Bethel Advances As Tourney Opens

The Bethel Tigers opened the fifth annual Licking River Valley Conference tournament on Monday afternoon by defeating the Tollesboro Wildcats by a 57-43 margin.

Bethel, paced by sharpshooter Clift Vice, pulled away in the second half to down the Wildcats and advance to the second round of the tourney.

Bethel opened up with a 16-13 lead in the first quarter, stretched this to 32-25 at halftime and were on top 43-30 at the end of the third period. Tollesboro closed the gap in the final frame but couldn't quite overtake the Tigers.

Vice for Bethel was high point man for game with a total of 19 points. Tollesboro was led by McNutt who garnered 16.

Vanceburg and Salt Lick clashed in the opener of Wednesday night's session with Orangeburg and Deming playing the second game.

The second round of the tourney will start at 2 o'clock this afternoon when the host Nicholas County Blue Jackets take on Sharpsburg in what promises to be one of the tournaments closest games. Sharpsburg downed the Blue Jackets 57-54 at Sharpsburg January 20 but the Jackets almost overcame a 15 point Sharpsburg lead in the second half to pull the game out of the fire.

Sharpsburg is regarded by many as the dark-horse of the tournament and the Red Devils have proven many times this season that they shouldn't be regarded too lightly.

Fleming County Favored

Top-seeded Fleming County will play the second game Thursday afternoon against lightly-regarded Minerva. Fleming County's tough est test before reaching the finals should be Mt. Olivet Deming should Deming get by to the semi-finals, which they are expected to do.

Thursday night's session will open with the Ripley-Augusta first contest at 7 p m, followed by the game between Vanceburg Salt Lick and Orangeburg-Deming game.

The semi-finals will be held Friday night and the champion will be crowned immediately with the headliner set for 7:45.

Pairings Listed

Tuesday's Litratings from the Courier-Journal put the tournament teams in the following order

1—Fleming County	69.1
2—Vanceburg	60.3
3—Sharpsburg	52.1
4—Deming	52.0
5—Salt Lick	51.2
6—Nicholas County	45.1
7—Bethel	40.3
8—Orangeburg	40.2
9—Maysville	40.1
10—Tollesboro	28.1
11—Minerva	13.1

Mothers' March On Polio Tonight

The "Mother's March on Polio" here will begin tonight at 7 o'clock when teams of workers from all sections of the city will go to houses lighted by porch lights to collect contributions to the 1953 Polio drive.

A long blast of the fire siren will herald the beginning of the march, which is being sponsored by the Carlisle PTA, and under the direction of Mrs. W. G. Irvin, county chairman. The hour-long march will take the mother's to all homes whose porch lights are on, signifying that the families wish to contribute to the drive.

Moorefield March

Persons who do not have porch lights and who wish to contribute, are asked to turn on other conspicuous lights for the workers to see. Anyone not contacted during the march may call Rev. W. R. Raborn, Nicholas county chairman of this year's drive.

All workers are asked to report to the social room of the Christian church immediately following the march to make their reports.

According to Rev. Raborn a basketball game will be played between the National Guards and a team of former local players early in February to help the fund drive.

Nicholas Soil Conservation District Gives Annual Report

The Nicholas County Soil Conservation District began ten years ago. The SCS Farm Planners have developed 440 soil and water conservation plans on individual farms having 130,000 acres of the land area in the county.

Many farmers are now realizing their conservation problems and are cooperating with their district. They realize much more needs to be done to care for every acre to obtain the most profitable results and to use their land according to its ability.

Purchase Tractor

The Division of Soil and Water Resources has furnished funds to purchase a new TD-18 International tractor and blade. This equipment was loaned to Alexander Brothers under a lease purchase contract to construct dams, ponds, drainage ditches, diversions, clearing land, creek cleaning, etc. This crawler tractor has been in use since August, 1952 and operated an average of 200 hours per month. It replaced the TD-14 tractor which was under similar contract. More farmers will be served on a more economical basis.

Ponds Stocked

Mr. Arnold Mitchell who is with the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources, Frankfort and Mr. Harry Duncan, local conservation officer, have obtained fish (bass and bluegill bream) through the Division for stocking fish ponds and have assisted in furnishing planting materials and establishing wildlife plots of bicolor lespedeza for quail food. Plots were fenced with multi-flora rose plantings for protection from livestock.

Mr. John Zachary and Mr. W. P. Alcorn of the Farmers' Home Administration realize the value of complete conservation plans and are having these plans carried out on farms of their borrowers in the District's technical assistance. William Straw, county agent, John Adams and other agriculture teachers have been very cooperative in doing their part and working with our District. They have worked with the District personnel and encouraged farmers to put conservation measures on their farms. Mr. Adams has had the Vocational Agricultural students write essays in the Soil Conservation Essay Contest sponsored by the Courier-Journal and the Louisville Times. Prizes for the 1952 winners were awarded as follows:

First prize, $25 bond—Bobby Stone Myers, second prize, $8—Harold Hamm, Ewing; third prize, $6—Wayne McKenzie, Barterville; fourth prize, $4—Rendal W. Hardin, Moorefield; fifth prize, $3—Bobby Kenney, Carlisle; sixth prize, $2—Earl Smith, Carlisle, seventh prize, $1—Billy Mathes, Cynthiana.

Road Signs

Five road signs were purchased to mark the main highways leading into Carlisle. These are located near the county line of Bath, Bourbon, Fleming and Harrison counties.

The National Association of Soil Conservation District Convention held in Cleveland, was attended by two of our supervisors, Hampton Faulconer and Charles Lee Straw. The Association of Soil Conservation Districts' Convention was held at Cumberland Falls last October. Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Henry and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whaley attended this meeting. The Ladies' Auxiliary was organized and Mrs. Whaley was elected vice president.

SCS Week

Soil Conservation District Week was declared by Governor Lawrence Wetherby and Secretary of Agriculture Spencer Taylor, County Judge of Nicholas County. Sermons were preached in many of the churches on Soil Stewardship by local ministers during this week. We are grateful to the ministers and churches for the courtesy for their part in the District's program.

Radio broadcasts were made by Charles T. Whaley, supervisor, and Ed. L. Sanders, local conservationist, on Roy Battles' Farm program over WLW at Cincinnati. There were also other broadcasts by the local conservationist, Ed. Sanders, over WLEX at Lexington.

Newspapers Help

The Carlisle Mercury and the Nicholas County Star have been very helpful. They have published weekly news during the year, thereby letting the public know what the farmers are carrying out on their farms.

Master Conservationist awards were presented to Lewis Crosley and Charles Law at the regular Rotary Club meeting. Mr. James Claypool was the speaker for the occasion. He is from the State Division of Soil and Water Resources at Frankfort.

Farmers' Night is another meeting held at the Rotary Club on Green Pastures in the county. Dr. G. T. Cowan, local dentist and district cooperator, was judged Master Pastureman for the county and district. He is also a Master Conservationist. Demonstration of renovation of pasture was conducted on the Hank Henry's farm; Robertson, Bourbon and Fleming County District Supervisors attended this demonstration in September. Thirteen acres were treated with 2 tons of lime and 1,000 pounds of 3-12-12 fertilizer per acre. Eight acres were seeded to 15 pounds of Kentucky 31 Fescue and 1 bushel of rye. One pound of Ladino clover and five pounds of Korean Lespedeza per acre will be seeded in the early spring. The other five acres will be seeded to 60 pounds of unscarified sericea lespedeza per acre in January.

Equipment Dealers Aid

Local equipment dealers are playing a large part in the District program. Burnaw's garage purchased a bush and hog harrow and Harper's garage has a disk plow for terracing. This equipment is rented to farmers at a small cost for building terraces and renovation of pasture. All of the equipment dealers have played a part in soil conservation and our district program.

Many acres of unproductive pastures have been renovated with hog harrows, given proper treatments of lime and fertilizer, then sown to grasses and legumes that fit soil conditions. Some of the farmers who have renovated their pastures are: Dorsey Watkins, W. J. Clark, E. F. Becker, Lowell Hollar, Frank Henry and Shanklin Piper.

Bandstalk ACP Program

Ninety farmers have received technical assistance in laying out and 14 acres in it is a conservation measures through their 1952 ACP program. Pre-established practices meeting specifications were certified for payment by SCS employees working with our District.

We supervisors of the Nicholas County Soil Conservation District wish to express our appreciation for the cooperation of bankers, businessmen, implement dealers, students, citizens and all agricultural workers and farmers for their part in our Soil and Water Conservation program. This cooperation of Nicholas county people has been done to speed up conservation on the land than any other step so far.

The Nicholas County Soil Conservation Supervisors, namely, Frank C. Henry, Alton Rose, Hampton Faulconer, Charles Whaley and Norwood Auxier certainly appreciate everyone's cooperation in having a very successful year.

There is much more that needs to be done and with the continuous splendid cooperation, more will be accomplished in 1953.

Respectfully submitted,
Frank C. Henry, Nicholas County Soil Conservation District

Cowan Named Chairman Of Green Pasture Program

The Nicholas County Green Pastures committee met Thursday night to lay plans for the 1953 Green Pastures program in Nicholas county. Dr. G. T. Cowan was elected chairman of the committee for 1953 and Frank C. Henry was named vice-chairman.

Membership goal for the program for this county was set at 200 for the year and their business was discussed.

Lyle B. Leonard, field agent in agronomy, University of Kentucky, attended the meeting and brought recommendations from the Kentucky Green Pastures committee which met recently in Louisville.

ACP Reports Due By February 15

Farmers participating in the 1952 Kentucky Agricultural Conservation Program are required to file reports by February 15, 1953, on conservation practices adopted on their farms last year in order to qualify for ACP payments, R. O. Wilson, chairman of the Production and Marketing Administration State Committee, announced here today.

On the use of materials supplied through the ACP, such as lime, phosphate, and cover crop seeds, a report is required whether a payment is due the farmer or not, Wilson said.

Nearly three-fourths of Kentucky farmers—a total of 157,361—were enrolled in the 1952 ACP which closed on December 31.

Receipts for materials used are required as a part of the farmer's reports on the kind and quantity of conservation practices adopted.

In 1952, for the first time, Kentucky farmers were required to follow practices in advance on soil and water conservation practices they planned to adopt and obtain approval, either materials or payments. Farmers are eligible for 1952 ACP aid only on those designated and approved practices.
