Deaths

Mrs. W. L. DeAtley

Mrs. Addie Wilson DeAtley, 80, of the East Union road, widow of W. L. DeAtley, died at 7:20 p.m. Sunday at the Bourbon County hospital, Paris, where she had been ill a month.

She was a daughter of the late James and Mary Graves Wilson of Nicholas county, and was a member of the East Union Christian church.

Survivors are a daughter, Mrs. John B. Sheehy, Lexington, four sons, John J. and Arthur Lee DeAtley, Carlisle, George B. DeAtley, North Middletown, and Everett (Pete) DeAtley, Springfield, Ky., one brother, Roy Wilson, Cowan, five grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Matheny-Shuster chapel, with Rev. J. J. Whitehouse and Rev. G. W. Townsend, officiating. Burial in Carlisle cemetery.

Pallbearers were Clarence, James and John M. DeAtley, B. Brambiet, Woodrow and Raymond Wilson.

Mrs. Mary Boardman McClure

Mrs. Mary Boardman McClure, 83, Jackson, Miss., widow of P. L. McClure, died Tuesday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. C. C. Park, of Jackson. She was a native of Bourbon county.

Other survivors are two sons, Offie McClure of Mississippi and

Leslie McClure of Alaska, and two grandchildren.

Mrs. McClure was a sister of the late Mrs. Hiram R. Ewing of Carlisle.

Funeral is scheduled for Friday at the Hinton-Turner funeral home, Paris.

William Clay Morgan

William Clay Morgan, brother of Mrs. Sam Buckler of Nicholas county, died Friday at his home in Tupprell, Tenn.

Also among survivors is a niece, Mrs. Everett Henson, Little Rock.

The body was brought to the Davis funeral home, Paris, where funeral services were held at 11 a.m. Monday. Burial in the Shannon cemetery. Pallbearers were Albert Buckler, Bruce Buckler, John Frederick, Everett Henson and Willie Maddox.

Mrs. Chester Tapp

Mrs. Myrtle Durham Tapp, 61, wife of Chester Tapp of the Scrubb Grass road, died about 2:15 p.m. Friday enroute to the Nicholas County hospital. She was a member of the Cassidy Methodist church and a daughter of the late Dr. A. H. and Mrs. Minerva Bratton Durham, of the Myers vicinity.

She also is survived by a daughter, Miss Winton Berry, Carlisle; a son, Frank Berry Jr., Louisville; two sisters, Mrs. Marvin Shrout and Mrs. Arnold Bowen, both of Carlisle, and two brothers, John L. Durham, Frankfort, Ind., and Joe Durham, Wilder, Tenn.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Mothers-Shuster funeral home by the Rev. J. M. Bevins and the Rev. G. W. Townsend. Burial was in Carlisle cemetery. Pallbearers were Gayle Bowen, James Calmer, Kash Grimes, L. C. Tapp, Thomas Vice and Charles Barnett.

Mrs. Claudia R. Tucker

Mrs. Claudia Ratliff Tucker, 68, widow of George B. Tucker, died Thursday morning at her home on Sycamore street, after an illness of 18 months. She was a daughter of the late Charlie and Mrs. Lee Ratliff, and was born at the Old Ratliff homestead near Sharpsburg. She was united in marriage to G. R. Tucker in 1913 of Ludega, Ind., who died in 1935, and she passed on the 20th anniversary of his death. Her entire married life was spent in Indiana. Returning to Carlisle some 15 years ago to care for her uncle, Mr. C. C. Ratliff, after the death of his wife.

Mrs. Tucker was an active member of the Christian church and the Dorcas class of the church.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Howard Henry, Campbellsville, Mrs. George Fellbeck, Madison, Ind.; one brother, Roger D. Ratliff, Jeffersonville, Ind., and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Matheny-Shuster chapel, with Rev. J. J. Whitehouse officiating. Burial was in the Ratliff lot in the Carlisle cemetery.

Pallbearers were Carl S. Ratliff, Ratliff Heath, Dr. Howard Rice, Joe Green, Charles Prather, George Bell, Mason Botts and Fassett Botts.
