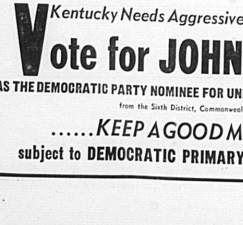
ELECT A MAN WHO SPEAKS FOR KENTUCKY

Vote for JOHN C. WATTS



HON. JOHN C. WATTS

Member, United States House of Representatives and candidate for reelection from the Sixth

Congressional District of Kentucky

THE CONGRESSIONAL RECORD OF THE HON. JOHN C. WATTS IS AN ACCOUNT OF OUTSPOKEN AND SUCCESSFUL ACTION ON BEHALF OF CRITICAL KENTUCKY NEEDS. KENTUCKY'S AGRICULTURAL, INDUSTRIAL AND CIVIC INTERESTS HAVE BEEN PROTECTED AND ADVANCED BY THE ALERT AND HARD-WORKING LEADERSHIP OF CONGRESSMAN WATTS.

ACTION and ACCOMPLISHMENT

The highly successful work of Congressman Watts on behalf of Kentucky interests before the Congress has resulted in many specific achievements from which the entire district is benefiting. Typical achievements include:

1. Appointed before Agriculture Subcommittee of the House Appropriations Committee in a successful attempt to persuade the Committee to recommend Federal Appropriations to support the tobacco research in dark-fired dark tobacco.
2. Worked successfully to help secure authorization for sustained research and operation of the locks and dams on the Kentucky River.
3. Helped successfully to defeat an amendment to the Agricultural Appropriations Bill for flexible supports which would have destroyed the popular tobacco marketing quota program.
4. Successfully supported the full request and appropriation for the agricultural conservation program set by the 1953 Agricultural Appropriations Bill in the face of vigorous efforts to curtail this important program.
5. Has been a leading Congressional fight to remove inequities in the tobacco program which threatens to destroy the entire program.

EXPERIENCE and ABILITY

Hon. John C. Watts, Democrat, born in Nicholasville, Ky., 1903, and graduate of Nicholasville High School, University of Kentucky and University of Kentucky Law School. Engaged in the practice of law and farming in Nicholasville since 1927. Elected to Kentucky House of Representatives in 1930, 1932, 1934 and 1936. Elected to the 76th Congress from the Sixth District in 1938. Re-elected to each succeeding Congress. Mr. Watts has been County Chairman of the Democratic Party in Jessamine County since 1932. Is a member of the Methodist Church, a Mason, Elk & is a member of the Jessamine County Farm Bureau, the Jessamine County Lions Club, and the Kentucky Bar Association.

Kentucky Needs Aggressive, Effective Representation

R.E.A. Annual Meeting To Be Held At Fleming Fairgrounds July 31-Aug. 1

Top features of the 1952 annual meeting and electrical farm show sponsored by the Fleming-Mason Rural Electric Cooperative will be the Countywide Beauty and Handicraft contest.

The Beauty contest will be open to unmarried girls between the ages of 16 and 25 whose families are members of the Cooperative.

The handicraft contest is open to Cooperative members and their families, and any original craft work designed and made by the contestant may be entered.

The following items are eligible: weaving, wood carving, embroidering, quilting, clay modeling, hooked rugs, potters, wrought iron and other crafts of this type made from native materials.

The Beauty and Handicraft contests are but two of the many features that the Cooperative members and the interested general public can witness at this year's annual meeting and farm show. In addition, there will be a Western Revue with a trained animal act, the highest type act in America, a wild animal show; Previews of Progress by General Motors; and many other interesting exhibits and demonstrations.

Of course, Coop members will be concerned with their annual business meeting at which they will elect directors and conduct the business of their Co-op. This business session will be held on the second day of the show.

All these Co-op members who attend and register will be eligible for attendance prizes. Prizes will be awarded every hour on the hour.
