Have You Disappointed Jesus?

"I came to your church last Lord's day, I walked up and down the aisle; I noticed your feet was vacant, Said the Master with a kindly smile. 'Yes, it was at home,' I answered, 'Some folks from up fronton way Drove down for a weekend visit, So we stayed around the house all day. 'Oh, I had an awful headache, I had a roost in the par; Or we overslept this morning, But I go wherever I can. 'Why I went to the morning service Not over two months ago, So much work must wait 'till Sunday, There's no time for church you know.' The Master gazed at me sadly, As he was about to speak; 'My child,' He replied, 'Are there not Six other days in the week?' 'If all of my other children Should treat me the same as you; My house would be closed—deserted, Then what would the lost sinners do?' I saw I had grieved My Master, As slowly he turned away; And I bowed 'He'd not need me, Absent again on His holy day. Worship With The Mt.
