Barkley Deserved Support of HST Above Other Candidates

When Vice President Alben Barkley withdrew as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the presidency Monday night he may have remembered a decision he made at the party's Philadelphia convention four years ago. At Philadelphia only one thought Harry Barkley could have had the nomination. The convention was presided over, as president, that the nation could not have a more qualified man than Barkley. Barkley took the second spot when he came a winning ticket.

Deserves Support

John A. Wallis of Nicholasville deserves the support of Nicholas Democrats at Saturday's primary convention. Wallis was elected to the House of Representatives in a special election in April, 1950. He has proved himself worthy of the honor to represent this district. A tobacco grower himself, coupled with the fact that he comes from a small community whose prosperity depends largely upon tobacco and other agricultural commodities, Congressman Wallis is familiar with the problems that farmers in such counties as Nicholas have to face. During his time in the House he has been busy with the tobacco program in the Senate. He has introduced several times the bill to fund the Kentucky State Tobacco Experiment Station.
