Just home from his first train ride, a small boy was telling one of his young friends about his new life's ambition—to be a railroad conductor. But wouldn't you rather be a railroad engineer and drive the train?" asked one of his friends.

"No siree!" he said in a positive tone. "The conductor gets to carry home all the comic books kids leave on the train."

Guided by electronic "eyes and ears", the test deskman spots line troubles at once and gets repairmen there quickly, often before service is actually interrupted.

HEADING OFF line troubles helps keep telephone service good, and costs down. Growing efficiency all along the line is one of the reasons why the price of telephone service has gone up less than most other prices.

Through good management . . . by improving methods and equipment, and working facilities to the utmost . . . telephone folks are doing their best to provide the most and the best service for your telephone dollar. That's mighty important to Southern progress and to National Defense.

TODAY'S Menu

Four Fine Ways With Franks

By ALICE DENHOFF

250° F. for 20 minutes.

ANY time we decide to award a prize for the most useful food, the good old frankfurter stands a good chance of winning same.

For a quick summer dish that looks big but isn't a budget-buster, peel 6 medium-sized potatoes; cook and mash with 3 tbsp. fat, ½ to ¾ c. hot milk, salt and pepper to taste. Pile on plank or oven-proof platter. Arrange one pound frankfurters on potatoes, and 4 bacon strips atop franks. Broil until bacon is crisp and potatoes are thoroughly heated. Serve sliced tomatoes and a tart relish with this. Serves 4-6.

For another main course to serve 6, split 8 franks and arrange, split side down, in greased casserole. Mince a medium-sized onion and saute in ¼ c. butter until lightly browned. Stir in ¼ c. flour; gradually stir in 3 c. cooked tomatoes, and cook until thickened. Add 3 c. diced, cooked carrots, 3 tbsp. catsup, and season to taste with salt and pepper. Pour mixture over franks and bake at 350° F. for 30 minutes.

Pineapple and Vegetables

Frankfurters star next in a really pretentious platter, nice enough for the fussiest eater.

To serve 4, grill 8 tenderized frankfurters. Sauté 6 slices canned pineapple in 2 tbsp. butter. Combine 1½ c. each cooked string beans that have been sliced, and canned or fresh cooked corn; season and heat. Pile vegetables in center of large platter, and surround with 8 thin squares of toast, each square topped with a slice of pineapple and a frankfurter. Fill up dish with mild onions, sliced. Blend one can tomato soup and ½ c. hot water, and pour over all. Cover and cook at 300° F. until onions are thoroughly tender—about one hour. Then remove cover and brown surface slightly. Usually the seasoning of the frankfurters is enough to season the entire dish.

MRS. JACK JONES EARLY was Miss Nancye Bruce Whaley, daughter of Mrs. Katherine S. Whaley, Lexington, formerly of Carlisle, before her marriage Sunday, June 1 at the Epworth Methodist church in Lexington. Mrs. Early is a graduate of Carlisle high school and Kentucky Wesleyan college, where she was a member of the Alpha Beta Chi sorority. The couple will make their home in Lexington.
