RUNNING WATER? on the farm it's WORKING water! Working water means added income from your stock without increasing their numbers. Working water ups yields from dairy cows 10 to 25 per cent, can increase egg production as much as 20 per cent, increases weight on beef cattle, hogs, lambs, gets them to market sooner, and for less feed. Working water relieves you of those hundreds of hours you spend each year driving stock to water - just lugging water to the stock. Working water speeds your washing and scrubbing chores. Working water means less work for you. And it means less work for your wife, too. No more pumping... no more hauling... plenty of water for dishes, laundry, cooking, cleaning, and for baths and showers. Working water is the foundation of a successful farm, of a convenient, healthy, modern, attractive home. MAY is National Water Systems Month. Dealers everywhere will demonstrate the value of working water on your farm. Let your dealer show you how a water system can work for you. It will be well worth your time.
