Notice To The Voters Of The Fourth Magisterial District

Having always been a resident of Nicholas County and having always supported the Democratic party I would like to take this opportunity to announce my candidacy for Magistrate from District IV.

Since this district comprises the city and its near vicinity I would like to say that I am interested in city get more for their tax dollars. Therefore, if elected to the office which I seek, I would strive for better co-operation between city and county officials to help benefit both city and county.

Being the father of five children I am deeply interested in what Carlisle and Nicholas County will have to offer for its future citizens. I was honored to be elected initial president of the Community Recreation Council. For the past 4 years I had had the pleasure of serving as superintendent of the County Association of Sunday Schools. I have been a member of the Christian church for 13 years and am active in every way to see County Fire Protection established for the residents of the county.

I am a past master of Dougherty Lodge No. 618 A. F. & A. M.

With these thoughts in mind, I ask the voters of the Fourth Magisterial District to seriously consider my candidacy for office.

This equipment, which was purchased at a cost of approximately $100,000 will be entirely paid for not later than July 31st of this year. Nicholas County is now in possession of a rock quarry second to none. Its realization is an improvement which all of us might be allowed to boast.

While we have been obliged, because of our limited resources, to spend most of the funds available for the courthouse and jail and the installation of a new wiring system and other badly needed improvements such as the men's rest room in the courthouse, it is our present intention in the near future to devote available funds to the correction of other conditions in need of attention. These include improvement of heating systems, the repairing of roofing, where needed, and the application of paint and plastering in certain portions of our public buildings, which will bring them to the standard it is our ambition to maintain for the county.

The foregoing are primary matters which I believe are worthy of your attention at this time. I respectfully ask that you keep them in mind in urging that you give me the further opportunity of carrying out my program as your County Judge.

I earnestly submit to you, the voters of Nicholas County, my conviction that a vote for me in the coming campaign will be in all truth, a vote for progress of Nicholas County, and efficiency in the office of County Judge.

Your support and influence in this important campaign will be deeply appreciated by

Spencer Taylor,
Candidate for Re-election.

THE REAL THING—Pictured above is the true picture of the American eagle, held by his captive, Everett Barnes, Carlisle farmer caught the bird last Thursday morning on the Lee Farm on Highway 68 about four miles south of Carlisle. The eagle, with a snow-white head and tail feathers had a wing span of six feet and eight inches and was estimated to weigh between 10 and 12 pounds. Harney, a member of the Nicholas County Game Club took the eagle to the State Wildlife Farm in Frankfort Friday where officials were happy to have him. They will cage him and one the cage will inscribe Harney's name and the fact that he trapped the eagle. Harney was attracted to the eagle's nest by the eagles sharp one-and-one-half-inch claws and highly dangerous four-inch hooked bill.—TCM pic.

Judge For This Year's VFW Horseshow Stays Close To Sport After Losing Legs

A man that is regarded by many as one of the best judges of horses in the state will be the judge for the 1953 fifth annual VFW horseshow.

Jack Thompson, judge for this year's show, has been familiar in horse shows for practically his entire life. His father, owner of the Knob Creek Stock Farms near Hodgenville, was an outstanding show horseman, and breeder of fine horses, so Jack came by his love of horses naturally.

When his father was dying, he had the 19-year-old boy go to the stable and bring in a colt of which he was particularly proud. This colt later became one of the greatest show horses of all time—Noble Kalarama.

Trained by Jack's uncle for the fine harness ring, Noble Kalarama with Jack driving swept this class in nearly every show that he participated in.

In Chicago Exposition

In the late 1930's Jack Thompson thought that Noble Kalarama was ready for the big time. So he and the horse headed for the Chicago Exposition. Here, competing against some of the finest show horses in the country Noble Kalarama took second place, being nosed out by Mrs. Dodge of the famed Dodge Stables.

Undiscouraged, Thompson loaded up Noble and the pair headed for Madison Square Garden in New York to compete there in the fine harness ring against contenders from across the nation including Mrs. Dodge who had defeated him in Chicago.

In one of the most colorful classes of fine show horses ever staged, Noble Kalarama won the New York event edging out Mrs. Dodge for his revenge. From this point on, Noble Kalarama was never defeated.

After retiring from active showing, Noble Kalarama became the sire of many fine show horses and was kept in stud at the Thompson farm near Hodgenville until his death about a year ago, fulfilling a promise that the son had made to his father, that he would never "sell that colt."

An unfortunate war injury cut short Thompson's riding. During World War II while Thompson was serving with the Field Artillery in Italy a land-mine exploded beneath him and he suffered the loss of both legs.

Unable To Show

After recuperating for several months in various Army hospitals Thompson returned home and for a brief time held a hope that he might again show horses. He had special legs made that he thought might enable him to get in the saddle and put the horses through their gaits, but the "feel" was gone and he gave up the idea.

Unable to be an active participant in horse shows, Thompson turned to horse show judging to stay close to the game. Since turning his talents in this direction, he has been much in demand as a horseshow judge and has stood in this role at some of the more important shows in Kentucky, Indiana and Tennessee.

He still has his farm in Hodgenville where he has a stable of show horses.

His love of horses and thorough knowledge of the sport make him a highly qualified man to judge a horseshow. Officials of this year's VFW horseshow say they're "lucky" to have Thompson judge their show—and somebody we're inclined to agree with them.

The CHS band director stated that in all probability the community band would also give several Sunday evening concerts in the summer months on the courthouse yard.

Community Band To Be Organized Here

Mr. Carroll Gene Hall, band director at Carlisle high school, announced this week that he would organize a community band here this summer to play for special events such as the Fourth of July celebration and Labor Day holiday.

Hall stated that the larger part of the band would be made up of pupils but stated that he was open to anyone who could play a musical instrument, regardless of age or experience.

He asked anyone interested in joining the community band to contact him.

The CHS band director stated that in all probability the community band would also give several Sunday evening concerts in the summer months on the courthouse yard.

Milk Producers To Meet Tuesday To Discuss Prices

Grade "B" milk producers in Nicholas and adjoining counties have called a meeting for Tuesday night at 7:30 in the Nicholas county courthouse to discuss action that may lead to a better price for their product.

Dewey Watkins, local farmer, who is acting as spokesman for the group, said today that grade "B" milk producers in this area are now receiving only $2.80 per hundred for their milk, and that with rising feed and labor costs that this price was hardly enough to keep the grade "B" milk production on a paying basis.

Grade "B" milk producers from Nicholas, Robertson, Fleming, Harrison, Bath, Montgomery, Bourbon, Morgan, Mason, Bracken and Rowan counties have been invited to attend Tuesday night's meeting, Watkins stated.

A group of producers from this area are expected to be appointed at the meeting to contact the milk companies which buy from this vicinity to see if they can arrange for a price raise for grade "B" milk from the buyers.

Watkins urged all grade "B" milk producers of this and surrounding counties to be present at Tuesday night's meeting.

"Buddy Poppies" Will Be Sold Here Saturday

"Buddy Poppy Day" will be observed here Saturday with the sale of imitation poppies by the members of the American Legion Auxiliary.

The poppies to be sold are replicas of the same crimson poppy which grows wild on the fields of France and symbolizes a remembrance of those American soldiers who gave their lives in the two World Wars.

Proceeds from the sale of "Buddy Poppies" go to help disabled veterans and veterans orphans.

The popies are made by disabled American veterans.

Six Trash Containers Placed On City Streets

Six trash containers, purchased jointly by the Carlisle Younger Woman's Club, the City Council and the Carlisle-Nicholas County Development Association, were placed at various points around the city's business district Tuesday night and citizens were urged to use them.

The containers are galvanized and have a swing-type lid to permit the easy disposal of trash. Officials of the three groups requested everyone to use them in order to help to keep the town cleaner.

Four of the trash disposals were placed along Main street with one being placed on Broadway and one on Locust, near where these two streets intersect with Main.

White Way System Installed Monday

Seven of the ten lights of Carlisle's white way system were installed by a Kentucky Utility crew Monday and went into operation Monday night.

The new lights, located along Main street from Elm to Broadway, provide almost twice as much illumination as the old lights. They are 18 feet from the ground, six feet lower than the old lamps, and eight feet out from each pole.

Three more lights will be installed in the near future to complete the system.

PMA Review Board Recommends Increase In Rye's Allotment

The PMA review committee which met three weeks ago to hear J. Fithian Rye's appeal on his 1953 acreage allotment under the Burley Reserve Acreage adjustment for old farms, recommended this week that Rye's tobacco base be adjusted next year.

The review committee's report stated that Rye's application for a 1953 adjustment had perhaps been overlooked and recommended an adjustment for 1954.

The City told the review committee, at the hearing three weeks ago, that several farms in his community with similar old farm records and larger tobacco acreages had been increased in 1953 while his application was turned down.

KINDERGARTEN PLANS

The Carlisle - Presbyterian Church Kindergarten is planning now for next year's pre-school youngsters.

In order to assure the success of the kindergarten it is necessary that the sponsors know the number of children they can expect to be enrolled next fall. To demonstrate to any interested parent the advantages of the kindergarten, a cordial invitation is extended to all parents to visit the kindergarten in the basement of the Presbyterian Church next Monday, May 25, from 9:00 to 5:30 p. m.

It is of vital importance that as many parents as possible accept this invitation to at least investigate whether they are interested, as there must be a minimum number of youngsters enrolled in order to have the kindergarten.

All persons desiring tickets and reservations for the annual Carlisle high school alumni banquet are requested to call John Frebuck at 185. The banquet will be held Thursday night at 6:15. The 1953 CHS graduating class will be guests of honor.
