TED BURCHETT

Salt Lick merchant and World War II veteran asks your support in the Republican primary for Congress and urges you to vote in the primary. Will you go the limit for a man whose interests are the same as yours?
I need your help. Will you go the limit for a man whose interests are the same as yours?
I need your Republican voter to turn out and vote for me in the primary. Nicholas County and its citizens will never regret their choice. I can win this fall over the Hon. John C. Watts if you, my friends, will give me the chance. I need your vote but choose wisely and vote your own sentiment I have come all the way in this race and I had no opposition until the last day to file.
I have the support of most of the county chairmen and organizations. I have never asked for public office.
Since the convention all the Republican party in Kentucky is behind me. The new Eisenhower Republican groups in Kentucky are all behind Burchett for Congress.

Very Light Vote Forecast Here In Saturday's Primary Election

A light vote of between 800 and 1000 is being forecast by local political observers on Saturday's primary in Nicholas county.

Little interest has been shown in the election thus far which will see voting for both Republican and Democratic tickets. Most interest in this county is centered around the Democratic nomination for Congressman which pits Congressman John Watts of Nicholasville against Burt T. Peak of Lexington and Charlie Cobb of Owenton.

Watts is expected to win the nomination although Peak is supposed to have considerable strength in Lexington county.

On the Republican ticket for nomination for Congressman three contenders are listed on the ballot. Ted Burchett of Salt Lick is slightly favored in this county. Homer Boyd Royse of Lexington and Leslie A. Henderson of Olive Hill complete the Republican hopefuls.

The United States Senator's race will be listed on ballots in this county but Delk's withdrawal recently from the race leaves Senator Tom Underwood without opposition.

Several changes in the election laws will go into effect in Saturday's primary and County Clerk John Sugg has asked all voters and election officers to familiarize themselves with the changes.

Every voter must sign a comparative signature book on this election for the first time. The polls will open earlier, being opened at 6 a. m. and staying open until 5 p. m.

The other change is that only one election officer shall sign the back of each ballot.

An official announcement of the changes will be found on Page 3 of this week's Mercury.

Hot Weather Hurting Tobacco In County

The extreme heat of the past few weeks with the lack of a good rain has caused tobacco to fire badly in many sections of the county.

The situation as it stands now is that it will not be too serious if a good rain would come within the next few days. It has been reported that several farmers in this county have begun cutting their crops. Others have been holding off topping and cutting hoping for a rain.

The corn crop in the county is suffering for the lack of rain, reports indicate, and is suffering throughout the county.

Cloudy weather Wednesday seemed to promise a downpour but by mid afternoon the rain had not come.

Freak Accident Puts Out Lights

Electric service in Carlisle and Nicholas county was interrupted at one and three minutes Saturday by a freak accident caused by a low flying plane.

According to Morris Whitely, local KU manager, the plane evidently had a length of telephone wire hooked to its wheels and as it passed over some high tension phone and power lines on the Maysville road the wire caught on them and was jerked loose from the plane. The wire fell across the lines causing the short.

The plane picked up the telephone wires when it flew low over the farm of C. K. Thomas. The wheels of the plane ripped out the lines and carried them through the air until it deposited them on the power lines.

The shortage in the power lines caused several small grass fires in that vicinity but no damage was reported.

The plane was apparently unaware of the damage it caused as it continued on its way after causing the short.

Southern Bell Telephone Company Files Petition Asking Higher Rate

The Southern Bell Telephone Company today filed an application with the Kentucky Public Service Commission asking increased rates to offset higher wage costs incurred recently and other advanced costs not yet recovered.

Filing of the petition had been expected in view of the fact that a general wage increase for Southern Bell employees was approved by the Wage Stabilization Board last week. Officials indicated at the time the contract was signed that the added costs of doing business, "piled on top of previous cost increases not fully covered by present rates," would necessitate revised rates.

A detailed report of the proposed increase is found on Page 6 of this week's issue.

The present telephone rates in Kentucky were established on December 31, 1951, when the Public Service Commission authorized rate increases amounting to considerably less than Southern Bell's request. The Company expressed disappointment but placed the new schedule in effect as ordered by the Commission.

"Aside from the fact that we did not obtain authority for the rate increases requested and badly needed at that time," Kentucky Manager C. Hunter Green said, "the added wage costs now place an additional squeeze on our financial operations and give us no alternative, in the interest of the service the state needs.

The state manager pointed out that the increased wage costs, together with the previously incurred cost increases which the Company has not recovered, will serve to reduce earnings in Kentucky to a level that is inadequate for the needs of the business. "To provide good, dependable and expanding service such as the people of Kentucky want, our earnings must be adequate to attract large sums of additional capital," he declared. "They are not adequate now and are declining due to the wage cost increases."

Additional annual gross revenue requested in the petition is $2,-382,118.

BRINGS RESULTS
The "Alley Cat" advertisement published in the Mercury last week brought quick results according to Police Chief Buck Rossman. He stated this week that the "Alley Cat Club" had abandoned their headquarters on the court house lawn and steps for a safer environment and that several citizens had complimented him on the clearing out of this crowd. One man, according to Chief Wasson, has been sent to the Paris rock quarry for a workout and warrants for a few more have been written. The ad is published again in this week's Mercury as it appeared last week.

"Colonel" Waves State Standard At Convention

Carlisle was well represented at the Democratic National Convention last week in Chicago as television viewers will attest.

Seen among the Kentucky delegation and at other points on the convention floor during the sleek long session was "Colonel" Patrick Conley of Carlisle, complete with string tie and a Kentucky Colonel hat.

The "Colonel" was seen mostly during the voting which was held during the latter part of the convention.

Waves Standard For Barkley
During the Barkley demonstration Wednesday night preceding the vice president's speech, Kentucky's standard could be seen waving above the crowd in front of the speaker's rostrum. "Colonel" Conley was the gentleman in charge of the standard during this demonstration and if you saw it on televisoon, you know that he did a good job.

Those that viewed Truman and Barkley over television preceding Mr. Truman's introduction speech of the presidential candidate, Adlai Stevenson, perhaps saw the Kentucky and Missouri standards being dipped to meet and then form an arc over the heads of Mr. Barkley and Mr. Truman.

Forms Arc With Missouri
Dipping the Kentucky standard during this dramatic moment was none other than Colonel Conley.

Mr. Conley was accompanied to the convention by Rep. Bill Henry, Georgetown, a delegate for Kentucky. He returned to Carlisle Tuesday.

Three Fish Ponds Undergo 'Purging'

Three Nicholas county ponds underwent "purging" Tuesday to rid the ponds of rough fish. The work was carried out by the State Division of Fish and Wildlife.

Ponds getting the treatment were those belonging to Rainey Smith, James Allison and "Buster" Clark. Game Warden Harry Duncan assisted in the operation.

Several nice fish were taken from Mr. Smith's pond and the biggest one taken from the Allison pond was a two and one-half pound channel catfish.

A chemical mixture scattered over the water is used to paralyze the fishes gills and bring them to the surface where they are scooped off. In shallow ponds such as the ones treated Tuesday the fish began coming to the surface and jumping out of the water about ten minutes after the operation began.

The ponds will be stocked with bream in the fall and bass in the spring, according to Warden Duncan.

Giffins' Advances In Softball Tourney

Giffin's of Carlisle advanced to the semi-finals of the annual Little Rock Invitational softball tourney Tuesday night by downing North Middletown 2-1 in a tight pitching battle.

Crockett was the winning hurler for the locals who opened up with a run in the first and were never headed. They tallied again in the fifth and North Middletown spoiled Crockett's shutout by notching their lone run in the sixth. Lowell Kenney served as "Fire-Ball's" battery mate.

By their win Tuesday Giffin's were to play Little Rock Wednesday night in the semi-finals. In the other contest Morton's of Paris were slated to play Winchester. The winners of these two contests will meet Thursday night at the Little Rock athletic field to decide the championship.

Group Formed To Promote Carlisle-Nicholas County

A Carlisle-Nicholas County Development Association was formed at a mass meeting Friday night in the court house to work for the improvement of both city and county.

Ralph Shearer was named temporary chairman of the organization.

The meeting Friday night was called with the idea of forming such a development group to enter a contest sponsored by the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Walter Koch, state representative of the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, was present for the meeting and spoke to the group on the aims of the state chamber in promoting such a contest for Kentucky communities.

The Carlisle-Nicholas County Development Association officially entered the contest at the meeting. Committees were appointed by Chairman Shearer to work on various phases of the organization of the group and arrangement committees were appointed for a kick-off meeting to be held sometime within 30 days.

Kick-Off-Meeting
At the kick-off meeting the permanent officers and committees will elect permanent officers and committees to foster a program of improvement in both city and county. All organizations of the community are asked to join in the program.

Committees to work on the various programs which may be adopted at the kick-off meeting will probably be appointed that night.

Those appointed on this committee to arrange for the next meeting were Mr. William Rogers, chairman; George Griffin and Dewey Watkins, committee members.

The election of officers will be held at the next meeting and Mr. Shearer appointed the following on the nomination committee: Elva Kendall, chairman; Paul Garrett, Emery Clark, Lucy Barnette, Mrs. George D. Scott Sr., committee members.

A charter committee was appointed to be headed by Roger Womack. Raymond House and W. C. Talbert were also named to this committee.

A publicity committe was named to handle the publicity for the organization. Paul Brannon and Bill Flury were put in charge of this phase.

A membership committee, to include all those present,was named by Mr. Shearer.

Miss Lida Mae Wade was named temporary vice chairman of the group.

Nicholas County School Districts To Get $60,313

CONVENIENT FIRE
The regular meeting of the Carlisle volunteer fire department was de-ep in session Monday night when a call came through that there was a fire. In a body the crew jumped on the fire truck and raced to the home of Allen Eads on North street where an old car was reported to have been on fire. The blaze had been extinguished when the volunteer crew arrived, with only minor damage.

The state per capita school fund of $384.41 for each of the 682,330 children included in the official school census will provide $60,-313.37 to school districts in Nicholas County for the present school year, State Superintendent of Public Instruction Wendell P. Butler announced today.

The money comes from the State's $26,212,500 annual school fund, which must be used entirely for teacher salaries. It does not include any equalization funds, distribution of which will be announced after all assessment data have been provided by the Department of Revenue.

The $26,212,500 appropriation for common schools is the same as the 1951 year's appropriation, but because of a drop in the number of census pupils from 682,595 to 682,330, per the capita fund was increased one cent from $38.40.

Sums to be received by various school districts in Nicholas County, $46,329.49; Carlisle, $13,983.48.

A large poisonous snake was reported to have been killed Sunday morning by a stranger in front of the homes of Mayor W. C. Talbert and Keller Hughes on Mulberry street.
