Help The Firemen

One of the most important in the world is to fire an engine in the score of a few. There is something about the wall of a fire, the speed of the engine and the accompanying flow of excitement which happens in a company on its way to a fire that appeals to everyone except those whose horizons are to be slain.

However, this impulse is but the scene of a fire only once a year. The fire truck arrives in one which is almost certain to cause serious trouble to the future.

In the past several years there has been the volunteer fireman not taking the truck but having to depend on the fire department. The volunteer fireman has had to park his truck a distance from the scene and thirty feet previous time getting there.

In the opinion, the local volunteer fire department is doing a good job. We are sure that each fire unit will be able to handle any fire emergency, but about ten minutes before the fire is out and getting there, the volunteer fireman is chosen to go to the scene as quickly as possible. It was made them to a better job.

Creeping Socialism

It is sad to hear that the Administration has begun the budget program even though that was what was expected. Hence for an early balance and the budget and general tax reduction have faded into the background.

The Administration's supporters naturally attribute this, in large part, to the fact that the Administration's immediate predecessors. Gladly the Administration is supposed to be a party that the campaign slogan made by the victors were decided and impossible to realize.

But as it is, many of the most earnest workers.

Mrs. Reynolds Named Acting Postmaster; Street In Front Of Courthouse Repaired

Thursday, August 3, 1933
President Roosevelt's Secretary named Mrs. Virginia C. Reynolds as Acting Postmaster at Carlisle, Ky., and Mrs. Reynolds assumed the duties of the office Monday, having received her commission from Secretary George D. Scott who resigned ten days ago.

Governor Ruby Latham Evans deputized Albert H. Burkett, chairman of the Community Advisory of the 18th Judicial District.

Great improvement has been noted on the condition of streets and sidewalks since the rains of last week and pedestrians and motorists are much improved.

A. C. Hays, Graham, who formerly conducted the Carlisle bakery, has taken a position at the mill to remain until W. C. Carter, baker, and one of the firm, has recovered from his illness.

George D. Scott, who retired Monday as postmaster at Carlisle, and E. K. Knott, former postmaster from this district, have formed a partnership for conducting a real estate business in Carlisle and opening an office in the Commercial building.

Miss Thelma Hargill of London, Miss. graduate nurse of the Kentucky Hospital for the Deaf, has been doing temporary work at the hospital and is expected to accept a position at the hospital at the end of the month. Memorial hospital, succeeding Mrs. F. Fisher, who has held this position for three years.

Prof. E. J. Farnold, superintendent of the Carlisle city school, was purchased of the W. C. Dudley home on Sycamore street Saturday afternoon. The house had adjoining property was purchased by Dr. W. C. Dudley.

A night musician from the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Dudley street, residing at the home of Mrs. Dudley, was expected to arrive on Wednesday and Thursday night.

Mr. H. B. Brown brought to Thirty-Day Season For Doves In Ky.

A thirty-day hunting season has been announced by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service. The season will open September 15 and close October 15. The season will be open in all parts of the state.

There is another phase to the matter, however, which is getting increasing attention now, though little has been done about it on a high government level. This is the extent to which agriculture is participating in commercial business activities—often at a heavy loss. It's a good but that relatively few people realize just how big an operation of business government has become.

These regulations feature a sweeping, across the subject in the past 15 years. It is the hope of the organizers of the Southern Conference and race that Kentucky will be one of the states to have a large number of motor cars.
