paris. He has been vice chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee.

Carlisle Honors Emery Clark, Jr.

In tribute to one of Carlisle's finest athletes, 150 football fans packed the Masonic Hall at five bucks a head Friday night to honor Emery Clark Jr., who recently finished his gridiron exploits with the "Big Blue" of UK.

Rotary club members, their wives, fans in general and the Carlisle high school football team, sat through the program and applauded loudly at the praise heaped on Emery during the program and later as he made a fine play when the films of the Cotton Bowl were shown.

Coach Paul Bryant was the main speaker of the evening and lauded Clark as a "clutch man" and said that he would be glad to have more boys like Emery on his team.

Opening the program, Coach Tebey Rose had earlier paid tribute to Emery as one of the "finest boys he had ever coached."

Highlight of the evening was the presentation of a $500 savings bond to Clark which was made up from sale of tickets to the occasion.

In a short acceptance speech, Emery thanked the people for the gift, and especially for their support of him while he was playing.

Toastmaster Roger Womack spoke for the group when he told of the situation in Carlisle during Saturday afternoon while Emery was playing.

Miss Emily Asbury presented Emery with a colorful "Cotton Bowl Scrap-book," attesting in print Clark's prowess on the gridiron.

Grear To Attend Farm Service Meeting

A two-day farm service conference for managers and personnel of Southern States Cooperative Farm Service Agencies in the Louisville area will get underway today in Louisville.

All sessions of the conference will be held in the Henry Clay hotel. Approximately 75 agency managers and personnel are attending from this area.
