Charge Dismissed Against Landowner

A charge of intimidating and interfering with a local game warden against William Hamilton, Bourbon county was dismissed in county court Monday morning by County Judge Spencer Taylor, upon recommendation of County Attorney Charles Cox.

Hamilton was arrested on a warrant sworn to by Game Warden William H. Duncan after Hamilton had earlier ordered Warden Duncan off his property.

Duncan stated that he was pursuing his official duties when the incident occurred.

The case was dismissed after County Attorney Cox pointed out that there seemed to be a lack of understanding on the part of some landowners as to the rights and duties of the game warden.

Cox stated that Game Warden Duncan had the same privilege of entering upon private properties as any peace officer, as long as he was pursuing his duties.

Hamilton agreed to recognize this right in the future.

Council Ordains Fire Department, OK's 'Flouridation' At Monday Meet

Official sanction for the creation of a permanent volunteer fire department was enacted by the city council at their regular meeting Monday night.

The council passed an ordinance unanimously ordaining the department and setting forth the conditions under which it will exist.

Organization of the volunteer group has been proceeding for the past two weeks under the direction of the fire chief, Paul Coatney, and several drills have been held. Mr. Coatney stated this week that a meeting of the group would be held Thursday night at 7:30 at the city hall and requested all members to be present.

Another action taken to provide "flouridation" of the Carlisle water supply in order to prevent dental decay among city residents.

This "flouridation" project was introduced into the council by Dr. Stanley Hutchings and material signed by all of Carlisle's doctors and dentists was submitted with recommendation that this step be taken.

The council passed the ordinance to go ahead with "flouridation" upon approval from the State Board of Health. The state board must approve the city's water facilities before the actual "flouridation" can begin.

Also discussed at the council meeting was the possible purchase of a jack hammer to be used by the city water and gas departments to run lines and taps under hard surfaces.

Lady Sidesaddle Rider To Perform In Show

Mr. R. P. Alexander, chairman of the VFW Horse Show, announced this week that an added attraction to this year's show will be a lady sidesaddle rider.

Alexander said that Mrs. H. E. Frederick of Murraysville, Ohio, would be riding a Nicholas county horse in the Nicholas County Pleasure Horse ring, sidesaddle. He said it was his desire if 50 percent of those who will attend this year's show have ever seen a lady riding sidesaddle.

Mrs. Frederick is a noted horse woman and has been reported to be a very good rider.

Man Identifies Body As That Of Brother

Harry Rogers, about 55, Monday identified a body that had been in a Cincinnati morgue for a month as that of his brother, Jess J. Roger, 70.

Mr. Rogers, radio repair shop operater, died April 5 at Cincinnati. No papers listing any of his relatives were found.

A acquaintance told Harry Rogers Sunday a man named Rogers who operated a small repair shop in Cincinnati had died recently.

Committal rites were held at 2 p. m. (CST) Tuesday at the Carlisle cemetery.

Other survivors are a brother, Lewis Rogers, and a sister, Mrs. Roy Hardin, both of Nicholas county.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. J. Whitehouse.

BUYS SUBURBAN LOT

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Norton have purchased a lot in Garrett Court subdivision from Paul Garrett and plan to construct a home there this summer. Mrs. Norton's property adjoins the lot recently purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Billy Parker.

DO THEY LOOK LIKE CAVEMEN?—Perhaps not, but that's what they were getting ready to be when the above picture was taken. The group of some thirty-odd members of the Nicholas County Junior Conservation club took off one day last week and went to Carter Caves in Carter county to do some underground exploring. The group was under the supervision of Game Warden Harry Duncan, second from left. "Huddie" Snapp drove the group to the caves in the school bus in the background.—The Carlisle Mercury photo.

WHAM, BANG, THAT'S ALL—might be the idea imagined when viewing the above picture, showing the smashed wreckage of the light airplane which crashed recently on the farm of Frank Hamm on the East Union road. The pilot, Dwaine Thomas, 21 escaped luckily with slight injuries. The plane was in the act of taking off when it crashed.—Photo by Fred Whaley.

Seniors To Present 'Ever Since Eve'

On Tuesday, May 20, in the school auditorium the senior class of Carlisle will present a three act comedy entitled "Ever Since Eve".

It is the story of the ambitious editor of a small school paper and his struggle to make the paper a success after encountering difficulty in the form of a newly elected girl's editor who hinders more than she helps, to say nothing of a frivolous southern girl who sweeps all the boys, including Manny, off their feet. Many more interesting and exciting characters go to make up a marital and enjoyable play.

Cast Includes

Included in the cast are: Nancye Reid, Gary Flora, Brooks Pitman, Billy Hill, Rose Ballard, Carol Shrout, Shirley King, Jim Hughes, Jimmy Shepherd, Betty Caywood, John Willis, Alvis Hicks, Harold Bussell, Jimmy Carter, Estill Hunt, Julian Hammonds, and Billy Toliver.

Mrs. Jane Kerns is the director.

The entire class will sing two selections as their class songs: "May The Good Lord Bless And Keep You" and "Now Is The Hour."

Commencement exercises will be held Friday night, May 16.

All the programs are to be held in the Nicholas County high school auditorium-gymnasium.

School will officially close May 19 as both grade and high school students will return for half day to get their grades.

A "hymn sing" will be held Monday night at 7:45 in the school auditorium but is not a part of the graduation activities.

Storey Indicted for Murder; Forger Given Three Years

Wasson's Hearing Scheduled for May 22; Court To Resume Again Next Thursday

Two indictments were returned by the grand jury as the May term of circuit court opened Monday in Nicholas county.

The grand jury indicted Robert Storey for murder in the April 2 slaying of his neighbor, Bruce Crawford. Both were Stoney Creek road residents.

Storey was arrested the day following the incident and later confessed saying he shot Crawford because he thought he was an "intruder in his house."

He hes been out on bond since the appealed decision of his examining trial was handed down by Circuit Judge A. H. Barker, April 9.

No date was set for the trial but Commonwealth Attorney Larry Tucker was quoted as saying that he would "like to get rid of the case at this term of court if at all possible."

Given Three Years

The only other indictment returned by the grand jury charged T. B. Marshall, Henryville, with forgery. Marshall was arrested two weeks ago after several bad checks were cashed in town.

He pleaded guilty at his trial Tuesday and was sentenced to three years in the state reformatory.

Marshall was returned to the Nicholas County jail pending a motion of probation which was his first offense.

The court was dismissed Tuesday until May 15.

Civil Cases

Scheduled for a hearing that day is the Eli Westfall vs. Spencer Wasson civil suit which has been followed with quite a bit of interest among local farmers because of the fact that it may ascertain whether or not a farmer is responsible for an injury suffered by an employee.

Westfall was housing tobacco for Gaunce some time ago when he fell eight feet and suffered a broken leg. He is now suing his former employer for hospital expenses and other remunerations.

Another civil case scheduled for May 15 is Hamm vs. Woodall.

Wasson Case

Also on the docket for this term of court is the hearing of the Commonwealth vs. Laura and Francis Wasson on the charge of operating a common nuisance. The Wasson's own a scrap iron business just outside the western city limits and neighbors complained to the last term of circuit court about them endangering the public health of the community. This is scheduled for May 22.

On May 19 R. S. George vs. Cleary Fightmaster will be heard and on May 21 Robert Crockett vs. W. F. Tune will be.

Criminal Trial

The criminal trial of Brack Shrout, charged with breaking and entering the Moorefield school several months ago, will be held on May 20.

Lewis Seeks Hearing Date

Attorney Jesse K. Lewis, who is representing Mrs. Grace Cameron in her $12,000 suit in equity against the State Highway Department and L. B. Barton, over a disputed right-of-way, was in town Wednesday trying to get a hearing date set for the suit.

Since the court had been dismissed for the time being he was unsuccessful. However, this suit may be heard any time and not particularly during a term of court.

Jurors Serving

Grand jurors selected for this term were Robert Fisher, foreman; Wilford Doyle, Clarence Davis, William Marshall, Elmer Frederick, Mrs. George Honicas, A. R. Shrout, Frank Guthrie, Alton Rose, Mrs. R. J. Wesley, Mrs. Everett Plaintiel, Mrs. O. C. Grover, Ovel Day, Leon Gray, Charles M. Law, Tony Dotsers, Norwood Anslee, Charles Irvin, Everett Duncan, Henry Livingood, James Gaunce, William Fryman, Albert Fryman and B. C. Clark.

City High Schoolers Name King And Queen

Brooks Pitman and Betty Caywood, seniors at the Carlisle high school, were elected King and Queen for the 1952 graduating class recently by popular vote.

Miss Caywood is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cirtman Caywood.

She is president of the National Honor Society and the Student Council of the school, is secretary-treasurer of the pep club and co-editor of the school paper, The Musketeer Review.

Pitman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jett Pitman, is president of the senior class, secretary-treasurer of the National Honor Society, and a member of the student council and choir. He was a star football and basketball player for the city teams. He is also a member of the band.

Hospital To Observe National Hospital Day

The Nicholas County hospital will observe National Hospital Day Monday, May 12, by inviting the public to visit the hospital for conducted tours, according to Miss Doris Cloyd, hospital administrator.

The hours which the hospital will be open to the public have been set from two to four o'clock in the afternoon, according to Miss Cloyd.
