Carlisle E. Homemakers

By Mrs. James Daizelle

The Carlisle East Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. George Gaffin, Thursday, March 20, for their March meeting.

The devotional was given by Mrs. Jamie Dalzelle as she read I Corinthians 1:15, which was followed by the members repeating the Lord's Prayer.

A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Gaffin.

In the afternoon the lesson on "Legal Affairs For Women" as given by Mrs. William Duncan.

An open discussion was held on projects for the coming year.

The next meeting will be held April 17 at the home of Mrs. James Dalzelle, and an important lesson on business affairs will be given.

Concord Homemakers

The Concord Homemakers club met March 19 at the home of Mrs. Paul Donovan who was hostess to the club. There were seven members present at this meeting.

A quiz was held on the United Nations and brought forth many phases of this organization that were not generally known heretofore.

The lesson on business affairs was given by Miss Emma Barnes who covered all types of checks that most of the members come in contact with. This lesson took on personal, certified and cashier's checks.

There was a discussion as to what projects the members of the club would be interested in for the coming year.

A dessert course was served by the hostess, Mrs. Paul Donovan.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Nora Hamilton, Upper Jackstown road.
